COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1935 No. 49

SENATE

MONDAY, April 22, 1935.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, O God, for our Republic, the United States of America, and for our Commonwealth, the sovereign State of Pennsylvania. May this nation and this State endure. Keep our citizens and those whom they elect to places of public trust true to the principles of the fathers.

Our flag has for many generations floated in the beautiful azure sky of liberty; liberty of thought, of speech, of press and of religion. Save us from every sinister influence that may be seeking to rob us of our liberty.

May our ensign of red, white and blue never be lowered and may the stripes of white and blue never be obliterated, leaving only a red banner to enfold our fair land. May our people never be dragged down into the dark depths which today engulf the unfortunate subjects of some of the nations across the sea. May we never become captives of any foreign power nor salute any foreign flag.

Hold us in the hollow of Thy protecting hand. Guide our Governor and our Legislature by Thy wisdom in every stormy sea through which they may seek to sail our Ship of State, bringing them into a harbor of peace and prosperity.

We ask these favors in Thy blessed name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. RICE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Legislatures of the States of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Ohio be respectfully invited to arrange to have their respective Senate and House committees dealing with revenue legislation or sub-committees thereof, meet with the Finance Committee and Ways and Means Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania on May , 1935, for the purpose of discussing uniform revenue legislation to relieve the burden of taxation on real estate;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of each of said states by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING INFORMATION FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

Mr. CAVALCANTE offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, April 22, 1935.

Whereas, A joint legislative committee has been created by the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of investigating the distribution of relief in the Commonwealth and various counties thereof; and

Whereas, Certain information should forthwith be made available and public for the use and study of said committee and of members of the Senate and House of Representatives; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board be directed to furnish to the Senate a complete list of the names, the date of employment and residence on the date of employment of the persons employed by the State Emergency Relief Board and by local relief boards in the various counties and relief districts in the distribution of unemployment relief, classifying the same, the central office and by countes or districts in which employed, together with the monthly salary paid to each such employe, and that such information be furnished not later than May sixth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five;

Resolved, That the information required to be furnished by this resolution shall, upon its receipt, be spread upon the Journal of the Senate;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in view of the fact that there has recently been appointed a joint committee of the House and Senate to consider the subject of relief, I object to the immediate consideration of this resolution.

I move that this resolution be referred to that Special Committee on relief.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, my point of order is that if there is objection to the request for unanimous consent to the suspension of Rule 39, the resolution must be referred to the appropriate committee by the President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the point of order is well taken. However, the Chair had in mind the referring of that resolution to the committee designated in the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion to refer it to the Special Committee on the study of relief, and it may be referred to the Committee on State Government where it belongs.

The PRESIDENT. Does the seconder of the motion agree to the withdrawal of the motion?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, as the seconder of the motion, I agree to its withdrawal.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn, and the resolution is referred to the Special Committee to investigate the relief set-up.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. HARVEY offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 22, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, April 29th, at nine o'clock; and that when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, April 29th, at nine o'clock.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

SENATE COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE QUESTION OF PURCHASE AND SALE OF LIQUOR IN PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Resolution Serial No. 43, reported from committee on April 18th.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 3, 1935.

Whereas, Administration of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act of 1933 has been the subject of considerable discussion throughout the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, It is essential that the Senate of Pennsylvania ascertain facts with relation to the method of handling the liquor business in Pennsylvania during the past two years, and whether the present system can be improved upon, and

Whereas, It is the desire to put into operation the best possible method by which the purchase and distribution of liquor can be effected in Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, It is deemed advisable to create a committee to study from time to time as occasion may arise, the question of the purchase and sale of liquor in the Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved, That the President pro tempore of the Senate be and he is hereby authorized to appoint a special committee of five Senators to conduct an immediate, diligent and thorough inquiry for the benefit of the Senate in considering proposed legislation into the matters aforesaid and all others having any bearing thereon which may come to the notice of said Committee: and be it further

Resolved, That such committee shall have authority to call upon such of the members of the Senate as are learned in the law of prosecution of the inquiry and ascertainment of the facts for the information of the Senate and to require of any officers of the Senate such service as may be necessary to the same end.

That the said Committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the Committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the Committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said Committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the Committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said Committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

That the said Committee shall make a report of its findings to the Senate as occasion requires.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, the House, as I understand it, is doing the same thing now, making an investigation of the Liquor Control Board and it is going to cost lots of money. Now, if we start another investigation on top of that, it will cost more money. It does seem to me that we should hold up this investigation until the House gets through with its investigation. It may be that the House will report favorably upon everything that is in this resolution, and I do not see the purpose of starting another investigation right on top of the one that is under way now in the House.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this resolution, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The President. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to ask one question. I desire to ask the Senator from Dauphin as to whether or not there is an appropriation in this bill and whether or not there will be a penny expended in the investigation?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, there is no appropriation in this bill. It does not necessarily entail any expense.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, How can an investigation of this character be carried on without considerable expense arising somehow?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, my answer to the Senator from Allegheny is that investigations of this kind have been carried on in the past without expense, and I am sure that the Senators who are appointed will be willing to undertake the investigation without expense, and I see no reason why there should be any expense.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, if there is no expense, I do not object to the resolution.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to know from the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, whether or not there is any expense attached to the investigation being carried on in the House.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I do not know.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to know from the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, if to his knowledge there is any money being spent for that investigation.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, if there is no expense, I am for carrying on the investigation. That is part of their work.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, does not the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, think that the members of the Senate are as well able to carry on the investigation without expense as are the members of the House?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I did not hear the last remark of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, but I want to announce that I am not opposed to this resolution if it does not cost any money.

The PRESIDENT. I think the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, wanted to know whether the committee would sample the liquors.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 149

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the reconsideration of Senate Bill No. 149 recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment, entitled:

An Act authorizing the selection of two additional jurors in civil and criminal cases to take the place of any juror or jurors becoming incapacitated.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 149 passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 1, line 3 of the title by striking out at the end of the line after the word "jurors" the following: "[becoming incapacitated]" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "who die become ill or are discharged for legal cause"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 154, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing that State and Federal moneys appropriated and available for unemployment relief and work relief shall be allocated by the Department of Welfare for expenditure either by political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor; or by county unemployment relief boards appointed by the court of common pleas defining the powers of such political subdivisions and boards; providing for the audit of accounts prescribing penalties and repealing existent laws relating to the administration of unemployment relief.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Section 40 Partial Invalidity Legislative Intent It is the intention of the General Asembly that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding unconstitutional any part or parts thereof the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part or parts held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 41 Repeals The act approved the fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and six (P. L. 63) entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors in cities of the third class of this Commonwealth to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities and to provide penalties for violation of its provisions" and the various supplements and amendments thereto are hereby repealed

All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed in so far as they affect cities of the third class.

Section 42 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, page 1, next to last line of title, by striking out the words "real estate brokers rental agents;" also section 3, page 4, lines 13, 14 and 15, by striking out the words "Bipartisan-Term of Office Vacancies Removal Compensation Oath of Office Organization Chairman Secretary;" also section 3, page 4, line 16, by striking out the words "Annual Report;" also section 7, page 8, by inserting between lines 26 and 27, the following: "mission by order of the commission shall be construed to;" also page 8, line 28, by striking all of said line. The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 432 (House Bill No. 678), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-one and to repeal section forty-five of the act approved the fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nine) entitled "An act relating to county rates and levies and township rates and levies" as amended abolishing imprisonment for failure to pay taxes.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, on last Wednesday morning, when this bill was up for final passage, there was an objection raised, and a motion made to recommit it to the Committee on County Government. The gentleman making this motion was requested to have the bill go over in its order. He was courteous enough to grant this request.

Everybody has had time to study the provisions of this amendment, and I think now there should be no objection to its consideration; but I think a brief explanation to the membres here would be in order. This is an amendment to the Act of 1834—passed one hundred years ago. Briefly this amendment does this: it prevents the imprisonment of taxpayers for their failure to pay taxes. It takes away from the tax collector the right to place in jail anyone who is delinquent in the payment of his taxes.

The argument has been advanced that this amendment will take away one of the ways of collecting taxes. The Act does provide that they can file a lien against the property, they can take the personal property on the premises, or they can place the property owner in jail. I have been told that this is a good Act, because it holds a weapon over the property owner and makes him pay his taxes. They also added that no tax collector would think of putting a delinquent in jail.

Now, I want to call the attention of the members of this Senate to the fact that they do put delinquents in jail. In 1932 five were arrested in Westmoreland County and placed in jail. The amount of taxes involved in the case of one of those arrested was $5.60. The man remained in jail several days—until it was brought to the attention of the Court. They then discovered that it had cost the county $32.00 to keep that man in jail for a five dollar tax. The Court was indignant, and immediately ordered his release.

There have been fifteen arrested in the last seven years. There were three imprisoned in Armstrong County, and they were very much embittered over the arrest, and there was much criticism over this action. In Pittsburgh—in which city I have the honor to reside—there was a World War veteran imprisoned for the non-payment of his taxes, and he died in jail.

This proposed amendment will do one thing—it will prevent the tax collector from placing anyone in jail for the failure to pay taxes. In this day and age an Act such as this should not be on the Statute Books; it should not be there to strike fear and terror into the hearts of those who fail to pay their taxes. It has been used against the poor of our communities, but I know many men who did at one time have considerable material wealth, who now owe several years' taxes, sometimes on a great deal of property; and if this is allowed to continue it will be not only the little property owner who will go to jail but perhaps many persons of influence and wealth of former days. So I ask the members of the Senate to vote "aye" on this bill—or, amendment.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 577 (House Bill No. 1281), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two thousand four hundred and two of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State normal Schools or Teachers College abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" by adding thereto clause (k) providing for the leasing or sale of mineral rights in certain State-owned lands.

be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED ((Washington). Mr. President, may I inquire of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, the purpose of recommitting this bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the purpose of recommitting the bill is so that we may, if possible, amend it. We do not think this bill would give the Governor of the Commonwealth the right to make contracts for the sale or leasing of mineral rights on land owned by the Government. It places all the power to do this in him without any restrictions; it includes the power to make contracts upon such conditions and for such considerations as he sees fit. We do not think this is a god law, or good policy. We think the power to make contracts should be placed under the control of the proper State authority who should have some say in determining upon what terms, under what condition and for what price the contract shall be made.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 608, enitled:

An Act to amend article twenty of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," as amended; by prescribing the powers and duties of the boards of trustees of State Teachers Colleges and the Cheyney Training School for Teachers; repealing inconsistent legislation.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I wish to state the reason for my voting as I did on this bill. I voted "no" on this bill for this reason: I spoke to the sponsor of the bill, Senate Bill No. 608, and asked him what the purpose of the bill was. He told me it was merely a change permitting—in place of the Department of Property and Supplies purchasing what was needed for these institutions, it would be turned over to the Board of Trustees, and the officials; but I find, further, that this bill not only does that, but, during the Fisher Administration, when I was in the House, that procedure was conducted in that way, and Governor Fisher realized that it was not a good method, and at that time considered it a step forward to place the bill as it had been theretofore. Now we are placing it back—going right back a step; we are not only giving the trustees the right to purchase, which I do not object to so much, but it takes from the Administration the power of appointing officers, from the highest to the lowest, and so forth. It takes them entirely away from the Administration; and for that reason I voted "no" on this bill.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 666, entitled:

An Act regulating the motor vehicle junk business; requiring a certificate of approval from the local authorities, and a license from the Secretary of Revenue to conduct such business, and authorizing the governmental subdivisions of the Commonwealth to restrict such business from certain districts.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill is designated as a bill for the public health. It provides, amongst other things, that the Secretary of Revenue shall have the right to examine proposed locations for the storage of motor vehicles, and also that wherever two motor vehicles, that cannot be used, are set upon ground near a public highway that ground shall be declared, or considered, a junk ground.

I should like the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, to explain first of all, what relation that has to public health.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I recognize that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, reads all the bills very carefully; but he mentions just one feature of this bill. The bill provides that every municipality shall have the right to pass ordinances, or zoning laws, to prohibit the placing of two or more abandoned or unregistered automobiles. It does not drive these people out of business; it merely gives the local communities the right to say where these junk yards shall be placed. It is designed to prevent the disfiguring of the scenery, or the operating of a nuisance, or the instituting of an eye-sore in any community. Also, it was designed for the purpose of assuring safety to the drivers of motor vehicles along the highways, by keeping junk dealers from piling automobiles to such a height that they would endanger the life or limb of those who are driving along the highways.

It is endorsed by the Garden Club of this State. This organization has made a study of this situation, and they have found that this sort of thing constitutes a nuisance.

Now then, answering the question of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I say to you that anything that disfigures, anything that tends to depress a neighborhood, anything that would bring to the neighborhood such odors as sometimes emanate from these automobiles that are discarded, constitutes a menace to the public health.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, whether he has not confused his odors?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I have not confused the odors. I recognize the opposition to this bill comes from those who are engaged in this business of piling automobiles along our highways and along our public streets in our home towns. Several of the Senators have told me that this has occurred beside their own homes—one in the home town of Senator Chapman, another in the home town of Senator Howell; and there were several others who considered these an eye-sore.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire further to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I shall be very pleased to.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understood from what the Senator from Pittsburgh, Mr. Harris, said, that this bill was intended to give to the local authorities the right to regulate these junk shops. If I am correct, I call the attention of the Senator from Pittsburgh, Mr. Harris, to Section 5 of the bill, which gives the right to the Secretary of Revenue to regulate these junk shops. I read from Section 5, page 4: "Secretary of Revenue may Impose Conditions. The Secretary of Revenue or his representatives shall examine the location or proposed location of each motor vehicle junk yard or business adjacent to any highway and said Secretary may make reasonable general regulations concerning and applicable alike to the establishment operation or maintenance of all such yards."

I call the attention of the Senator from Pittsburgh, Mr. Harris, further to the fact that in Philadelphia we regulate those junk yards ourselves; but that under the provisions of this bill we would be restrained from regulating them and would be obliged to abide by such rules and regulations as may be imposed by the Secretary of Revenue.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, the permission of the Secretary of Revenue begins only after the local authorities have passed on the location.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to state further that the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, is mistaken with regard to his bill—because that provision, as the bill shows, relates to another provision of the Act, which gives the Secretary of Revenue the right to regulate only those highways which are adjacent to a public highway. Undoubtedly, the bill might have been intended to refer to public highways only, but Section 5 deals—

The PRESIDENT. Are both Senators making speeches, or is this an interrogation?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is in the nature of an interrogation, and I desire to finish my statement by asking the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, if it is not true that there is confusion in the bill, in that the Secretary of Revenue is given the right to supervise and give permission for sites granted by the local authorities, in one section, and in another section the Secretary of Revenue is given the right to regulate any junk shop on any highway?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, the speech of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, was so long that I have lost what he was asking me; but I will answer by saying—and I will make it so plain that even the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will understand—this bill gives a right to the local communities to pass ordinances so that they shall first decide the question. It does not reach the Secretary of Revenue until after the local authorities have passed on it. It does not take away a bit of Home Rule.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in view of the confusion which is apparent, with regard to this bill, I ask unanimous consent that the bill go over in its order, so that even the Senator from Pittsburgh, Mr. Harris, may understand what its terms are and may straighten it out.

The PRESIDENT Is there objection?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, there is no confusion at all. I object.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 500 (House Bill No. 445), entitled:

An Act supplementing the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fiifty-eight) entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" by providing additional credit for service and prior service for State employes who were formerly employed as teachers principals or superintendents in the public school system of the Commonwealth

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 513 (House Bill No. 1043), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven (P. L. 50), entitled "An act to permit disabled soldiers to peddle by procuring a license therefore without charge" as amended governing the issuing of licenses

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 517 (House Bill No. 738), on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred and two of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 15 1933-34), entitled "An act to regulate restrain the sale importation and use of certain alcoholic beverages conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board Department of Public Instruction other officers of the State government courts and district attorneys the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises and the granting of licenses subject to local option to sell such beverages for consumption on the premises forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided prohibiting certain sales or practices in connections with and transactions in such beverages by licensees and other making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of license fees and imposing penalties" providing that one-half of all fines and penalties shall be paid to counties be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I do not know why this motion should prevail. If I understand this question, under the present act a representative of the Liquor Control Board comes into your county and makes certain prosecutions; that is, the cases are taken before our county courts. And then the Revenue Department, or the State Liquor Control Board, want their money; and this bill is introduced here so that half of the funds may be returned to the county—which would compensate them for the costs of prosecution. I do not know of any reason in the world why the costs of prosecuting liquor cases should all be bourne by the county. I think this is a good bill. I am going to vote against this motion.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, my purpose in moving to recommit this bill was to so amend it as to have the county get all the funds—to have it so amended if possible.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, of course the bill may be amended on the floor; but if that is the purpose of sending it back to committee, I certainly will agree to support the motion of my colleague, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 547, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred ninety-two) entitled "An act providing that highways or sections thereof abandoned as State highway routes shall revert for maintenance to the party or parties responsible for the miantenance of said highways prior to their coming under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways" providing a procedure for the vacation of such abandoned State highways without the necessity of a view

Section 1 Bt it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred ninety-two) entitled "An act providing that highways or sections thereof abandoned as State highway routes shall revert for maintenance to the party or parties responsible for the maintenance of said highways prior to their coming under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways" is hereby amended to read as follows

HOUSE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PAINTING WHITE LINES ON HIGHWAYS

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Highways.

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1935.

Whereas, The painting of white lines on the State highways is a very effective safety measure and is a great aid to motorists in foggy weather and during the night in driving over mountain ranges; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that white lines should be painted on the center of all primary State highways over the mountain ranges, and in order to distinguish such lines from those placed on highways as safety measures to warn motorists not to pass vehicles at dangerous spots, that such white lines be broken with blank spaces of approximately ten feet each.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Highways by the Chief Clerk of this House.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO DEVELOP PLONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE CELEBRATION OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF SIGNING OF CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1935.

Whereas, The One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States occurs September 17, 1937; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States has adopted a resolution calling for the participation of the Federal Government in a celebration of this historic event; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three members of the House, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint two Senators, who, together, shall constitute a Joint Legislative Committee, whose duty it shall be to develop plans for participation by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the celebration of the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, and to make report to the General Assembly of 1937 of the plans proposed and any legislation necessary to carry the same into effect.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. NORTON read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No 1038, entitled:

An Act to amend routes 06122 and 06123 of the act approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Act No. 203), entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act."

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BENNETT read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1039, entitled:

An Act relating to counties of the first class; defining deceased service persons; providing for contributions by the county to the funeral expenses for such persons and their widows; providing for the erection and care of markers, headstones and flags; and for the compilation of war records.

Which was committed to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr MILLER read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1040, entitled:

An Act to control and regulate the dispensing of alcoholic beverages at retail under licenses as defined dividing the Commonwealth into Retail Licensing Districts creating District Retail Licensing Boards defining their powers and duties and providing for employes of such boards and fixing salaries authorizing and restricting certain classes of licenses for the dispensing of alcoholic beverages and the issuing transferring revoking and suspending of such licenses and fixing certain license fees for different classes of such licenses and providing for the payment thereof prohibiting certain practices in dispensing liquors certain interests therein and connections therewith by licensees and others providing for the submission to the electors of certain municipalities and counties of the question whether certain classes of such licenses shall or shall not be granted for such municipalities making disposition of license fees and other monies and imposing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HUFFMAN read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1041, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 509), entitled "An act relating to petitions for laying out certain public roads, and to reports of viewers thereon," extending said act to the laying out of public roads for the benefit of property owners on vacated public highways.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

ERRATA

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, will the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton, explain to me briefly what this bill provides?

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, the bill briefly provides that the County Commissioners will appoint the registrars in the several election districts according to the registration of each party instead of the vote cast at the general election.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, at the last general election?

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, that is right.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, it is changing the practice as heretofore existing; is that not right?

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I did not hear the question.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, it changes the method of appointment so that it will be based on registration rather than on the vote cast at the last general election?

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, that is right. And it applies to third-class cities only; not to second-class cities.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PROCLAMATION

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following proclamation:

In the Name of and By the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Pa.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents' Association, consisting of friendly newspapermen, less friendly newspapermen, neutral newspapermen and members of The Record staff, is celebrating its fortieth anniversary; and

Whereas, This Association proposes to feature its celebration with an affair generally known about these premises as a "Gridiron Dinner"; and

Whereas, All of us, including the Administration and the Democratic House, and, I hope, especially the Republican Senate, will be subjected at this dinner to the heat of the newspaper frying pan; and

Whereas, It behooves all persons involved or connected with, directly or indirectly, the State Government and Pennsylvania politics to be present, although unable to defend themselves; and

Whereas, This dinner has been fixed by the correspondents for Wednesday evening, April 24, 1935, at 6:30 o'clock, in the Penn-Harris Hotel;

Now, Therefore, I, George H. Earle, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with some trepidation do hereby designate and proclaim WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24TH, AS GRIDIRON DAY and call upon all interested persons to prepare themeselves for this event, laughingly called a Gridiron Dinner, and appear at the same at the appointed hour; and I further recommend that official business be relaxed and suspended, so far as possible, after the hour of 4 p. m., so we may the better groom ourselves for the blandishments of the newspapermen.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the Commonwealth, at the City of Harrisburg, this eighteenth day of April, in the year of the Gridironers, forty, and of the Administration one.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

By the Governor:
DAVID L. LAWRENCE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 11:58 P. M. until Tuesday morning, April 23, 1935, at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, April 22, 1935

The House met at 9:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Alton M. Motter, Pastor Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Harrisburg offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, Thou who hast created the Universe and within man has placed Thy own spirit, we thank Thee that Thou art, from generation to generation, revealing unto man, Thy divine will. We thank Thee for the great pioneers who are revealing Thy will in the realm of science and nature. But especially are we grateful tonight for that great group of social prophets who have ever sought to interpret Thy will in a civilization where men must walk and live and have their being.

Guide, then, the deliberations of this body that our human laws may be but expressions of the divine laws of the universe. Revive in them the spirit of the great interpreters and builders of the past. As our forefathers rejoiced to die for their country, may they discover today more honorable ways for their represented people to live for their country.

Grant them wisdom so as to refashion all law that it may become the true expression of the fairer ideals of human brotherhood which are now seeking their incarnation in our day. Kindle in all of our hearts, O God, the passion to make the commonwealth of our state, the cooperative commonwealth with other states and nations, in which both government and industry shall be of the people, by the people, and for the people.

May we, who now live, by our loyalties see the oncoming of the great day of God, when all men shall stand side by side in equal worth and real freedom, all toiling and all reaping, masters of nature but brothers of men, following Thee, the scource of all blessings, the Father of all peoples. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Thursday, April 18, 1935.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Thursday, April 18, 1935, when, on motion of Mr. O'NEIL the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. There are a number of unsigned bills in the House Library. If the members do not sign them tonight it will be too late to introduce them. These bills have been prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau at the request of the members.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 124

Mr. COAKLEY. Mr. Speaker I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 124 Printer's No. 738.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 15, 1935.

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board has created a Northampton County Relief Board to administer the relief funds made available for said county; and

Whereas, The Department of Labor and Industry has established a State employment office in the Cities of Bethlehem and Easton, Northampton County; and

Whereas, There have been numerous complaints of gross abuse of the discretionary power and authority vested in the Northampton County Relief Board and in the State employment offices at Bethlehem and Easton, and it is reported that certain groups and individuals have been discriminated against; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of three Members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to make a rigid investigation of the conduct and operation of the Northampton County Relief Board of the Bethlehem and Easton employment offices, and to investigate such facts and circumstances surrounding the conduct of such board and office as it deems necessary for the information of the House of Representatives;

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives during this session as early as possible;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

RESOLUTION No. 122

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order Resolution No. 122, Printer's No. 664.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1935.

Whereas The painting of white lines on the State highways is a very effective safety measure and is a great aid to motorists in foggy weather and during the night in driving over mountain ranges therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the sense of the General Assembly that white lines should be painted on the center of all primary State highways over the mountain ranges and in order to distinguish such lines from those placed on highways as safety measures to warn motorists not to pass vehicles at dangerous spots that such white lines be broken with blank spaces of approximately ten feet each

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Highways by the Chief Clerk of this House and to take effect at the discretion of the Department of Highways

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Resolution No. 122, Printer's No. 664 by striking out after the word House, line 11, the following: "and to take effect at the discretion of the Department of Highways."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the resolution as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

L. 437) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the conduct and operation of public eating and drinking places within this Commonwealth imposing certain duties on the Department of Health of this Commonwealth and on the local health authorities and providing penalties" providing that dishes glasses and other receptacles used in eating and drinking may be cleansed with any suitable cleansing re-agent.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE BOARD OF CITY TRUSTS

Miss BRANCATO offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read for the information of the House as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 22, 1935

Whereas, the Board of City Trusts of the City of Philadelphia controls the management, investment, reinvestment, disposition, and distribution of property of great value and large amounts of money in which the general public of that city has an interest; and

Whereas, the Board of City Trusts is not subject to any adequate legislation controlling its activities or any supervision or audit by any public officer with regard to the keeping of its accounts, books, and records; and

Whereas, it is desirable that legislation be enacted properly to provide for the supervision, auditing, and control of the said board; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives whose duty it shall be to make an investigation of the books, records, management, and operation of the Board of City Trusts to the extent that may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this resolution and for the information of the House of Representatives; and

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives of this Session as early as possible; and

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution?

Is there objection?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent if not granted. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

RESOLUTION NO. 85

Mr. HIRSCH, asked and obtained unaimous consent to call up Resolution No. 85, Printer's No. 706.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1935.

Whereas The One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States occurs September seventeenth one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven and

Whereas The Congress of the United States has adopted a resolution calling for a participation of the Federal Government in a celebration of this historic event therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three members of the House and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint two senators who together shall constitute a Joint Legislative Committee whose duty it shall be to develop plans for participation by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the celebration of the One Hundred and fiftieth Anniversary of the signing of the Constitution and to make report to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven of the plans proposed and any legislation necessary to carry the same into effect

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair has an announcement to make at this time. The Chair requests that the committee chairmen please send their committee announcements to the desk before the end of the session. Very frequently after we have read the announcements and about half of the members have left the hall, two or three announcements are sent to the desk. Please see that your announcements get to the desk before the end of the session. It will do away with a great deal of confusion.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1787, Printer's No. 580, on page 31 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. SHEPARD.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1787, entitled

An Act to amend section one thousand five hundred three of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws three hundred forty-three) entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State Government providing for the settlement assessment collection and lien of taxes bonus and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof and al receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and miposing penalties affecting every department board commission and officer of the State government every political subdivision of the State and certain officers of such subdivisions every person association and corporation required to pay assess or collect taxes or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth" by transferring from the State Treasury to the State Workmen's Insurance Board the power and duty of drawing checks on the State Workmen's Insurance Fund

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of the bill to explain the provisions of the bill and the necessity for the changes?

Mr SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill is to change the method of payment of checks for injuries out of the Workmen's Compensation Fund. As it is at present, the checks are paid through the Treasurer's office. This bill provides for a change in that method so that the checks are to be paid directly by the Workmen's Compensation Board. This will prevent the unnecessary delay of several days by the injured person in receiving his check.

Under the present law there is a delay of about ten days or two weeks, and the injured people just have to eat snow balls for ten days while they are waiting for the checks. Under the proposed law it will preclude that difficulty and provide for the more speedy payment of these checks for injured persons by the Workmen's Compensation Bureau.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether or not this bill would remove the check on the Workmen's Compensation Fund this is now existent by reason of the Treasurer having to check on the various payments?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, of course it will provide for the simplification of bookkeeping in the Workmen's Compensation Fund, and it will be a matter of sending these figures over to the Treasurer's office for checking.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not think that it is important that the State Treasurer have the right to check these various disbursements in the interest of the funds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania rather than remove that check from the Treasurer's office?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, that is merely a matter of formality because of the fact that after the claims are filed and have been approved by the board, the machinery of the Workmen's Compensation, is a mere formality, the checking in the Treasurer's office.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I take it that there is nothing political in this bill, and I say that quite seriously. It seems to me that unless this is a party measure that the Democratic party is particularly interested in, it is a bad bill in principle. No one wants to hold up payment to the person who is entitled to receive a Workmen's compensation check, but we are a government of checks and balances and it seems to me that the removal of a check on this fund by fiscal officers of this Commonwealth is bad legislation. So, if you can vote upon this bill without regard to political parties, I would say that it would merit your negative vote. I think most of you members will agree with the fact that the Treasurer ought to continue to check on these disbursements. I grant you that it may be proper that these payments be expedited to the greatest extent, and I have no doubt that it can be done, but in principle I believe this bill to be bad and I ask you to vote "no".

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, this bill has the endorsement of the new Workmen's Compensation Board. The bill was drawn up by the Attorney-General's office and it is in line with the policy of speeding up payments to the injured workers.

I ask the unanimous support of all the members of this House in the interest of the purposes of this bill.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I not that the gentleman from Philadelphia has referred to the fact that this bill has the endorsement of certain officials I note that he has refrained from saying that it has the endorsement of this administration. I hope that it has not for the reason that there is no safeguard where we set up this special fund. The Treasurer is elected for the disbursement of money. Here the Workmen's Compensation Fund or Department would be appointed for the disbursement of the money. It seems to me that it is a step in the wrong direction and that if we start with legislation of this kind we may very well reach the stage where every department will pay out its own money and there will be no check by the Treasurer.

I want to say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, as I have said before, that if this were a party measure, I know the majority of this House would vote for it, but it is not a party measure and the gentleman has not so stated. I ask the members of this House to vote "no", because there is one thing that we do not want to do, and that is we do not want to open up the way of removing the system of checks and balances so that there cannot be a check upon every disbursement made by the Treasurer of Pennsylvania.

Even if you want to transfer it out of the Treasurer's office, transfer it into the office of some other fiscal officer of the Commonwealth but don't take the position where one certain department can issue a check. It is in the interests of the Commonwealth, let the Secretary of the Commonwealth do it—I don't care who—but let's have some check on the disbursements in this fund, otherwise you are passing bad legislation.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, this is an Administration measure. It has the approval of the Workmen's Compensation Board; it has the approval of the Insurance Commissioner, Mr. Hunt, and they have all O. K.'d the bill and they want it passed.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1885, as follows:

An Act to amend section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by exempting from the provisions thereof persons fishing in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania holding a fishing license issued by the State of New York

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 226 Unlawful to Fish Without License No person shall angle or fish in any of the waters within or bounding on or adjacent to this Commonwealth unless the license hereinbefore provided be at such time continually kept about the person of the licensee and exhibited upon the request of any fish warden sheriff constable or other officer of the Commonwealth No person shall angle or fish in any of the waters within or bounding on or adjacent to this Commonwealth unless the license button be at such time continually displayed on the outer garment in such manner that the license figures are plainly visible

The provisions of this section shall not apply to a person holding a fishing license issued pursuant to the laws of the State of New York when fishing by angling in that portion of the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania within the jurisdiction of this State if the persons holding angling licenses issued pursuant to the provisions of this act when fishing by angling in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania within the jurisdiction of the State of New York are not required to have New York licenses nor shall the provisions of this section apply to a person holding a fishing license issued pursuant to the laws of the State of Ohio when fishing by angling in the waters of the Pymatuning Lake or reservoir within the jurisdiction of this State if the persons holding licenses issued pursuant to the provisions of this act when fishing by angling in the waters of said lake within the jurisdiction of the State of Ohio are not required to have Ohio licenses

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration of final passage of House Bill No. 1749 as follows

An Act to amend sections eight hundred and twelve and eight hundred and twenty-one as amended of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing for a burgess and members of council in consolidated boroughs and terminating the term of certain of said officers

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section eight hundred and twelve of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 812. Election of Councilmen Where Borough Consolidated Whenever two or more boroughs are consolidated the members of the council of [each of such boroughs] the borough having the largest population shall be members of the council of the new borough from the wards in which they respectively reside and shall hold their office until the expiration of their terms The members of the other borough or boroughs shall determine by lot the councilmen of such borough or boroughs who shall become members of the council of the consolidated borough and the number so determined shall be two less than the number of councilmen from the borough having the largest population The councilmen so selected by lot shall become members of the consolidated borough and shall hold their office until the expiration of their respective terms and the terms of the remaining members of the council or councils of such borough or boroughs shall cease and terminate

In consolidated boroughs divided into wards the number of councilmen in each ward shall be three

At the first municipal election next succeeding consolidation the qualified electors of such borough shall select a sufficient number of councilmen to equal one-half of the entire number of which such council is legally composed to serve for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding their election and where such entire number is seven nine or eleven and where the year in which such officers shall take office is divisible by four then sufficient to constitute three four or five as the case may be and where such year is an even-numbered year not divisible by four then sufficient to constitute four five or six At the second municipal election succeeding such consolidation the remaining number of councilmen to which such consolidated borough is entitled shall be elected to serve for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding In consolidated boroughs divided into wards the council shall by lot prior to the first municipal election succeeding such consolidation apportion the councilmen to be elected as above provided so that there shall be equal or as nearly equal as possible representation by wards Biennially thereafter at each municipal election a sufficient number of councilmen shall be elected to serve for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding to fill the places of those whose term shall expire on the first Monday of January next following such election and at the first municipal election after such consolidation also sufficient number for terms of four years each so that each ward will have its full representation of three councilmen unless the number of councilmen in a ward have been reduced as in this act provided

Section two That section eight hundred and twenty-one of the said act as amended by the act approved the eight day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred fifty-eight) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 821. Elections of Burgess When Boroughs Consolidated Whenever two or more boroughs are consolidated the burgess of the borough which shall have the largest population shall be the burgess of the consolidated borough to serve until the expiration of his term [The burgess of the other borough shall become a member of the council of such consolidated borough from the ward in which he resides and shall continue a member thereof until the expiration of his term] The term of the burgess of the other borough shall cease and terminate when the consolidation is effected At the [first] municipal election [for the election of burgess in] preceding the expiration of the term of the burgess of the consolidated borough and quadriennally thereafter a burgess shall be elected in such consolidated borough for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding such election

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

Section 14 All laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this is a bill that was on third reading, passed, then the vote was reconsidered, and then the bill was brought back and is now before you for final passage. The bill has been amended since then as to penalties.

The particular objection that was made to the bill originally was to section three which provided for the issuance of search warrants, not in the words of the Constitution "on reasonable and probable grounds" but simply on the words "do believe" and "does believe that milk bottles are in the possession of somebody, and that search warrants may be issued and may be served at any time during the day or night." The objection that was advanced before still exists. The bill still provides that a search warrant on the mere belief of someone can issue and can be served at anytime during the day or night.

Now, it is not just a milk bottle that is in issue here, but it is the principle of giving someone an opportunity to issue a search warrant and search somebody's house, not for a milk bottle, but for some ulterior purpose, and if anybody wanted to enter your house, all they would have to say is "I believe that you have in your house a milk bottle unlawfully" an then when they search they can find anything that they want to find. The clause in section three of the act I think is too broad and the bill ought to be defeated unless the sponsor is willing to remove section three from the act.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, I am certainly very slow to answer the statement from the legal mind of the gentleman from Philadelphia, but I would just like to say to this House that following an objection which Mr. Sowers made to this bill some three weeks ago I took the matter up with him. I extended the courtesy of taking it up with him and asked him to submit his amendments. I was after him at least three or four times. He told me each time that he would submit these amendments, and finally when I talked to him last, he suggested that I go ahead, and gave me the impression that he would not object to the bill when it was presented on the floor of the House.

Now, far be it from me to undertake to argue legal matters with this man or any other attorney, but I would like to submit a letter which I have from a very high class firm of attorneys regarding this bill. It is from the firm of Burnside, Moninger and Burnside in which they say:

In going over the copy of the above act we find that the title to the act remedies a serious defect contained in the Act of 1911, P. L. 975, as amended by the Act of 1931, 132.

The title to the Acts of 1911 and 1931 has repeatedly been held to be in violation of Art. 3 sec. 3 of the Constitution in that the title of the Acts gives no notice that possession of registered bottles is itself an offense. A few of the decisions in this respect are found in 56 Superior Court Reports in cases listed on pages 637, 643, 644, and 645. If for no other reason than to remedy the defect in the title, there would be sufficient cause for the passing of the above act in 1935, but,

The above Act of 1911 provided only as a punishment, the imposition of a penalty:—the penalty to be collected as other debts are collected in law. As a practical matter this means that if the defendant takes an appeal from the finding of the magistrate, the case on appeal must be again instituted by the filing of a statement of claim and the case tried before a jury. It might be said that almost every defendant who violates this particular law is execution proof, so that after a verdict is finally obtained through the long and expensive trial before the jury, nothing can be collected and the defendant cannot be punished. This, in effect, really makes a joke out of a law which attempts to do away with a serious mischief.

By the year 1931 our Legislature found that the penalty punishment was not sufficient, so that in the 1931 session a law was passed amending the Act of 1911 by adding that any person who shall violate any of the provisions of the former act of 1911 for a second or subsequent offense, shall be sentenced to pay a fine or to undergo imprisonment. The Legislature, in our opinion, meant all right, but it did not take into consideration that few if any prosecutions would, or as a practical matter, could be brought and prosecuted through to a conviction of the first offense. After a person had been convicted of a first offense the Act of 1931 does really mean something, as then and for the first time, the defendant is subject to a fine or imprisonment should he commit a second or subsequent offense.

The Act now before you, in providing for a fine or imprisonment for the commission of the first offense, not only immediately subjects the defendant to some real punishment for that offense, but as a practical matter, should the defendant take an appeal from the conviction of his first offense, the appeal comes before the Court almost immediately for a hearing without the necessity of the filing of a statement of claim and the trial of the case before a jury. This is exactly the same proceeding that is had in all criminal cases providing for summary convictions. The offenses set forth in the act must certainly be intended to be criminal offenses and there seems to be no reason why they should not be treated, in procedure, the same as all other criminal offenses are treated. The punishment at the present time for the first offense is just ridiculous as it would be if a person, instead of being subject to a fine or imprisonment for reckless driving of an automobile, would only be subject to the payment of a penalty. As a matter of fact it would probably be easier to collect a penalty from a motorist than it would be from a thieving dairyman."

House Bill No. 306 is designed to break up a well organized and widespread illegal traffic in milk bottles, the passage of which is requested by legitimate dealers for their protection against tremendous losses resulting from the stealing of their bottles.

This is not an attempt to put just another law on our statute books, because we already have a law on the subject passed in 1911. It, however, is an attempt to put on the books an enforceable law. The main purpose in reenacting this law is to clarify its provisions and to insert a fine for violation of the law instead of a penalty which must be collected like a civil debt. Failure to pay the fine on conviction under this bill results in a jail sentence. Where, under the present law, in nine cases out of ten the penalty cannot be collected and the prosecution is of no avail.

The main attack on this bill is the provision authorizing the use of a search warrant to discover the evidence needed to effect a conviction. Just why such an attack is made I am unable to comprehend and this lack of comprehension is not the result of a lack of knowledge of the law, usually attributed to a person who is not a member of the bar. The fact is that the search and seizure provisions of this bill which are under attack, are not a departure from the present law. They are found in the present law of 1911 to which I have referred. When these provisions were first questioned, I had the Legislative Reference Bureau look up the present law and that Bureau has furnished to me a copy of that law which contains the same search and siezure as this bill. In fact, one lawyer Member of the House to whom I have shown the provisions of the present law, indicated that he thought it somewhat stronger than the one in my bill. So you see, ladies and gentlemen, that by defeating this bill you do not eliminate the possibility of issuing search warrants in these cases because the law for this is now on our books. No valid objection can exist against this bill for that reason. If the bill is objectionable from other directions, I shall welcome any suggestion for its improvement, but I could not under existing circumstances, eliminate or agree to the elimination of the search and siezure clauses from this bill, which, if passed without them, would probably defeat the one practical method of securing the information necessary to secure a conviction.

I, therefore, ask you to vote for this measure and aid honest milk dealers to protect their investment in milk bottles which has a direct bearing on the price at which milk is sold to the consumer and the price which the farmer receives.

I shall appreciate your very serious consideration of the bill and I do feel that the objections which have been raised are certainly to say the least, untimely.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, there is one section of this bill that I do not understand, I would like to ask the gentleman from Washington a question. I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the measure.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Hindman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HINDMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a great many grocery stores in selling milk charge for the bottle; you get the money back when you return the bottle, and it will come about under this arrangement that you may have five or six or a dozen bottles around the house that you have not returned. Under section four and some other sections, is that subject to action under this act?

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, it is not.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Hindman, the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Hindman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HINDMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Washington, if he did not say to me that he would amend this bill particularly on the search and seizure clause?

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny I will say that I took the matter up with him. He objected to the bill on that ground. He promised to submit amendments, and over a period of two weeks I went after him a number of times and he never submitted them. I will also say that when I showed the gentleman the existing law on the matter, notwithstanding the fact he is an attorney, he seemed to be surprised that the matter of search and seizure was covered by the law and that is on the statutes at the present time. He did not seem to know that it was there and I tried to tell him that it did not vitiate this bill at all.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Did I not tell the gentleman that I would be very glad to communicate, if necessary, with Mr. Burnside, a member of the Washington County bar, in order that he might amend the search and seizure provision.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman I would say that he suggested that he would write to the firm of attorneys, Burnside, Moninger, and Burnside, on my behalf. I took his offer to mean that he would write an apology in the matter. I stated to the gentleman that I did not pretend to have any legal knowledge, but that I did have good, common, ordinary horse sense and that I did not ask him to offer an alibi to me on behalf of any person.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I opposed this bill and took the matter up with the sponsor, calling his attention to the fact that the clause with reference to search and seizure is absolutely wrong in the bill, because if you would permit the bill to be enacted into law it would give some extra authority to the members of the minor judiciary and the ordinary police magistrate to have the right on one pretext or another to enter your home. We had an example of that in Allegheny not so long ago when they stated that a constable or an officer of the law had the right to enter a home in search of wine, and they made a real racket of it. Now, what I tried to do is to see that the home is protected, and if you enact this into law, that will not be the case because under the slightest pretext the officer of the law comes into your house and makes a search, because as the act reads now at any time either day or night they have the right to enter your house.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Hindman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Hindman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HINDMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, am I to understand that this bill will prevent a man from obtaining a trial by jury in the event of conviction?

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, as I understand, he can take an appeal, and in that case he can have a trial by jury.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman how he harmonizes this bill with section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania which I will read:

"The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions from unreasonable searches and seizures, and no warrant to search any place or to seize any person or things shall issue without describing them as nearly as may be, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation subscribed to by the affiant."

To my mind the cost does not justify such a drastic delay and I ask you members to vote it down.

Mr. WASSERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I, too, am opposed to this measure and if you will bear with me for a moment and particularly refer to section four you will observe the words "The use and possession of five or more bottles by any person shall be prima facie evidence of the commission of a crime under this measure." In other words, if you should accidently or negligenty leave several bottles in your house or in your cellar you will have committed a crime under this measure. If you go a step further then that and accidently slip and strike several bottles and then turn over and they break you will have committed a crime. If you go a step further and you happen to leave several bottles in your cellar or someone at your home happens to forget to return several bottles to the dealer who delivers them to your home, you will have committed a crime. I know of no measure that has ever come to the attention of this House which in my opinion is as vicious as this measure. Aside from the serious objection to the search and seizure provision, we have this provision in section four which ought to induce you to vote against this measure. I urge you to do so.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. HALUSKA (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 136.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, It is the opinion of many persons that a great part of the market for Pennsylvania bituminous coal has been lost by reason of high freight rates and the depreciа-tion of foreign currencies, which make possible low price labor in those countries and lower cost of water transportation; and

Whereas, Railroads and other carriers involved would be largely compensated for any reduction in rates by the increased volume of bituminous coal which would be shipped as a result of restored markets for this commodity; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives has made every endeavor to uphold standards of working conditions and wages of the mining industry of Pennsylvania, which must inevitably suffer if the serious reductions of the bituminous market should continue and increase; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint seven members of the House of Representatives to constitute a committee, as non-political as possible, whose duty it shall be to investigate the cost of transportation from the bituminous producing regions of Pennsylvania to consumption points in maritime Canada and New England, and the seaports of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania; and that if said committee find that high rates have materially reduced or will materially reduce the market for Pennsylvania bituminous coal in competition with coal produced in Great Britain or other foreign countries or in competition with fuel oil selling at unreasonably low prices due to world wide over-production of cheap grades of crude oil to endeavor to secure lower freight rates to the markets above mentioned by negotiation with carriers involved and if necessary by requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to revise and reduce such transportation rates as are within their jurisdiction; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee make its report to the House of Representatives at the present session of the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

By Miss BRANCATO. RESOLUTION No. 137.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1935.

Whereas, the Board of City Trusts of the City of Philadelphia controls the management, investment, reinvestment, disposition, and distribution of property of great value and large amounts of money in which the general public of that city has an interest; and

Whereas, the Board of City Trusts is not subject to any adequate legislation controlling its activities or any supervision or audit by any public officer with regard to the keeping of its accounts, books, and records; and

Whereas, it is desirable that legislation be enacted properly to provide for the supervision, auditing, and control of the said board; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives whose duty it shall be to make an investigation of the books, records, management, and operation of the Board of City Trusts to the extent that may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this resolution and for the information of the House of Representatives; and

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives of this Session as early as possible; and

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Referred to the Committee on Cities.

HON. EDWARD J. SCHLEITER INTRODUCED TO HOUSE

The SPEAKER. The Chair notices in the House a former member of this body, the Honorable Edward J. Schleiter of Freedom, Pennsylvania, who represented the first legislative district of Beaver County in 1923 and 1924. Mr. Schleiter is now one of the county commissioners of Beaver county. As the hour is late, the Chair will merely present the gentleman to the members of this body. The Chair now presents to the House the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Schleiter, a former member of this body.

Mr. SCHLEITER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this seems like olden times, except in one respect: the complexion has completely changed. When I was a member here, I think there were but twenty-five or thirty of the "unterrified," while today there are quite a few more. I hoped that more would return the next time, I hoped to make it possible that we would not require a microphone, and I introduced a bill reducing the then number from two hundred and eight to one hundred, and of course the bill was very enthusiastically (?) received.

I recognize among the members here several of the old war horses from Philadelphia: my good friend Sowers and I might say, as well, my opponent; Mr. Baldi, the Speaker here and a few others. The rest have all gone —either to their fathers or have grown old in the service and been relegated to the rear.

I might say that my people at home did not approve of my course here and all of the county of fifty-five thousand but five thousand decided to let me stay at home, and I didn't have any idea that I would have an opportunity to get back here again and tell the members here at one term at that time for a Democrat was all they could stand.

The SPEAKER. On behalf of the members of the House, the Chair thanks the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Schleiter, for his kind remarks.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 23, 1935 No. 50

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 23, 1935.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, during these legislative days much time is being devoted to the consideration and discussion of the problem of taxation. This problem seems to be a perplexing one. What do the people owe the State? What portion of the fruits of their labor and their investment should be paid to the State and the nation?

The protecting arms of the government are thrown around us. But their power to shield and preserve us comes through us, for ours is a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Lead us, O God, to consider the problem of taxation as it concerns our responsibility to Thee. May we ask ourselves the question which a sage of long ago propounded to himself: "What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me?" Then may his answer be ours: "I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord."

The tax Thou dost levy upon each of us is, "My son, give me thy heart." When we honestly pay this tax, the problem of taxation will be solved.

Lead us thus to do for Thy name's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SONES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Section 33 Entry of Information in General Registers Following Elections and Primaries Report of Indications of Fraud to District Attorney (a) In the case of any elector whom the election officers shall have recorded as removed deceased or challenged and prevented from voting the commission shall ascertain the facts and shall correct the general and district registers in accordance therewith

(b) The commission shall report forthwith in writing to the district attorney any evidence or indication of probable fraud personation or forgery which may appear to the commission by reason of any comparison of voters certificates and registers hereby prescribed

Section 34 Cancellation of Registration Upon Failure to Vote Within Two Years Within three months after the municipal election held in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and within three months after each general and municipal election thereafter the registration commission shall cause all of the district registers to be examined and in the case of each registered elector who is not recorded as having voted at any election or primary within the period of two years immediately preceding the commission shall send to such elector by mail at his address appearing upon his registration affidavit a notice setting forth that the records of the commission indicate that he has not voted within a period of two years and that his registration will be cancelled at the expiration of ten days after publication of the information contained in the notice mailed as aforesaid at least one time in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the city where such elector resides The commission shall cancel the registration of such elector unless within ten days after the publication of the information contained in the notice as aforesaid he appears in person before the commission and offers satisfactory proof that he has actually voted at a primary or general election within two years The cancellation of the registration of any such elector for failure to vote within a period of two years shall not affect the right of any such elector to subsequently register by personal application to the commission or a commissioner or a registrar in the manner provided by this act

Section 35 Cancellation Removal and Preservation of Registration Affidavits Whenever the registration of an elector is cancelled for any cause the commission shall mark on the registration affidavits of the elector the word "Cancelled" and the date and cause of cancellation and shall remove them from the general and district registers but each such affidavit shall be kept for five years after which the commission may destroy it

Section 36 Appeals to Court Time of Hearing Notice Postponement Hearing Decision of Court Costs and Fees (a) Any person whose claim for registration has been denied by the commission or whose name although previously registered has been removed and not restored by the commission upon a petition filed for that purpose as herein provided or any qualified elector of any city whose rights are impaired by any general order made by the commission not including registration of particular names by the commission on personal application made to it as aforesaid or refusals to remove names upon any petition of any kind aforesaid may file an appeal with the proper court of common pleas not later than the fourth day preceding any election or primary setting forth why he feels that an injustice has been done and praying for such order as will give him relief Thereupon any judge of the court may fix a time and place for hearing the matter in dispute of which notice shall be served with a copy of said appeal by the appellant upon the counsel for the commission and upon any elector or his attorney who opposed the contention of the appellant before the commission at least forty-eight hours before such matter may be reviewed by the court Proof of notice or the waiver thereof must be filed therein

(b) Any judge of the court may enlarge the time of notice or postpone such hearing as may be reasonable with due regard for the time remaining before the succeeding election or primary At the time so fixed the court or any judge thereof assigned for the purpose shall hear all the witnesses and other evidence that may be offered unless the issue can be decided in some other manner by agreement of the parties concerned

(c) If after any such public hearing the court shall find that an injustice has been done it may reverse or alter the decision of the commission and modify any order made by it accordingly and if necessary issue its mandate to the election officers of any election district to permit the appellant to vote at any designated election or primary although his name may not have been entered in or restored to the district register of such district If the appellant shall not satisfy the court that an injustice has been done the decision of the commission shall be affirmed

(d) The court may compel the appellant or any opposing party other than the commission or in proper cases the county to pay all the witness fees and other legal costs of such appeal which may be taxed by the prothonotary in the usual manner

Section 37 Production of Documents Et Cetera at Appeals At the written request of any person taking an appeal from any action or order of a commission as aforesaid the commission shall produce at the hearing thereof any petition register or other record in its custody relevant to the issue involved but the commission shall not be obliged to answer any appeal and shall not be obliged by subpoena or otherwise to appear at any such hearing unless it shall deem it expedient to do so

Section 38 Subpoenas and Witness Fees (a) Any person filing any petition of any kind with a commission or opposing same shall have the privilege of having subpoenas issued by the commission to compel the attendance of witnesses upon condition that all witnesses so subpoenaed shall be paid two dollars and fifty cents each per day as witness fees in the manner herein provided

(b) The commission on its own motion may subpoena witnesses including registrars each of whom shall also be entitled to daily witness fees at the rate aforesaid to be paid out of any money to be provided for the purpose to the commission by the county commissioners in the same manner as other necessary expenses of such commission are to be provided for

(c) All subpoenas shall be in substantially the same form and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas now issued by a court of common pleas The commission shall have the benefit of the process of said courts if necessary to enforce any subpoena issued by such commission.

(d) No subpoena shall be issued for the benefit of any person other than the commission until he shall have paid the commission a fee of twenty-five cents for issuing the same and deposited with said commission one day's witness fees for each witness to be summoned thereby whose names shall be given to the commission and entered by it in such subpoena and among the records of the commission No such subpoena shall be of any virtue to require the further attendance of any witness after the day mentioned therein unless the hearing be postponed or continued by the commission and unless before four o'clock post meridian of said day the person for whose benefit it is issued shall have deposited with the commission an additional day's witness fees for each witness whose further attendance is desired As soon as convenient after any hearing is concluded (or postponed or continued) on any day the commission shall disburse the fees deposited with it by any person among those witnesses who have appeared in response to subpoenas issued and shall return to the person who deposited the same any fees deposited for others who did not attend and shall also pay like fees to any summoned by the commission taking their receipts therefor so long as there are sufficient funds available for such payments

(e) The commission shall pay over to the county treasurer all fees received for subpoenas The accounts of such commission respecting disbursements of witness fees out of appropriations made to such commission by the county commissioners shall be subject to audit from time to time by the county controller

Section 40 Partial Invalidity Legislative Intent It is the intention of the General Assembly that if this act cannot take effect in its entidety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding unconstitutional any part or parts thereof the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part or parts held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 41 Repeals The act approved the fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and six (Pamphlet Laws sixty-three) entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors in cities of the third class of this Commonwealth to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities and to provide penalties for violations of its provisions" and the various supplements and amendments thereto are hereby repealed

All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed in so far as they affect cities of the third class

Section 42 Effective Date This act shall become effective July first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

And the amendment made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, and members of the Senate, I want to say just a word with respect to Senate Bill No. 22, which is now to be voted on. It provides for permanent registration for all third-class cities of the Commonwealth. In drawing this bill I wish to say that we followed almost entirely the provisions of the laws which was recently enacted for Scranton and also for Pittsburgh, and which laws, I have been informed, have worked very satisfactorily in those municipalities. It is a bill which is in the interest of economy and in the interest of convenience to voters, and, I believe, thoroughly safeguards elections and primaries in this Commonwealth, and I hope the Senate will vote its approval of this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 154, as follows:

An Act providing that State and Federal moneys appropriated and available for unemployment relief and work relief shall be allocated by the Department of Welfare for expenditure either by political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor or by county unemployment relief boards appointed by the court of common pleas defining the powers of such political subdivisions and boards providing for the audit of accounts prescribing penalties and repealing existing laws relating to the administration of unemployment relief

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all moneys hereafter appropriated by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for unemployment relief shall be appropriated to the Department of Welfare and all moneys received from the Federal Government or any agency of the Federal Government for relief and work relief is hereby added to any appropriations made by the Commonwealth for such purposes and part or all of said moneys shall be allocated monthly for expenditure in the several counties of this Commonwealth on a ratio that the estimated number of unemployed persons in a county bears to the estimated total number of enemployed persons in the entire Commonwealth as shown from time to time by the latest available tables compiled and issued by the Department of Labor and Industry The moneys so allocated monthly to the several counties shall be expended either by political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor or by county unemployment relief boards as the case may be as hereinafter provided

Section 2 Where a political subdivision charged with the care of the poor is coextensive with a county the amount allocated to the county from time to time shall be forthwith paid by the State Treasurer on requisition of the Department of Welfare to the treasurer of such political subdivision

In any county where there is more than one political subdivision charged with the care of the poor the amount allocated to the county shall be paid to the county treasurer and shall be expended by and under the supervision of a county unemployment relief board to be created as follows

The court of common pleas of each county where more than one political subdivision is charged with the care of the poor shall as soon as may be after the effective date of this act appoint a county unemployment relief board for the county which board shall be composed of not less than five nor more than seven citizens at the discretion of the court The court shall designate one of the members as chairman and such board shall elect a secretary who need not be a member of the board. The members of each county unemployment relief board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties Each county unemployment relief board shall be furnished with an office or offices by the county commissioners at the expense of the county All moneys received by any county treasurer for expenditure by the county unemployment relief board shall be paid out of the county treasury on order of the board under such system of accounting and requisition as the county unemployment relief board may establish County unemployment relief boards shal employ a uniform system of accounting which shall be established in accordance with plans rules and regulations prescribed by the Auditor General

Section 3 Each county unemployment relief board and every political subdivision charged with the care of the poor shall have power to employ a director and such clerks investigators and assistants as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act in an economical manner and to fix their compensation Such compensation and the other expenses of the board or the political subdivision shall be paid from funds allocated to the county for unemployment relief but not more than five per centum of the amount so allocated for any month shall be expended for salaries wages and other administration purposes After the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six one-third of the cost of administration of such relief shall be paid by the several counties respectively and after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six one half of such administration costs shall be paid by the county

Section 4 Each political subdivision charged by law with the care of the poor and each such county unemployment relief board shall have authority under the provisions of this act any law to the contrary notwithstanding to expend the moneys received under the provisions of this act for the purpose of providing food clothing fuel shelter or other necessities and work or any of them for residents within their districts who are without means of support and for administration purposes subject however to the limitations hereinbefore provided

Section 5 The amounts allocated to political subdivisions and to county unemployment relief boards under the provisions of this act and by the mexpended shall be audited by the Auditor General in the same manner as other expenditures of Commonwealth moneys Reports shall be submitted by each such board to the Department of Welfare as often as it may require

Section 6 Any officer member or employe of any political subdivision or any county unemployment relief board who shall expend or authorize the expenditure of any moneys allocated under the provisions of this act for any purpose other than one authorized by this act or who shall knowingly give or authorize the giving of aid under the provisions of this act to any person not legally entitled to aid or any person who shall apply for or receive aid under the provisions of this act who is not legally entitled thereto because he or she has means of support shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or both at the discretion of the court

Section 7 The act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws eighty-eight) entitled "An act creating the State Emergency Relief Board consisting of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor the Auditor General State Treasurer and the Speaker of the House of Representatives prescribing its powers and duties empowering the Governor to disburse moneys received from the Federal Government for the relief of the unemployed in accordance with plans adopted by the board and making an appropriation" together with the amendments thereto are hereby repealed

act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

Section six of this act shall become effective upon the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five and no moneys allocated to political subdivisions and county unemployment relief boards shall be expended by such political subdivisions and boards prior to June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I just want to explain why I am voting "no" on the Batchelor bill, for the simple reason that I do not believe it will adequately meet the needs. I was responsible, I believe in a measure, for having it held over in its order, and I cannot see my way clear at all to vote for the bill.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, in connection with this Batchelor bill, I think there is one thing that we have overlooked. I believe that everybody in this Chamber is desirous of decentralizing our relief administration. We want to make something out of the relief administration that is more than a mere bureauracy, not responsible to any of the other branches of our State government; but if we would all stop to think, the passage of this Batchelor bill would immediately throw the whole relief administration into the arena of our county elections this Fall. I believe every county in the State this year elects county commissioners, and probably most, if not all, of the counties which have elective poor directors, elect these directors this year.

Now, by passing a bill such as this one, we dump the whole relief administration right into the arena of county elections this year, and on that account, I, for one, must vote against this bill.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, It is admitted that practically all of the Poor Boards of Pennsylvania are Republican Boards. Now, I feel that if they were Democratic boards who had been in power and a number of years, and there had been a Republican administration in Washington pouring money into Pennsylvania, that the Democratic Poor Boards would do just the same as the Republican Poor Boards in the counties if they got this money.

Before this depression, the Poor Boards, I think, of the different counties worked satisfactorily. The people they dealt with were poor people, not influential people, but today the Poor Boards are dealing with some of the best citizens of the community, and there is a very great temptation on the part of the Poor Boards to play politics; and I say, very frankly, that the Democratic Boards would do just exactly the same as the Republicans would do in this situation, where that money comes from the Federal Government, a Democratic administration, and that money is poured into Pennsylvania and into the Republican Poor Boards, it is just perfectly natural and human that those Poor Boards would play politics with this money. Now, that is something we must avoid in this crisis.

I believe the Woodward bill is a much better bill than the Batchelor bill and it would work out more satisfactorily, therefore, I think this bill should be defeated.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I intend to vote for the Batchelor bill, and I want to take just a moment of the time of the Senate to explain my reasons why I support this bill. I think that we have during this Session rather lost sight of the very difficult problem which confronted this Legislature in the Special Session of 1931, as to a method of finding unemployment relief within the provisions of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and it was under the first Talbot law which appropriated money directly to the Poor Districts of Pennsylvania that the method was secured, and it was a method which was sustained by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Liveright.

Personally, I would prefer the Batchelor bill as it was originally introduced, where all the money went to the Poor Districts of this Commonwealth, because under that bill as originally introduced we could be assured that we were meeting the requirements of the Constitution. However, this bill has been amended so that in districts or in counties where there are Poor Boards not co-extensive with the county limits, there is a special commission created. To my mind that very fact in itself raises the question as to whether this bill as amended is Constitutional, but certainly there can be no reason to believe that any other method than to appropriate this money to the Poor Districts of Pennsylvania meets the requirements of the Constitution. For one, I believe that after the experience which we have had of the waste and extravagance which has existed under the present law, that it is well to put the money back again into the poor districts, because I cannot conceive of any administration which would not be preferable to the existing law, and holding this belief that this bill better than any meets the requirements of the Constitution, and puts the money back for relief purposes into the constituted authorities, I intend to vote for this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 547, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 392), entitled "An act providing that highways, or sections thereof, abandoned as State highway routes, shall revert for maintenance to the party or parties responsible for the maintenance of said highways prior to their coming under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways," providing a procedure for the vacation of such abandoned State highways without the necessity of a view.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 751, as follows:

An Act creating County Assistance Boards for the administration of unemployment relief and abolishing existing agencies created for the administration of unemployment relief conferring powers and imposing duties upon such county assistance boards the Governor courts county treasurers and the Auditor General imposing on counties the costs of administration incurred by such boards providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That there is hereby created in each county of this Commonwealth a County Assistance Board composed of six citizens one of whom shall be appointed by the Governor and four of whom shall be appointed by the courts of common pleas of the county The sixth member shall be the chairman of the board of county commissioners The members of County Assistance Boards shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties Each member of a County Assistance Board shall have the right to have assigned to him or her a distinguishing motor vehicle registration plate by the Department of Revenue Each County Assistance Board with the consent and approval of the county commissioners of the county shall have power to employ such experts clerks and assistants as may be deemed necessary to discharge the duties imposed by this act and to fix their compensation Such compensation and the other administrative expenses of a county assistance board shall be paid from funds allocated to the county for unemployment relief but not more than six per centum of the amount so allocated for any month shall be expended for salaries wages and other administrative expenses After the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six one-third of the costs of administration of relief shall be paid by the several counties respectively and after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six one-half of such administration costs shall be paid by the county The county commissioners shall at the expense of the county furnish to the County Assistance Board a suitable office or offices at the county seat.

Section 2 The County Assistance Boards created under this act shall supersede the local relief boards and agencies created by the State Emergency Relief Board for the distribution of unemployment relief.

Section 3 The County Assistance Board in each county shall be the agency to expend under the direct supervision of the Governor money appropriated by the Commonwealth for unemployment relief and the moneys received from the Federal Government or any agency thereof for unemployment relief.

All moneys hereafter appropriated by the Commonwealth for unemployment relief shall be appropriated to the Governor and all moneys received from the Federal Government or any agency thereof for relief and work relief shall be added to any appropriations made by the Commonwealth for such purposes and the Governor shall monthly allocate a portion of such moneys for expenditure in the several counties the monthly allocation to be reallocated to the various counties on a ratio that the estimated total number of unemployed persons in a county bears to the estimated total number of unemployed persons in the entire Commonwealth as shown from time to time by the latest available tables compiled and issued by the Department of Labor and Industry.

Section 4 The Governor shall have power to employ a director of assistance and such other employes as he may deem necessary to perform the duties imposed upon him by this act He shall have power to require from each County Assistance Board such monthly or other periodic reports as he may deem necessary but each County Assistance Board shall be held solely responsible for the expenditure of unemployment relief and determine the amounts to be allowed to individuals and families entitled to unemployment relief Moneys allocated for unemployment relief shall be expended only for food clothing fuel shelter and work relief for residents who are without means of support except that Federal moneys made available for aid to transients may be expended for such purposes.

Section 5 The moneys paid to a County Assistance Board from time to time shall be paid into the county treasury for safe keeping and shall be paid out of the county treasury under such system of requisition and accounting as the County Assistance Board and the county treasurer of the county shall by agreement establish Any county treasurer may with the consent of the County Assistance Board appoint one or more clerks to assist him in the performance of his duties in receiving any paying out moneys and the compensation of such clerk or clerks shall be paid by the county as part of the administrative expense of the County Assistance Board.

Section 6 Any member or employe of any County Assistance Board who shall expend or authorize the expenditure of any money allocated to it under the provisions of this act for any purpose other than one authorized by this act or by law or who shall knowingly give or authorize the giving of aid under the provisions of this act to any person not legally entitled to aid or any person who shall apply for or receive aid under the provisions of this act when he or she is not legally entitled thereto because he or she has means of support or any person who shall sell any order issued to him or her by a County Assistance Board for cash or part case or other consideration or sell any food clothing or fuel received for cash or other consideration shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or both at the discretion of the court.

Section 7 The expenditures of County Assistance Boards shall be audited from time to time by the Auditor General in the same manner as other expenditures of Commonwealth moneys and copies of such audits shall be furnished to each board whose accounts have been audited and to the Governor.

Section 8 The act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws eighty-eight) entitled "An act creating the State Emergency Relief Board consisting of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor the Auditor General State Treasurer and the Speaker of the House of Representatives prscribing its powers and duties empowering the Governor to disburse moneys received from the Federal Government for the relief of the unemployed in accordance with plans adopted by the board and making an appropriation" is hereby repealed.

Section 9 This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would like to offer some amendments to the bill, and for this purpose I move to reconsider the vote by which it passed second reading.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this motion, because the two bills—The Batchelor Bill and the Woodward Bill—are supposed to go along together. I believe—at least, I hoped—there shauld be no amendments to the bill on third reading; and I would like to ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, to proceed with that understanding, and not send the bill back to second reading. I see no reason why the amendments should not be offered on third reading.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I withdraw my motion, under the circumstances, and at the request of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Does the seconder of the motion concur in its withdrawal?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I concur.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments to Senate Bill No. 751, the bill under consideration; and in offering these amendments I want to say very frankly to the Senate that the purpose of these amendments, primarily, is to change the numerical structure of the Board which is created to administer relief.

These amendments which I offer, among others things —and I think the one thing on which most of us might differ—these amendments provide for two members of this Board to be appointed by the Governor, two members to be appointed by the Common Pleas Court, and the fifth member to be the President of the Board of County Commissioners.

I think that Senate Bill No. 751, the Woodward Bill, in its present form, puts the situation out of balance, because the bill provides that this money shall pass through the hands of the Governor into the hands of the local districts, and yet it gives the Governor only one appointee out of the six members of this Board.

Now, there are some other amendments here which I think necessary in order to obtain the best results from the relief to be administered under this bill, and I now ask this Senate to give very serious consideration to these amendments before passing upon them.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have had several friendly conferences with the Senator from Centre County, Mr. Thompson; and there are two or three other amendments—

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would suggest that the amendments be sent to the desk, and that they be read by the Clerk, after which we can have discussion on the amendments.

The amendments were read as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 8 of title, by inserting after the word "counties" the following: "part of"; amend section 1, page 1, line 5, by striking out the word "six" and insert in lieu thereof: "five"; amend section 1, page 1, line 6, by striking out the word "one" and insert in lieu thereof: "two"; amend section 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the word "four" and insert in lieu thereof: "two"; amend section 1, page 2, line 2, by striking out the word "sixth" and insert in lieu thereof: "fifth"; amend section 1, page 2, line 3, by inserting after the word "commissioners" the following: "The appointed members of the board shall hold office for two years and until their successors are appointed and shall at all times be subject to removal by the appointing power"; amend section 1, page 2, line 6, by striping out the words "Each mem-"; amend section 1, page 2, lines 7, 8 and 9, by striking out all of said lines; amend section 1, page 2, lines 16, 17 and 18, by striking out the words "shall be paid by the county, but the amount expended for the compensation of employes and other administrative expenses of a board"; amend section 1, page 2, line 18, by striking out the word "six" and insert in lieu thereof: "five"; amend section 1, page 2, line 22, by inserting after the word "relief" the following: "and by the county"; amend section 1, page 2, line 22, by striking out the word "six" and insert in lieu thereof: "an amount equal to five per centum"; amend section 1, page 3, line 2, by striking out the words "at the expense of the county"; amend section 1, page 3, line 4, by inserting after the word "seat" the following: "the rental and expenses of operating which shall be deemed part of the administrative expense"; amend section 4, page 4, line 20, by inserting after the word "act" the following: "but an amount of not more than one per centum of the total amount allocated by the Governor for expenditure by county assistance boards shall be expended by the Governor for the salary of the director and other employes and for other administrative expenses in making such allocations and reviewing reports"; amend section 4, page 4, line 23, by striking out the word "solely"; amend section 4, page 4, line 27, by inserting after the word "relief" the following: "County assistance boards shall also designate and approve all work relief projects within their respective counties and fix the amount to be expended thereon except such projects as are selected by some properly authorized agency of the State or Federal Government"; amend section 4, page 5, line 1, by inserting after the word "shelter" the following: "medical and dental care"; amend section 5, page 5, line 15, by striking out the words "by the county"; amend bill, page 5, by inserting after line 16 the following section: "Section 6. No unemployment relief shall be granted by any county assistance board except upon written application of the person applying therefor setting forth such information as the board may require. Every application for relief filed with a board shall be acted upon within one week after the same is filed. Any person who shall feel aggrieved by the action of a county assistance board refusing to approve any application for relief may appeal by petition from the action of such board to the court of quarter sessions of the county. Thereupon the court shall fix a day for hearing, of which notice shall be given to the county assistance board as the court may direct. After hearing the court shall make such order affirming the action of the board or reversing the same, and directing the board to grant relief in such sum as it may determine as to it appears just and proper. No costs shall be imposed in any such case"; amend section 6, page 5, line 17, by striking out the figure "6" and insert in lieu thereof: "7"; amend section 7, page 6, line 7, by striking out the figure "7" and insert in lieu thereof: "8"; amend section 7, page 6, line 12, by inserting after the word "Governor" the following: "The books, papers, records and documents of any county assistance board shall be open to inspection by taxpayers during business hours"; amend section 8, page 6, line 13, by striking out the figure "8" and insert in lieu thereof: "9"; amend section 9, page 6, line 24, by striking out the figure "9" and insert in lieu thereof: "10."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I withdraw the amendments.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 751, on third reading, be recommitted to the Committee on County Government for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 781 (House Bill No. 1236) on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (a) of section seven hundred and twenty-two of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if there is any Senator on the floor who can explain this bill I wish he would do so, otherwise I ask that it go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 804, entitled:

An Act to further amend section six hundred and fourteen of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue and the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles, imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" requiring the payment of fines and costs imposed before the restoration of operating privilege in certain cases

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, and members of the Senate, I desire to make a short explanation of this bill. It was prepared and presented at the suggestion of a good Judge of this Commonwealth. It provides an amendment to the Act of 1929, which, as the lawyers of this body will recall, is a safety measure providing for safety on the highways of the State. Now, under the Act of 1929—I think in Section 614—it is provided that for certain violations certain penalties shall be imposed, and one of these penalties is based on violations growing out of driving on the highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Now, the penalty under the Act is a fine of two hundred dollars, and costs, and the cancellation of the license of the operator of the motor vehicle. This extends for a period of one year. Now, this bill provides that the license cannot be restored until the fine and costs have been paid. I understand from a reliable authority that these cases are increasing at a very great rate, and one of the reasons for this amendment is to endeavor to deter or reduce the number of these serious cases.

Another reason is that it provides for the obtaining of the revenue prescribed by the Act of 1929. I understand that in a great many cases the fine is never paid, and I repeat that this bill provides for the payment of the fine and the costs before a license will be restored.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in opposing the passage of this bill, I do not wish to be understood to hold any brief for anyone who pleads guilty or is convicted of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, but I do have an eye to the collection of the fine, and it seems to me this bill is a left-handed way to go about it. As the Senator from Washington has said, the fine of two hundred dollars is the minimum fine under the Act, and when that fine is imposed by the Court, I know from experience that a great many Judges allow a definite time in which to raise the $200.00 fine and costs. In a great many cases, from my own knowledge, the only source of earning we find with a great many defendants would be to wait until the year was up, then to use his truck to make the money to pay his fine, and if he cannot get his license until the end of the year, as provided in this Act, it seems to me he would be less able to earn the fine to pay into Court, which would go to the benefit of the Commonwealth and be put into the Motor Fund. It seems to me, therefore, that in order to help get this revenue, it is the wrong way to go about it, to prevent men from having a license in order that he may drive his truck and earn the money to pay the fine and costs.

Mr. STAUDENMAIER. Mr. President, I would like to interogate the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I will

Mr. STAUDENMAIER. Mr. President, will the Senator from Washington County, Mr. Reed, consider an amendment striking out Section 4, on page 4, of this bill? Before he answers I would like to point out that Section 4 would provide for a revocation of the operating privilege for one year. According to (a) under Section 614 it provides "and until the fine and costs imposed shall have been fully paid the operating privilege" shall not be restored. And if you look at Section 4 you will find it says "Conviction of an operator of a motor vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury or death to any person or damage to property, upon the charge of failing to stop and render assistance or disclose his identity at the scene of the accident" and so forth.

Now, do you think that is a very fair provision—to have such a severe penalty attached?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, it is rather severe, but it should be severe, because those cases are increasing rapidly, I have been warned, too; but I will not be like King George of England, I will take a half loaf rather than no bread, and I will submit that amendment.

Mr. STAUDENMAIER. Mr. President, do I understand that the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, will submit that amendment?

Mr. REED (Washington) Mr. President, I will, yes.

Mr. STAUDENMAIER. Mr. President, will the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, agree that the bill go over in its order, so that the bill may be drawn along those lines —with Section 4 omitted?

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I will withdraw the whole of Section 4.

Mr. STAUDENMAIER. Mr. President, the only reason I say this to the members of the Senate is that an examination of the cases, on this charge of failing to stop and render assistance and failing to disclose identity, shows there is considerable confusion as to what actually constitutes a failure to stop and render assistance, and oftimes this failure to disclose your identity—you go along the highways, and you have an accident—it may be a woman driver, or perhaps someone who has served in this Senate for some time has become extremely nervous on account of the atmosphere surrounding us, or has become neurasthenic for some other reason, and may drive on for a square or two squares after the accident and then come back. Now then, some of the cases have stated that that constitutes failure to stop and disclose identity. It is going pretty far. But the cases have long held that to have a penalty of this type inflicted, or imposed, would, at the same time, be a severe hardship.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. PRESIDENT. I believe the sponsor has agreed that the bill should go over in its order, and this particular section, section 4, be taken out of the bill.

The PRESIDENT Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 842

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 842, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to the General Fund, and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money, with the information that the House has passed the same with amendment.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 843

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 843, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the State Stores Fund to the General Fund, and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money, with the information that the House had passed the same without amendment.

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both Houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 678, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-one and to repeal section forty-five of the act, approved the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (P. L. 509), entitled "An act relating to county rates and levies and township rates and levies," as amended; abolishing imprisonment for failure to pay taxes.

House Bill No. 1459, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one and two, and to add sections two A, two B, two C and two D, to the act approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 900), entitled "An act relating to eggs, prohibiting the sale, offering for sale, exposing for sale, or having in possession with intent to sell, eggs for and as fresh, that are not fresh eggs, or of branding or of labeling or marking eggs as being fresh eggs that are not fresh eggs; prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," providing standards for fresh eggs and prohibiting illegal sales and misbranding.

House Bill No. 1788, entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred eighteen of an act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "Administrative Code of 1929," as amended, by changing the names of the State Association and training schools for nurses.

House Bill No. 1789, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, three, four, five, seven and eleven of an act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 988) entitled "Nurses Registration Law," by changing qualifications for registration, the publishing of a list of registrants, and fixing penalties.

Senate Bill No. 840, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Liquor License Fund to the General Fund, and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money.

Senate Bill No. 841, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund, and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money.

Senate Bill No. 842, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to the General Fund, and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money.

Senate Bill No. 843, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the State Stores Fund to the General Fund, and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board; and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President. I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. COYNE, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION REFEREES

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 15, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

Paul Jones, 2124 Center Avenue, Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, for appointment as Workmen's Compensation Referee, to serve until the third Tuesday of January, 1939, or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

Edward W. Walsh, Barnesboro, Cambria County, for appointment as Workmen's Compensation Referee, vice F. A. Hess, whose term expired, to serve until the third Tuesday of January, 1939, or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

Stanley F. Dobrowlski, 3512 Butler Street, Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, for appointment as Workmen's Compensation Referee, vice L. E. Christley, resigned, to serve until the third Tuesday of January, 1939, or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES.

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the foregoing nominations.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES.

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

Two thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, on the desk of each Senator I laid this morning a little pamphlet entitled "Let us have Protection from Floods." This is the most meritorious project, apparently, that Pennsylvania has offered to Washington for the securing of the enormous amount of money which we hope to get to relieve the unemployed in this State.

This project originated with the Flood Commission of Pittsburgh, and has been studied for years and years—over twenty-five years to my knowledge. The engineering features, the industrial contacts have all been satisfactory, and it is now just a question of securing the money, as these fourteen multiple-use projects for flood protection throughout the Ohio, Mississippi and Allegheny valleys are ready to go. The one project alone, the Tygart Dam at Grafton, West Virginia, is now under way. It will employ 2200 men for over two and one-half years, and will cost about fifteen and a half million dollars.

This, as I say, is already under way. There are thirteen other dams to be built in these projects, and we are hoping to secure from the Federal Government sufficient money to at least start within the next few years all of the nine dams which are to be erected in Pennsylvania. The rest of the dams are to be in Ohio and West Virginia.

This project has been approved by the United States engineers, all of the engineering features having been satisfactory. The Mississippi Valley Authority has approved it. The House and Senate Committees on Flood Control, in Washington, have approved this project; and we, of the Tri-State Authority, which has to do with the political side of this movement, think it is deserving of the support of the Senate and House, and all other people in Pennsylvania, for the simple reason that it is not controversial in any respect.

Petitions bearing over five hundred thousand signatures have gone to Washington. They have been signed by the President of the United States Steel Corporation, by Jones & Laughlin, by all of the railroads, all of the coal companies; all of the various interests to be benefited have signed this petition.

As I say, there are nine dams to be built in Pennsylvania. The one in the Tygart River is now under construction, and we have invited the President of the United States—we hope he will accept—to appear in Grafton himself, in the early part of June, to pour the first concrete on this Tygart Dam. The dam itself will be half the height of the Washington Monument, and will stretch a distance of, say, from the Washington Monument to the Lincoln Memorial in Washington—to give you some idea of the height of the dam. And that is a small dam in this project.

The next dam will be built at Warren, Pennsylvania, and we believe that the money is forthcoming. The President has said he would approve the building of the dam at Warren. It would put one of the impounding reservoirs in the Monongahela River and one in the Allegheny River.

When the nine dams are built in Pennsylvania it will mean that the flood level will be reduced by probably eight feet.

The reason I bring this to your attention is the great need for employment which confronts us at this time. And we of the Tri-State Authority feel that these projects are all ready to start. Within sixty days there is hardly one of the fourteen dams that could not be started. We have asked Secretary Ickes to give us two hundred thousand dollars immediately in order that we may make the test borings on the Warren dam, so that when we do get our $350,000,000—which we hope to get for Pennsylvania—we will be ready to put the picks and shovels into the ground at Warren, Pennsylvania.

As I say, these projects are not controversial; there has not been one objection on the part of anybody to these works; and it is my thought to introduce in this Senate—probably next week—a resolution to memorialize Congress, and ask the President and the Flood Control Committee of the Senate and House at Washington to consider favorably all of these fourteen projects, in order that we might relieve this unemployment situation in Pennsylvania.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CLARK from the Committee on Judiciary Special re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 144, entitled:

An Act prescribing the method of making applications for unemployment poor or other relief for the needy, making misrepresentations and misstatements in connection therewith the unlawful approval and granting of relief, conspiracy to obtain relief and the sale of relief orders and articles received as relief misdemeanors and prescribing penalties.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. RUPP from the Committee on Judiciary Special reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 743 (House Bill No. 835), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 1013) entitled "An act regulating the issuance of licenses to marry prohibiting the issuance of such licenses to certain persons regulating the time during which licenses shall be valid and the time when returns shall be made of marriages solemnized to the clerk of the orphans' court and prescribing the duties of the clerk of the orphans' court" by requiring three days to elapse between the application for and the issuance of the license.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McGINNIS from the Committee on County Government reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 794, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and twenty-seven of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by changing the method of appointing minute clerks of the courts of common pleas and courts of quarter sessions and oyer and terminer in counties of the second class.

RECESS

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 4:30 this afternoon.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE BILLS FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence bills of the House of Representatives as follows:

House Bill No. 979 (Senate Bill No. 1051), entitled:

An Act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the first class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; providing for the appointment of registration commissioners for such cities; and prescribing their powers and duties and the powers and duties of registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of such commissions, election officers, municipal officers, courts, judges, notaries, sheriffs, county comm[illegible] peace ers, county treasurers, county controllers and registrars vital statistics; and imposing penalties.

An Act imposing certain requirements on hospitals receiving State aid; authorizing the withholding of appropriations; and imposing duties on the Department of Welfare.

Which was committed to tthe Committee on State Government.

House Bill No. 2122 (Senate Bill No. 1053), entitled:

An Act providing for the annual registration with the Department of Labor and Industry of establishments where persons are employed; requiring certain statistical data relating to unemployment and accidents to be furnished the department; authorizing the department to prescribe an annual registration fee; and imposing a penalty for violations of the act.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL NO. 149.

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 149, entitled:

An Act authorizing the selection of two additional jurors in civil and criminal cases to take the place of any juror or jurors becoming incapacitated, with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

HOUSE MESSAGES

LEGISLATURE TO ENDORSE "WORKERS' RIGHTS AMENDMENT," TO THE U. S. CONSTITUTION

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

In the House of Representatives, January 29, 1935.

Whereas, Under present law practically every measure for the advancement of the interests of the workers must be [fought out] acted upon and passed in each of the forty-eight states [and when a victory is won there is danger that the Supreme Court of the United States will declare legislation for the protection of wage earners] with the possibility that the United States Supreme Court [unconstitutional; and] may declare said legislation in whole or in part unconstitutional and

Whereas, In order to abolish this condition, there is being advocated an amendment to the Constitution of the United States known as the "Workers' Rights Amendment," which if adopted, would permit Congress and the several states to enact social welfare legislation, and which reads as follows:

"Article XX

Section 1. The Congress shall have power to establish uniform laws throughout the United States to regulate, limit and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age, to provide for the relief of aged, invalid, sick and unemployed wage earners and employes in the form of periodical grants, pensions, benefits, compensation or indemnities from the public treasury, from contributions of employers, wage earners, or from one or more of such sources, and generally for the social and economic welfare of the workers in the United States.

Section 2. The power of the several states to enact social welfare legislation is unimpaired by this article, but no such legislation shall supersede, abridge or conflict with any act of Congress under this article," therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Legislature of Pennsylvania endorses such proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States and urges upon the Members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States the passage of the same; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to each Member of the House of Representatives of the United States from Pennsylvania, and to each of the two United States Senators from Pennsylvania

Referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, January 29th.

Reported as amended, April 16th.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL NO. 450 RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence bill of the House of Representatives, as follows:

House Bill No. 450, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (P. L. 408), entitled "A supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation approved the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine' approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine amending the twenty-fourth section by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the two per centum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities and boroughs within this Commonwealth" as amended providing for payments to relief fund associations of fire departments and fire companies of cities boroughs and townships which afford fire protection to near or adjacent boroughs and townships.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the vote had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Said amendment having been printed as required by the Constitution, was twice read as follows:

Amend section 2 page 3 line 10 by inserting after the word "commissioners" the words "or supervisors"

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, and members of the Senate:

The late U. S. Senator Hoar of Massachusetts, said of Pennsylvania: "A State which perhaps more perfectly than any other community on earth represents every interest, and employment of civilized man—the farm, the factory, the mine, the railroad, commerce, manufacture and agriculture."

The U. S. Census of Manufacturers says: "Of 336 distinct kinds of manufacture carried on in the United States, 311 or 92½% are in operation in Pennsylvania. Of these 311, there are 42 in which Pennsylvania leads all other States; 44 in which Pennsylvania is second; and 114 in which it is either third, fourth or fifth. That is to say, of this country's 336 kinds of manufacture, Pennsylvania ranks from first to not lower than fifth in 200."

According to the Federal Reserve Bank: "The average wage paid by Pennsylvania manufacturing industries in March, 1935, was 4% higher than in March, 1934. This increased wage, multiplied by the number employed, which also had increased by 3%, represented a total payroll 10% higher in March, 1935, than in March, 1934."

It is a fact the significance of which hardly need be emphasized here, that throughout the four hectic months that the present State Administration has been in office, neither the Administration itself nor any supporter of it has offered any proposal designed to promote business and industrial recovery in Pennsylvania.

During practically the whole of that period the Legislature has been in session. In the lower House a preponderant Democratic majority has boasted of its rubber-stamp subservience to the Executive. From that source have come thousands of bills, many of them the Administration's own measures, aiming to boost taxes, impose costly and unworkable restrictions, and raise the costs of business and industrial operation beyond the hope of successful competition with similar activities in other States.

But upon the one subject that is uppermost in the mind of every thinking person, not one word, not even a single gesture.

On the contrary, the Governor prepared what was obviously a "political" budget, which, with its attendant proposal for $203,000,000 of new and additional taxes, was based wholly upon the theory of a diminishing business and industrial activity within Pennsylvania during the next two years, with resultant shrinkage of revenues from existing sources, and a steady expansion of the already scandalously swollen relief rolls.

That is a plain statement of fact concerning the Administration's budget and tax program which it would be well for everyone to clearly understand. It is a statement which cannot be denied, yet it is quite certain that no one would get any such impression from what the Governor or any of his supporters have had to say in the tirades of abuse and wilful misrepresentation which he and they have poured out through the newspapers and over the radio, against those who have refused to accept or approve such an unwarranted and indefensible program.

The public has been treated to such opera bouffe heroics as—"I am faced with a small group of selfish, wilful men." (A direct quotation from another Democrat of some seventeen or eighteen years ago.)

"I will agree to no compromise which will violate the confidence that Pennsylvania has placed in me."

"I will not sell out the people of Pennsylvania."

"I want to sound this warning."

"I will not permit the Republican leadership to foist upon our Commonwealth—" etc., etc.

That sort of orating may be diverting for the moment, but it is something new in political and economic reasoning that to add more than 200 million dollars to the people's tax bill is an unalterable requirement of keeping faith with the electorate, and that any paring down of that sum would be to "sell out the people." However, it is no more inconsistent than the balance of the Earle program, which, instead of giving any consideration to further business and industrial recovery in Pennsylvania, would make it impossible. But that statement is far from presenting the whole case. The legislative proposals which have been directed against the business and industry of Pennsylvania—against the jobs of the wage-earners in this State—with the sanction and support of the Administration would drive from this State the industries upon which the whole economic set-up of Pennsylvania is based, just as surely as similar State legislation has driven hundreds of industrial plants out of Massachusetts, leaving hundreds of thousands jobless, and just as the National Administration's experimental program is now devastating great sections of industrial New England, virtually forcing mills and factories to move out of the United States and locate in foreign countries.

Massachusetts, an industrial State remarkably comparable with Pennsylvania, has learned its own bitter lesson about the relationship of all other activities to manufacturing enterprise. Well-meaning but uninformed experimenters began "rocking the boat" more than a decade ago. The buildings, the machinery, the capital and the earnings of industry were taxed. In addition, cost-increasing regulations and restrictions, presumably in the interests of the wage earners, were imposed with a fine disregard of economic laws and the warnings of those who could see the inevitable consequences.

It was a hey-day for the demagogues, who, their hearts bleeding for the "average man," were right out front shouting that they weren't going to see the people sold out; that they would agree to no compromise that would violate the confidence that had been placed in them; and characterizing those who dared to face the facts as a small group of selfish, wilful men.

Labor could not be shown that it was cutting its own throat; those not directly concerned with industry could not see where they had any interest; merchants and professional groups, equally shortsighted, would not comprehend that they were destroying their own businesses and multiplying their own ultimate taxes at one and the same time.

With what result? The facts are a matter of official record. Industry after industry either liquidated and went out of business, or migrated to some other State. During the most prosperous years this country ever had known, Massachusetts alone showed an actual and substantial decline in the number of wage-jobs in industry. Unemployment became an acute problem long before the depression set in. During the 11-year period 1919-1929, the average annual wage in industry in Massachusetts ranged from 9% to 18% below that in Pennsylvania, and for the period as a whole was 13½% lower. Purchasing power dwindled; merchants watched trade drop to a fraction of its former figure; property values disappeared. Taxes rose sharply as a result of relief requirements and the reduced number of taxables. Inasmuch as idle mills pay little or no taxes, the full load had to be carried by those taxpayers still remaining. The result was that entire communities such as Fall River went bankrupt and had to be taken over by the State. Nobody gained; everybody lost.

In all matters which affect productive enterprise, two facts stand out so clearly that no intelligent person will attempt to dispute them; no honest mind will attempt to ignore them. The first is that what happens in one State as a consequence of adverse and ill-advised legislation, is bound to happen in a similar State if the same causes are put in operation. The second is that in a study of anything which affects Pennsylvania's productive enterprises, due consideration must be given to national factors now affecting them, and that any action based upon consideration of only a part of the picture easily may bring about the most disastrous results.

In view of the periodic pronouncements from Washington and elsewhere, to the general effect that it is now up to industry to put more people to work, and that wages must be increased, it is worth knowing just what the manufacturing enterprises have accomplished in both of these matters—and by what methods, under what handicaps, and against what odds.

No one who is acquainted with the facts will deny that 1929 was a boom year for wage-earners in the manufacturing industries. The stock market crashes did not occur until October and November, and they did not have any immediate effect on industrial labor. Aside from the abnormal year of 1919, labor in the United States recorded in 1929 its biggest peace-time year in history. In number employed and in the average wage received, it exceeded all records.

Consider, then, these official statements by the U. S. Department of Labor in the March (1935) issue of its Monthly Labor Review:

In January, 1935, per capita weekly earnings in manufacturing industries were 78% of the 1929 average. If changes in the cost of living are taken into account, per capita weekly earnings in January, 1935, were substantially the same as in 1929.

Progress toward a return to the 1929 level of employment advanced until, in January, 1935, 75% of the workers in 1929 were employed.

We have, then, from the highest labor authority in the country, the fact that by January, 1935, the manufacturing industries of the United States were employing 75% of the total number employed in the record year 1929, to whom they were paying a per capita weekly wage 78% of the 1929 average, the purchasing power of which was equal to that of 1929.

The Department of Labor gives the figures which show how this was done As between January, 1933, and January, 1935—

1 Number of employes increased 31%, although total number of man-hours worked increased only 26%.

2. Per capita weekly earnings increased 24%, although the average number of hours worked per week decreased 4%.

3. Total amount of payroll increased 62%.

Pennsylvania employs one-twelfth of all the wage-earners in the manufacturing industries of the whole country. Of the 336 separate kinds of manufacture carried on in the entire United States, 311 or 92½% are in actual operation in this State. In 42 of them Pennsylvania leads all other States; in 44 others in second; and in a total of 200 is not lower than fifth among all the States. Manufacturing industry is the basis of Pennsylvania's purchasing power and the foundation of the whole economic set-up in the Keystone State. What has been our record of recovery in that field?

Official Federal figures show that the average annual wage paid in the manufacturing industries of Pennsylvania for 1929 was $1,381. Seventy-five per cent of that figure would be $1,035.

The Federal Reserve Bank has just issued the Pennsylvania figures for March, 1935, which show that average weekly earnings in the manufacturing industries of this State are precisely those for the nation as a whole—in other words, that Pennsylvania industrial workers, in spite of a shorter average work week, are now being paid at the average rate of $1,035 per annum.

And in illustrating the advance, the Federal Reserve statistics indicate that while employment increased 3% in the single year March, 1934, to March, 1935, total payroll advanced 10% in the same 12-month period.

There is Pennsylvania's position in the national industrial picture. How was it accomplished? The fact is that the degree of industrial recovery effected to date has been achieved in spite of almost insurmountable obstacles, handicaps and barriers erected by an experimenting, inexperienced and misled National Administration, and in the case of approximately 80% of the corporations of Pennsylvania the increased payroll has not been met out of earnings, but to a considerable extent has had to come out of capital and reserves. Federal figures prove that statement beyond dispute.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue, at Washington, reports that for the year 1932 only 4,546 Pennsylvania corporations showed any net income, while 19,143 or 81% showed an actual loss. The total net income amounted to $164,050,000, while the deficit was 3½ times that figure, or $567,085,000.

Moreover, figures for 1933 and 1934 show approximately the same proportion of corporations recording an operating loss during those years, and that the ratio of loss to net earnings is about the same now as in 1932 is indicated by other evidence.

For example, the financial advisers of the Earle Administration, estimating what return might be expected through the next two years from a 6% tax on the net income of corporations, put the figure at $10,000,000 per annum That is just about 6% of the net income earned by Pennsylvania corporations in 1932—the year in which the losses were 3½ times the net earnings.

Yet in the face of its own tacit admissions on the subject of earnings and losses by the productive enterprises of Pennsylvania, the Earle Administration, offering not a single suggestion toward business and industrial recovery in this State, is urging and demanding the enactment of measures (wholly in addition to increased taxes) which would put upon the industries of Pennsylvania entirely new and additional costs vastly in excess of the total of present or prospective net earnings!

The utter inconsistency of such procedure cannot be obscured by the repeated cries of "Wolf! Wolf!" nor can it be justified with economic platitudes and political hokum. The intelligent workers of Pennsylvania want dependable jobs with which to support themselves and their families. A majority of those who are on relief have no relish either for the help they are temporarily compelled to accept, or for the political domination, actual and implied, of those who happen to have the administering of relief funds which do not come from the Democratic Party but from all the people of this country, including those who have wage-jobs. They, too, want work.

Working or at present unemployed, they are not in favor of trading the present and prospective jobs of Pennsylvania either to foreign wage-earners under ill-advised National policies, or to the people of other States through driving our own industries out of Pennsylvania.

Nor is it a matter affecting wage-earners only. There is not a group or calling which is not concerned. It affects thousands who are engaged in dependent or related activities; merchants, who would be the first to suffer from any curtailment of present purchasing power; taxpayers generally in every community.

As I have said, No intelligent or trustworthy judgment could be reached on State legislation affecting the manufacturing industries, if the consideration did not take account of important national policies vitally affecting those same industries. The truth of that statement is convincingly apparent when it is remembered that for identically the same work, the manufacturing industries of this country pay to their workers from two to twenty and more times the wages paid by the industries of the various foreign countries whose goods are shipped into the United States to compete with the products of American factories and labor.

It will be in order, therefore, to examine some of the handicaps in this direction under which Pennsylvania and other American Industry has labored, while bringing wages up to a purchasing power equal to that of the boom year 1929, and paying those wages only partly out of earnings, and partly out of capital and reserve.

Bearing in mind that for the year 1929 our imports, both as to volume and value, far exceeded those of any other year in our history, the following figures have a deep and serious significance. They are for the calendar year 1934, as compared with the calendar year 1929, on certain imports from Japan.

Commodity	1934 Imports
Cotton Gloves	8 times the 1929 quantity.
Castings and Forgings ...	10 times the 1929 quantity.
Cotton Hosiery	18 times the 1929 quantity.
Bleached Cotton Cloth ...	35 times the 1929 quantity.
Cotton Handkerchiefs	600 times the 1929 quantity.
Knives, folding blades ..	2,121 times the 1929 quantity.

Here is another enlightening list, not limited to any one country, in which the comparison is between the calendar year 1934 and the calendar year 1932:

Commodity	1934 Increase Over 1932
Printing Paper, not Newsprint	100%
Bottles	100%
Graphite	100%
Watches and Movements	112%
Cotton Knit Wear	127%
Children's Leather Shoes	189%
Anti-friction Bearings	200%
Cotton Velvets and Velveteens	285%
Soap, Except Toilet Soap	442%
Eyeglasses, frames and parts	4,284%

Has anyone heard of any American businesses that are from 8 to 2,000 times better today than they were in 1929? Yet they are the ratios by which certain Japanese industries have increased their business with the United States—in commodities directly competitive with those of American manufacturers, employing American labor.

How many American businesses have increased their output by from 100% to more than 4,000% since 1932? Yet they are the ratios of increase in imports directly competitive with the products of American factories and American labor.

Government figures show that as between 1930 and the present time no less than $150,000,000 has been withdrawn from American manufacturing enterprise and invested in foreign manufacturing enterprise. The reason is clear enough. Wages are so depressed, production costs are so low, in foreign countries, that hundreds of products manufactured abroad can be shipped here, and, after transportation costs and tariff duties are paid, can be sold at a profit in the United States at prices which cannot be met by our own industries which pay American taxes and American wages, and are the target of every demagogue, the football of political grandstanders and economic quacks.

The same Government figures referred to above, show that the migration of this $150,000,000 of manufacturing capital provided 300,000 foreign jobs which otherwise would have been American jobs. Experience of the Relief Administration has shown that for a hundred men put to work, 433 persons go off the relief rolls. Those 300,000 jobs, therefore, would have provided self-support for 1,300,000 persons now on relief, and Pennsylvania's ratio of one-twelfth would have given economic independence to 108,000 now on the relief rolls of this State.

Nevertheless there are those who would proceed upon the theory that these things are not all tied in together.

In the light of such facts and figures as have been set forth only sketchily here, it can be said that the manufacturing enterprises of Pennsylvania and the country at large have recorded an almost miraculous achievement in bringing industrial employment up to 75% of what it was in the record year of 1929, and raising wages to a purchasing power equal to that of the peak wages of 1929.

One might reasonably suppose, and even confidently expect, under circumstances such as these, with millions seeking jobs and with Industry making superhuman efforts not only to provide those jobs but to do so at Real Wages equal to a pre-depression high, that the National Administration at Washington and our State Administration at Harrisburg would stop throwing monkey wrenches into the economic machine and co-operate without limit to help effectuate that Recovery toward which manufacturing industry has made such a notable contribution.

Instead of that, two amazing exhibitions of political boon-doddling.

In the face of imports which are displacing thousands of American jobs and needlessly adding to the relief rolls, the President authorizes his Secretary of State, Mr. Hull—about the only free-trader left in the United States—to negotiate trade treaties with foreign countries whereby it may be made easier for those countries to unload their products upon the United States, thereby further stifling our own enterprise and depriving additional thousands of American wage-earners of the opportunity to earn their own living.

In the light of such procedure, can it be considered just accident, or unavoidable misfortune, that there are some 440,000 more men out of work today than there were a year ago? That 22,000,000 of our people—one-sixth of the entire nation—are living on relief? What really lies beneath the surface of this intolerable situation in which there is every evidence, both in Washington and in Harrisburg, of a fixed determination that productive enterprise shall not be permitted to go forward?

It has been stated by responsible persons, and it has not been denied, that the Government's open objective is to get the maximum number possible on relief. The fact is that in spite of the increased employment and payrolls of Industry, in spite of the fact that mutual savings deposits in this country increased by $163,000,000 during 1934, with 423,000 new accounts in such institutions, with an increase of $793,000,000 in the volume of new business handled by the larger life insurance companies, the number of families on relief in February of this year was nearly 2,000,000 more than in February, 1934.

In an editorial (April 6, 1935) the New York Times gave the figures as between February and February as follows:

Factory employment	up	4.5%
Factory payrolls	up	14.0%
Savings bank accounts	up	3.2%
New Life Insurance	up	10.1%
FAMILIES ON RELIEF	up	72.5%

And, said that Democratic newspaper, "These figures do not fit together easily."

Yet that situation has significant parallel right here in Pennsylvania. In every one of the many speeches he has made upon the subject, Governor Earle has referred to "the 2,000,000 persons on relief" in this State. The actual average for the first three months of his administration was 1,690,000. Why the exaggeration by 310,000, or nearly 20%?

It is a pustifiable assumption that the Governor calculated that the enlarged figures would help soften the shock to the public when the fact was revealed that during the first three months of his Administration the cost of relief, per person, was 70% above the average for the whole of 1934, and 120% above the average for the corresponding three months of last year.

There has been no real mystery, therefore, as to the reason for the insistent demand that the Legislature appropriate relief funds for a full two years, on the basis of $5,000,000 a month as the State's share.

On the contrary, the suspicion is becoming widespread that there has been and is a definite and well-considered program for deliberately enlarging the relief rolls for Democratic political purposes, even by the desperate expedient of hamstringing industry and crucifying labor by destroying more jobs.

Consider the evidence—and the bald facts cannot be denied:

1. Not a single suggestion looking toward Recovery. 2. A program for added taxation inflated beyond reason. 3. Relief costs 70% above the average for 1934; 120% above the average for the same months of 1934. 4. Complete disregard of present burdens and handicaps on productive enterprise. 5. An Administration-backed Compensation Law which would add not less than $50,000,000 a year to the costs of industrial operation in Pennsylvania and which unquestionably would cause a wholesale exodus of productive enterprise from this State. 6. A list of other legislative proposals too numerous to list in detail and all designed to further and unnecessarily increase production costs and destroy jobs in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural stood for "a wise and frugal government which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned."

Sixty years later the immortal Lincoln stood for "government of the people, for the people and by the people."

The Republican majority in the Senate of Pennsylvania today adheres to these immortal declarations of Jefferson and of Lincoln.

Pennsylvania must have a wise and frugal government. Pennsylvania must continue to have government of the people, for the people and by the people.

With the same patriotism with which the Greeks held the passes of Thermopylae, a Republican Senate says that waste and extravagance in government shall not prevail; that excessive levies shall not be made; that Pennsylvania shall continue in the days to come as in the past, the Keystone in the galaxy of the States in agriculture, in commerce and in industry.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. THOMPSON from the Committee on Forests and Waters reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 792 (House Bill No. 1084), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two of the supplement approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1371), entitled "A supplement to the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 555), entitled 'An act providing for the regulation of dams; or other structures or obstructions, as defined herein, in, along, across, or projecting into all streams and bodies of water wholly or partly within or forming part of the boundary of this Commonwealth; vesting certain powers and duties in the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania, for this purpose; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof,' by discontinuing the necessity of securing permits for the erection of certain dams."

Mr. WOODWARD, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOODWARD from the Committee on County Government, rereported as committed, Senate Bill No. 751, entitled:

An Act creating County Assistance Boards for the administration of unemployment relief and abolishing existing agencies created for the administration of unemployment relief conferring powers and imposing duties upon such county assistance boards the Governor courts county treasurers and the Auditor General imposing on counties the costs of administration incurred by such boards providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 751

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 751, just reported from committee.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 751, as follows:

An Act creating County Assistance Boards for the administration of unemployment relief and abolishing existing agencies created for the administration of unemployment relief conferring powers and imposing duties upon such county assistance boards the Governor courts county treasurers and the Auditor General imposing on counties the costs of administration incurred by such boards providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That there is hereby created in each county of this Commonwealth a County Assistance Board composed of six citizens one of whom shall be appointed by the Governor and four of whom shall be appointed by the courts of common pleas of the county The sixth member shall be the chairman of the board of county commissioners The members of County Assistance Boards shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties Each member of a County Assistance Board shall have the right to have assigned to him or her a distinguishing motor vehicle registration plate by the Department of Revenue Each County Assistance Board with the consent and approval of the county commissioners of the county shall have power to employ such experts clerks and assistants as may be deemed necessary to discharge the duties imposed by this act and to fix their compensation Such compensation and the other administrative expenses of a county assistance board shall be paid from funds allocated to the county for unemployment relief but not more than six per centum of the amount so allocated for any month shall be expended for salaries wages and other administrative expenses After the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six one-third of the costs of administration of relief shall be paid by the several counties respectively and after the first day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six one-half of such administration costs shall be paid by the county The county commissioners shall at the expense of the county furnish to the County Assistance Board a suitable office or offices at the county seat.

Section 2 The County Assistance Boards created under this act shall supersede the local relief boards and agencies created by the State Emergency Relief Board for the distribution of unemployment relief

Section 3 The County Assistance Board in each county shall be the agency to expend under the direct supervision of the Governor money appropriated by the Commonwealth for unemployment relief and the moneys received from the Federal Government or any agency thereof for unemployment relief

All moneys hereafter appropriated by the Commonwealth for unemployment relief shall be appropriated to the Governor and all moneys received from the Federal Government or any agency thereof for relief and work relief shall be added to any appropriations made by the Commonwealth for such purposes and the Governor shall monthly allocate a portion of such moneys for expenditures in the several counties the monthly allocation to be reallocated to the various counties on a ratio that the estimated total number of unemployed persons in a county bears to the estimated total number of unemployed persons in the entire Commonwealth as shown from time to time by the latest available tables compiled and issued by the Department of Labor and Industry

Section 4 The Governor shall have power to employ a director of assistance and such other employes as he may deem necessary to perform the duties imposed upon him by this act He shall have power to require from each County Assistance Board such monthly or other periodic reports as he may deem necessary but each County Assistance Board shall be held solely responsible for the expenditure of unemployment relief and determine the amounts to be allowed to individuals and families entitled to unemployment relief Moneys allocated for unemployment relief shall be expended only for food clothing fuel shelter and work relief for residents who are without means of support except that Federal moneys made available for aid to transients may be expended for such purposes

Section 5 The moneys paid to a County Assistance Board from time to time shall be paid into the county treasury for safe keeping and shall be paid out of the county treasury under such system of requisition and accounting as the County Assistance Board and the county treasurer of the county shall by agreement establish Any county treasurer may with the consent of the County Assistance Board appoint one or more clerks to assist him in the performance of his duties in receiving any paying out moneys and the compensation of such clerks or clerks shall be paid by the county as part of the administrative expense of the County Assistance Board

Section 6 Any member or employe of any County Assistance Board who shall expend or authorize the expenditure of any money allocated to it under the provisions of this act for any purpose other than one authorized by this act or by law or who shall knowingly give or authorize the giving of aid under the provisions of this act to any person not legally entitled to aid or any person who shall apply for or receive aid under the provisions of this act when he or she is not legally entitled thereto because he or she has means of support or any person who shall sell any order issued to him or her by a County Assistance Board for cash or part cash or other consideration or sell any food clothing or fuel received for cash or other consideration shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or both at the discretion of the court

Section 7 The expenditures of County Assistance Boards shall be audited from time to time by the Auditor General in the same manner as other expenditures of Commonwealth moneys and copies of such audits shall be furnished to each board whose accounts have been audited and to the Governor

Section 8 The act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws eighty-eight) entitled "An act creating the State Emergency Relief Board consisting of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor the Auditor General State Treasurer and the Speaker of the House of Representatives prescribing its powers and duties empowering the Governor to disburse moneys received from the Federal Government for the relief of the unemployed in accordance with plans adopted by the board and making an appropriation" is hereby repealed

Section 9 This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, this morning the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, offered amendments to this bill, Senate Bill No. 751, on third reading; and the bill was recommitted to the Committee on County Government for the purpose of considering those amendments. A meeting of the committee was held, and I was sorry that the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, was not present at the meeting; but I can assure him that the amendments were read by the chairman of the committee, and that some were approved and some were disapproved; that after a certain amount of discussion the committee decided to report this bill out as committed, so that the Senate might vote it up or vote it down. If the bill be passed by the Senate it will go to the House, and the amendments which the Senator from Centre desires to offer can be offered in the House, and a conference committee can be appointed.

Now a word about the bill: This bill is supposed to be a rival bill to that introduced by the Senator from Beaver, Mr. Batchelor and the Republican caucus decided they would report out both bills and send them both over to the House. The only thing I wish to say is that if the Senate and the General Assembly wish any bill of this kind, for local administration of relief, this is the most likely candidate for such success. There is a bill prepared by the Pennsylvania Charities Association, which in all probability will not come out of committee at all. The Batchelor Bill ignores the Governor, and as so many millions of dollars are going through the Governor's hands for relief it is not very human that the Governor will sign that bill which ignores him entirely. This present bill recognizes the Governor in the appointment of the County Board.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Batchelor,	Ealy,	Hunsicker,	Pierson,
Bean,	Graff,	Mallery,	Prince,
Chapman,	Homsher,	McClure,	Woodward
Clark,	Howell,	Owlett,	Ziesenheim,
Coyne,

NAYS—27

Baumer,	Lanius,	Reed	Salus,
Buckman,	Law,	(Dauphin)	Shapiro,
Cavalcante,	McCreesh,	Reed,	Sones,
Frey,	McGinnis,	(Washington)	Thompson,
Gelder,	Miller,	Rice,	(Centre)
Harris,	Norton,	Roberts,	Thompson,
Huffman,	Pytko,	Rodgers,	(Westmoreland)
Kahle,	Rankin,	Rupp,

Less than a majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HUFFMAN from the Committee on Game and Fisheries, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 983 (House Bill No. 1476), entitled:

An Act to amend section forty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" as amended changing the number of trout allowed to be caught in one day

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM from the Committee on Game and Fisheries, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 925, (House Bill No. 1807), entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred eight of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by requiring county treasurers to make monthly reports to the Department of Revenue of hunter's licenses granted

Also from the Committee on Game and Fisheries, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 408 (House Bill No. 852), entitled:

An Act to amend section ninety-eight of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," prohibiting the purchase, sale and exposing for sale of certain pike and fillets thereof.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY from the Committee on Game and Fisheries, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 165, entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred and ten of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 359), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals, and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," as amended, by providing for the revocation and denial of hunting licenses for certain acts.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CHAPMAN from the Committee on Forests and Waters reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 563, entitled:

An Act providing for the acquisition and maintenance by the Department of Forests and Waters, with the advice of the Bushy Run Battlefield Commission, of lands adjacent to and including the place where fifty soldiers killed in the battle of Bushy Run are buried, as well as other portions of said battlefield; and making an appropriation.

Also from the Committee on Game and Fisheries reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 992 (House Bill No. 1806), entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred twenty-four of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 448) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by requiring county treasurers to make monthly returns to the Department of Revenue of fish licenses issued

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from Committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BATCHELOR from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 895, entitled:

An Act authorizing courts to stay suits or proceedings brought against any corporate fiduciary to enforce payment of cash by the fiduciary for the reason that it has made and carried a trust investment solely in its corporate name on the public records, provided such investment has been kept separate and apart from its corporate assets by the fiduciary and clearly designated on its records as the property of the trust estate.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from Committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. REED from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 179, entitled:

An Act to amend clause (A), section two of an act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 388), entitled "An act relating to the jurisdiction, powers, and procedure of the orphans' court and the court of common pleas as to sales, mortgages, conveyances on ground-rent, leases, extinguishment of ground rents, partition, exchange, squaring and adjusting of lines between adjoining owners, consolidation and combination of mining lands and the leasing thereof, the joining by owners of undivided interests in making and taking conveyances in order to change the route or location of any right of way or passage over adjoining or other lands, and the subdivision of premises so as to command the highest price or greatest rents, and, for such purpose, the laying out or dedication of roads, streets, and alleys, or the vacation of such as have not yet been accepted by the public authorities, where the court shall be of opinion that such decree will be to the interest and advantage of all those interested; and where the legal title is held by minors, lunatics, habitual drunkards, or weak-minded persons, a married person whose spouse is a lunatic, or has abandoned him or her for one year or has been absent and unheard of for seven years; by corporations having no capacity to convey or by any unincorporated association, by any religious, beneficial, or charitable society or association, incorporated or unincorporated, and the title is subject to forfeiture if real estate is held in excess of the amount prescribed by its charter or by law; by a corporation, or individual, or individuals, and is subject to a trust of any description whatever; by any person as to whom a presumption of death may have arisen, or any interest wherein is held by any person under legal disability to dispose thereof; where the legal title is an estate tail or is subject to the lien of debts of a decedent not of record, contingent remainders, executory devises, or remainders to a class, some or all of whom may not be in being or ascertained; where estates shall have been devised or granted for special or limited purposes, where there is a power of sale but the time may not have arrived for its exercise, any preliminary act may not have been done to bring it into exercise, the time limited for its exercise may have expired, or any one or more persons required to consent or join in its exercise may be non compos mentis, have removed out of the State, have died, refused to act, unreasonably withhold consent, or be absent and unheard of; where there has been or shall be a defective appointment in any deed or will, and the necessary powers is not given to the executor, devisee, or appointee to make sale and conveyance; where a trust has been created, and no power conferred on the trustee to do any of the acts which the court is hereby empowered to authorize or confirm; and to the effects of such decrees," as amended by an act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 111), extending the provisions of said act to cases where real estate is held by the surviving tenant of an estate by entireties, whose spouse has been absent and unheard from for seven years under those circumstances from which the law would presume his or her decease.

Also from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 735, entitled:

An Act to amend sections nine and fifteen of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 280), entitled "An act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands, and prescribing interest charges on nonpayment thereof; requiring the receivers and collectors of county, city, borough, town, township, school district and poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes, and providing for the lien thereof; authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes, and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid; and authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances," reducing the amount required to be paid by the person redeeming lands sold at tax sale.

Also from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 736, entitled:

An Act to amend section four of the act approved the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen (P. L. 177), entitled "An act to amend the act entitled 'An act directing the mode of selling unseated lands for taxes, and for other purposes,'" by reducing the amount required to be paid by the person redeeming unseated lands sold at tax sale.

Also from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 737, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two (P. L. 228) entitled "An act supplementary to the several acts of this Commonwealth for the sale of Unseated Lands," by reducing the amount required to be paid by the person redeeming such lands under certain circumstances.

Also from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 738, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven (P. L. 279), entitled "An act supplementary to acts relating to recording of deeds," by reducing the amount required to be paid by joint tenants, tenants in common or co-partners of unseated lands in redeeming such lands sold at tax sale.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. NORTON from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 300, entitled:

An Act providing that parties furnishing material, supplies, fixtures, or equipment to buildings under bailment lease or conditional sales contract shall not have the right to file mechanics' liens therefor.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. THOMPSON from the Committee on Game and Fisheries reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1046 (House Bill No. 1885), entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 448) entitled 'An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by exempting from the provisions thereof persons fishing in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania holding a fishing license issued by the State of New York

Also from the Committee on Forests and Waters reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 591 (House Bill No. 927), entitled:

An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the Commonwealth and to avoid the danger of fire by requiring the owners operators and lessees of abandoned bituminous coal mines and working to seal the entries and air shafts thereof and conferring powers upon the Department of Mines to carry into effect the provisions of htis act.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, April 23, 1935

The House met at 11:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, we come to Thee on this beautiful spring morning. We give to Thee our heartfelt thanks that Thou hast shown new life on every side and we pray that this same new life may enter into our hearts to give us strength and courage, to give us love of our fellowmen. We pray this morning, O Father, that Thou will bless those on beds of sickness and particularly our brother from Westmoreland, Mr. Boyd. If it is Thy will, we pray that Thou will speedily restore him again to health and strength and to his useful place in our midst, and if it is not Thy will, we pray that Thou wilt give him humble submission to Thy Fatherly will Guide us this day in the service that we are to render unto Thee and to our fellowmen that we may give the best that we have in us. We ask it in the Master's name. Amen.

SPECIAL ORDERS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

The SPEAKER. The hour of 11:30 having arrived the Chair lays before the House the Special Orders fixed for this hour.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2264 (Senate Bill No. 840), entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Liquor License Fund to the General Fund and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you, Senate Bill No. 840, and the three following bills are the bills known as the transfer fund bills.

I cannot help but direct the attention of this House, and particularly of my Republican colleagues, to the fact that the substance of these bills enamated on April 8, two weeks ago, from the Republican Steering Committee of this House and was developed in that committee through the careful study and great expenditure of time and effort of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg. As a result of his thinking ahead and realizing that a situation would arise, on the fifteen of April he spent a great deal of time in finding funds that were available for transfer to meet the emergency and, as the result of that, every possible effort was made, after the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, introduced House Bills 1982-3-4 and 5, to get this House to report these bills out of committee and to get this House to enact them into law prior to the 15th of April 1935, so that there would be no gap remaining in the unemployment relief situation.

These bills that have come over from the Senate are duplicates of the bills that were introduced by the Republican party in this House. These bills were designed in order to be introduced in this House and were followed in the Senate by the very bills before you, in order to provide the necessary monies to preclude the cessation of unemployment relief.

On the same night there was introduced in this House a resolution on behalf of the Republican party for the consideration of this House, in order that the House and the Senate might speedily advise the Federal government and the people that we were for these bills. The passage of the bills was decried by the Democratic majority of this House. We were told that it was illegal so to do; we were told that these transfer bills were illegal and could not be passed.

Members of the House, I am not making this statement in the spirit of "I told you so," because I do not believe in so doing, but I do make it in the spirit of asking your unanimous approval of these bills. I do make it in the spirit of directing your attention to the fact that we on this side of the House, though we be in the minority, are ever mindful of the needs of the unemployed of Pennsylvania, that we are ever mindful of the fact that these important problems have to be considered by the majority and the majority.

I direct the attention of my opponents in this House of the Democratic party to the fact that the introduction of these measures by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, was not on account of the election in Montgomery the next day as was charged, but it was purely and simply in the interests of solving a situation as to what the Republican minority thought best at that time and which subsequently turned out to be the only means of solving this problem. On this bill and the other bills I ask that this House vote unanimously in favor of them, in accordance with the resolution that we passed.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to take this opportunity in explaining my attitude in being one of the few members on Thursday who voted against the resolution to transfer these funds.

I do not think that we are displaying the marks of legislators or statesmen in attempting to bridge this situation by methods of this character, by stop gap legislation. What I think the members of this Legislature ought to do is to acquit themselves like men and face the critical issues which are before them.

I feel that I am as sympathetic for the unemployed as any member of this House. I was not born in the lap of luxury. I happen to be one of the children of a widowed mother, and while we had plenty to eat there were few luxuries, so that I really feel I can sympathize with the people who are on relief today.

In the special session of 1934, I voted against the transfer of Motor License moneys for relief, because I believe that that is a fund which should be kept sacred for a particular purpose, and I want to serve notice on the House now that I and other members of this House believe that the moneys paid into the Motor Fund should be used in the future for the construction of highways out in the rural districts, because that is the most effective form of relief we have in the rural districts. I repeat that we are going to fight to the last ditch any attempt to further divert those moneys which rightfully belong to and should be spent on the highways.

About a week ago I read in one of the great metropolitan papers of this state that neither the Governor nor the Senate had as yet put their finger upon the crucial spot, the spot from which to obtain money for purposes of relief. That editorial went on to say that the moneys should be taken from the Highway Fund. I repeat that any rural member who has a bit of self-respect and who has the interests of his people at heart and the welfare of the rural districts will not stultify himself or herself by voting for any further transfer of Motor License Funds or the normal three cent gasoline gas.

Why don't we face this issue fairly and squarely? Why don't we acquit ourselves like men and stand upon our two feet and vote for the measures that we should vote for and have the intestinal fortitude to place ourselves on record as standing for taxation that is necessary? Although it may be a hard task, although it may spell political doom to support proper tax raising measures, we owe it to ourselves, we owe it to the state, we owe it to the thousands of unemployed and hungry men, women and children in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to raise the needed revenue and take the consequences, whatever they may be.

Why temporize, why procrastinate, why put off the evil day when that day has long since passed, when the members of the General Assembly, especially the members across the hall should have done that which their consciences and their judgment and their consideration of good government demanded that they should do—to vote for the necessary tax measures in order that we might have efficient relief in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

If I vote for the transfer of funds, I do it only with the greatest reluctance and in view of the fact that the lives of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania far transcend any other consideration before this General Assembly.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have said little on the floor of the House with respect to these different measures that have confronted us, but I cannot keep quiet at this time due to the fact that the transferring of funds does not offer a permanent remedy. We are playing the part of the ostrich. When he sees a storm coming his way he buries his head in the sand, and we are burying our heads in these different funds instead of raising the money by the regular and proper process to relieve a situation that will have to be met, if not now then at some future time. The longer we wait, the harder the job will be. It is with great reluctance that I am supporting these measures, and I want it distinctly understood that it is not because of where the plan originated to relieve the situation in this manner. So, therefore, I would say that we are devoid of considerable courage not to face this issue, as men should face a real problem, but on the strength of the fact that it is the humane thing to do under the present circumstances, I will support the measure as much as I dislike to do it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "aye" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

Although I am opposed in principle to this bill and to all the transfer bills for the reason that a tax program providing for the unemployed should have been passed and would have made the transfer bills unnecessary, I am voting "aye" only for the purpose of providing food and shelter for the starving people of the Commonwealth.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "aye" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

I am voting "aye" because of the necessity of funds and there being no other source available at the present time.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "aye" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

In principle I am opposed to the McClure Bills transferring funds from the Motor Vehicle Fund to the General Fund. But I am voting "aye" because the unemployed must be fed and clothed during the next month.

Mr. RUFFENNACH. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "aye" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

In voting "aye" on Senate Bills Nos. 840-841-842- and 843—House Bills Nos. 2264-2265-2266 and 2267, I desire to file my reasons:—

Since the Republican Senate has failed to enact the twenty-two point program of the Governor for relief purposes or any part thereof, and since no program suitable or adequate has been offered as a substitute for the Governor's program by the minority party in the House, or the majority party of the Senate and since no Federal Relief Funds will be forthcoming unless the above bills be enacted into law and whereas this is not a matter of choice but a matter of emergency, otherwise the people of our state will go hungry, and believing human rights are and should be above all other rights, I vote "aye" on these bills temporarily transferring funds for relief purposes.

Mr WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

I desire to vote "no" for Senate Bill 840—House Bill 2264.

(2) Senate Bill 841—House Bill 2265

(3) Senate Bill No. 842—House Bill No. 2266

(4) Senate Bill No. 843—House Bill No. 274

for the reason that we (constitutionally) have no right or authority to transfer moneys from special funds set aside to take care of certain interests—for instance, highways, municipalities, insurance fund, and so forth.

Further, this money is allocated to many municipalities who have already prepared their budgets in anticipation receiving moneys from these special funds. The transfer of these moneys will serve no useful purpose, but is only an attempt by the Republican party to shirk its duties in the passage or approval of the Governor's 21 point program—a great deal of which is designed to take care of unemployment relief. It is also a means by which the Republican party has avoided in offering a substitute program to take care of unemployment relief—and the enactment of the above measures will only prolong the misery and suffering of thousands of our unfortunate citizens.

I therefore desire to be recorded as voting "no".

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2265 (Senate Bill No. 841), entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. POWERS. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "aye" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

My reason for voting "aye" is because we need the money at once. This plan is only a makeshift, and does not or will not bring in the revenue we need, which can only come about by puting the tax burden upon these who are able to pay it.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

I am voting "no" on this Bill to transfer money from the Motor License Fund for two reasons:

(A) I have a Bill (H. B. 244) in this House providing for a graded reduction of higher salaries of office holders in this State and that would return to the State Treasury over one and one-half million dollars annually. This bill is now being strangled in the Committee on State Government, by Democratic action. If it were brought out and passed this transfer would not be essential.

(B) If the transfer were for work relief on the roads,—to help the rural people,—I would favor it, but without this assurance I can not support the measure.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2266 (Senate Bill No. 842), entitled:

An Act transferring money from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to the General Fund and appropriating the same to the State Emergency Relief Board and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

In voting "no" on House bills Numbers 2264, 2265, 2266, and 2267 I have done so because I feel that a transfer of funds shows on the part of the Republican members of the House and Senate a desire to postpone to a future day when these funds must be raised to repay them back. Why fool the unemployed that one is charitable when the issue is being merely being put off.

STATEMENT BY MR. ZIMMERMAN

Mr. Zimmerman asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

The statement was read by the Clerk as follows:

April 23, 1935.

Honorable Wilson G. Sarig,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
My Dear Mr. Speaker:

In view of the recent developments that have taken place in the Liquor Control Investigation, I find myself unable to remain as a Republican member of the House Committee appointed by the Honorable Speaker, February 5, 1935, for the purpose of investigating the Liquor Control Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

This resignation is submitted without comment as to the activities of any member, or group of members, now serving on this Committee.

Respectfully,

WEZ:SS WILLIAM ELLIS ZIMMERMAN.

The SPEAKER. The resignation will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Legislative Journal.

RESOLUTION No. 32.

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 32, Printer's No. 661.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 28, 1935.

Whereas, Under present law practically every measure for the advancement of the interests of the workers must be acted upon and passed in each of the forty-eight states with the possibility that the United States Supreme Court may declare said legislation in whole or in part unconstitutional and

Whereas, In order to abolish this condition, there is being advocated an amendment to the Constitution of the United States known as the "Workers' Rights Amendment which is defined hereinafter" which if adopted would permit Congress and the several states to enact social welfare legislation and which reads as follows

"Article XX

Section 1. The Congress shall have power to establish uniform laws throughout the United States to regulate, limit and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age, to provide for the relief of aged, invalided, sick and unemployed wage earners and employes in the form of periodical grants, pensions, benefits, compensation or indemnities from the public treasury, from contributions of employers, wage earners, and employes, or from one or more of such sources, and generally for the social and economic welfare of the workers in the United States.

Section 2. The power of the several states to enact social welfare legislation is unimpaired by this article, but no such legislation shall supersede, abridge or conflict with any act of Congress under this article," therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Legislature of Pennsylvania endorses such proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States and urges upon the Members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States the passage of the same; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to each Member of the House of Representatives of the United States from Pennsylvania, and to each of the two United States Senators from Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mrs. WILSON and Mr. HOOPES and were as follows:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Van SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. Van SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, the members of this House have heard the report of the Judiciary General Committee, on House Bill No. 612, with a negative recommendation. This bill relates to the establishment of alibis in criminal prosecutions. It has the endorsement of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and is designed to prevent framed or trumped-up alibis in criminal cases. As such, it merits the support—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, will state his point of order.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman who is speaking on the question of personal privilege, is out of order because he is not speaking on a matter pertaining to the integrity of any member of this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read the rule pertaining to the discussion of personal privilege:

"Personal privilege questions are first, those affecting the rights of the House collectively, its safety, dignity, and integrity of its proceedings, and second, the rights, reputations, and conduct of its members, individually, or in their representative capacity only."

The personal privilege question must be confined to the integrity of the members The gentleman from Northampton must confine his remarks to the question of personal privilege.

Mr. Van SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, this bill which has been reported out with a negative recommendation is important in that it gives every member of this house, an opportunity of expressing his views upon a matter of vital importance to the people of the state of Pennsylvania, and each member of this House is entitled to express his opinion, in the form of a vote upon that bill. I therefore ask the Members of this House, to take House Bill No. 612—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I again rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, will state his point of order.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Van Sickle, is not speaking under a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that the gentleman from Northampton was not speaking strictly under a question of personal privilege The gentleman will confine his remarks to his question of personal privilege. The bill does not come under that question.

Mr. Van SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, it is the duty of every member of this House to express to his constitutents his views upon matters pertaining to legislation vitally affecting his constitutents, and I believe it is the desire of every member of this House to so express to the views which he may hold. House Bill No. 612 gives the opportunity—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I again rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, will state his point of order.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman, from Northampton, Mr. Van Sickle, seems to be intentionally violating the rulings of the Chair, and the rules of this House, and if he insists, I give warning that I am going to move to expunge from the record his remarks.

The SPEAKER The Chair has already ruled that discussion on the bill does not come under a question personal privilege. The Chair would suggest to the gentleman from Northampton that if he desires to discuss the bill, he may do so if he will make a motion to place it on the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee, and under such a motion the gentleman can discuss the bill.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, it is not my intention to discuss this bill. I was merely calling the attention of the House to the fact that the House ought to be given an opportunity to express itself, and am using as an example House Bill No. 612, which is entirely permissible under the Rules. I do not intend to discuss the merits.

As I have previously stated, it is the duty of every member of this House to express to his constitutents his standing on vital legislation. Sometimes it is impossible in our usual course with bills in Committee to bring forth these bills for the discussion of the members. For example, if they are returned to the House with a negative recommendation. However, the rules of this house permit the members to express their opinion by providing that these bills may be called up by a motion for printing. It is my intention to so call up House Bill No. 612 Monday night and ask the members of this House to give it very earnest consideration.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1522, as follows:

An Act to amend section fifteen of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" providing for the revival of municipal and other claims by suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default in the same manner as tax claims without the necessity of proceeding to judgment

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section fifteen of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 15 Such tax municipal or other claim if filed within the period aforesaid shall remain a lien upon said properties until fully paid and satisfied Provided however That either a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default in the form hereinafter provided be filed [in cases of tax claims] either before or after judgment on the scire facias [and in case of other than tax claims after judgment on the scire facias] or else a writ of scire facias in the form herein provided be issued to revive the same within each period of five years following (a) the date on which said claim was filed (b) the date on which a writ of scire facies was issued thereon (c) the date on which any judgment was entered thereon (d) the date on which a previous suggestion of nonpayment and default was filed thereon or (e) the date on which a judgment of revival was obtained thereon

The suggestion and averment shall be in the following form under the caption of the claim

And now ..... the claimant by ..... his solicitor suggests of record that the above claim is still due and owing to the claimant and avers that the owner is still in default for nonpayment thereof The prothonotary is hereby directed to enter this suggestion and averment on the municipal lien or the proper docket of the claim and also to index it upon the judgment index and on the locality index of the court for the purpose of continuing the lien of the claim

Such suggestion and averment must be signed by the solicitor or chief executive officer of the claimant The prothonotary shall docket and index the suggestion and averments directed therein and for such services shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar to be taxed and collected as other costs in the claim The filing and indexing of such suggestion and averment within five years of filing the claim or the issuing of any writ of scire facias thereon or of any judgment thereon or of the filing of any prior suggestion and averment of default shall have the same force and effect for the purposes of continuing and preserving the lien of the claim as though a writ of scire facias had been issued or a judgment or judgment of revival had been obtained within such period Provided That no writ of levari facias shall be issued upon a claim for the purpose of exposing the property liened to sheriff's sale except after a judgment shall have been duly obtained upon the claim as provided in this section and such judgment must have been obtained within five years of the issuance of the levari facias Whenever the lien of a claim has been revived and continued by the filing and indexing of a suggestion and averment of default the claimant may at any time within five years therefrom issue a writ of scire facias thereon reciting all suggestion and averment of default filed since the filing of the claim and shall proceed thereon in the manner herein provided subject to the right of the owner to raise any defense arising since the last judgment

If a claim be not filed within the time aforesaid or if it be not prosecuted in the manner and at the time aforesaid its lien on real estate shall be wholly lost

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

C As soon as all the ballots of each party have been properly accounted for and those outside the ballot boxes as well as the said lists sealed as aforesaid the election officers shall forthwith open the ballot boxes and take therefrom all ballots therein and separate the same according to the party to which they belong and first audibly count the number cast for each party one by one and make a record thereof and then the judge or one of the inspectors in the presence of the other officers shall read aloud the names marked or inserted upon each ballot keeping the ballots of each party in sequence together with the office for which the person named is a candidate and any other relevant matter necessary to identify him and the clerks shall carefully enter each vote as read and keep account of the same in triplicate tally papers for each party to be provided as aforesaid All ballots after being removed from the box shall be kept within the unobstructed view of all persons in the voting room until replaced in said box and no person while handling same shall have in his hands any pencil pen stamp or other means of marking or spoiling any ballot When the vote cast for the different persons named upon said party ballots shall have been fully recorded on said tally papers and counted the election officers shall duly certify to the number of votes cast for each person upon the respective party tickets and shall prepare triplicate returns thereof for each party and also general returns in duplicate showing besides the entries made thereon as aforesaid the number of ballots of each party cast and the number of ballots of each party declared altogether void including any blank ballots cast as well as the votes cast for each candidate on each party ticket one of which statements shall be immediately posted for the information of the public outside the voting room or polling place and the other of which shall be entrusted to the judge for delivery to the county commissioners with the package of unused ballots et cetera aforesaid The election officers shall then replace the ballots cast so counted and canvassed in the boxes including those declared void together with one set of tally papers one set of said triplicate return sheets one numbered list of voters sealed as aforesaid (and the voting check lists in districts other than cities) and one oath of each election officer and lock and seal each ballot box so that nothing can be inserted therein until it be opened again and the judge and minority inspector shall deliver them to the place which has been designated by the court of common pleas or by law for the delivery of ballot boxes at general and municipal elections on or before noon of the Thursday following such primary and the county commissioners or return board shall not compute any returns from any election district until the ballot boxes thereof as well as the package of unused ballots et cetera aforesaid therefrom are delivered as aforesaid

D The minority inspector shall retain one complete set of tally papers and one of the triplicate return sheets for each party and one set of the affidavits of voters and other persons except oaths of election officers made pursuant to the provisions of this act at such primary and carefully preserve the same for the period of at least one year The remaining tally papers triplicate return sheets and affidavits of voters and others including oaths of election officers shall be placed in separate envelopes to be provided for the same and sealed as soon as the count is finally completed All of such envelopes and the other numbered list of voters previously sealed as aforesaid shall be entrusted to the judge of election and shall on or before noon of the Thursday following be deposited by him in person or by registered mail with the county commissioners who shall on the succeeding day at noon publicly commence the computation and canvassing of the returns and continue the same from day to day until completed in the manner hereinafter provided except that if any of the county commissioners of any county shall be a candidate for any nomination at any primary he shall not act as a member of the return board for computing or canvassing any returns of such primary but the other two commissioners if both are qualified shall act and in case in any county there are not at least two commissioners so qualified two or more judges of the court of common pleas of such county shall be designated by said court to act as a return board provided that neither of them are candidates for any nomination at such primary either on a party or a nonpartisan ballot and if there shall be only one judge of such court in such county or if less than two judges are qualified and able to act in such county any judge who is qualified may act alone and if there be none qualified the prothonotary of such county shall act as the return board and if the prothonotary shall be a candidate at the primary then the sheriff of the county shall act as the return board

E The general returns from the various districts shall be open to public inspection at the office of the county commissioners as soon as they receive same from the judges thereof

F The county commissioners shall provide a convenient public place for holding the sessions of the return board whoever may compose it as aforesaid with adequate accommodations for the authorized representatives of each party and candidate concerned in any such primary not exceeding two such representatives for each of them at any one time to attend and to keep or check up their own computation of the votes cast in the several election districts as the returns from the same are read as hereinafter directed and the county commissioners shall give at least one week's previous notice by advertising once in at least two newspapers of a large paid circulation published at the county seat of the time aforesaid and place when and where such return board will commence and hold its sessions and keep copies of such advertisement posted in their office during said period

G At noon on the Friday following any such primary the county commissioners shall have ready a sufficient number of blank forms of returns made out in a proper manner and headed as the nature of the ballots may require for making out full and fair statements of all votes which shall have been given within the county or any political district therein according to the returns from the several election districts thereof for any person voted for therein for any party nomination or party office

H All the clerks of the county commissioners and other persons assisting in the official computation and canvassing of the votes shall be first sworn to perform their duties impartially and not to read write count or certify any return or vote falsely or fraudulently

I The general returns made by the election officers as aforesaid from the various election districts shall be read one after another in the usual order slowly and audibly by one of the clerks who shall in each case read therefrom the number of ballots of each party issued spoiled and canceled and cast respectively whereupon the clerk having charge of the records of the county commissioners showing the number of ballots of each party furnished for each election district and the number of stubs and unused ballots and spoiled and canceled ballots returned shall publicly announce the number of same respectively and unless it appears by said numbers or calculations therefrom that said records and the said general return correspond no further returns shall be read from the latter until all the ballots issued are fully accounted for and all the stubs and unused ballots spoiled and canceled ballots as well as the other election returns aforesaid shall be open to public inspection and shall be carefully preserved together with the contents of the ballot box by the county commissioners for at least eleven months and not destroyed in any event without the previous consent in writing by the district attorney None of the envelopes sealed by election officers and entrusted to the judges of election shall be opened by any person except by order of the return board or of the court of common pleas

J When the records agree with the said returns regarding the ballots the votes recorded for each candidate on each party ticket shall be read by the said clerk slowly audibly and in an orderly manner from the said returns and the figures announced shall be compared by other clerks with the return sheets of each party for the respective districts and discrepancies shall be immediately called to the attention of the return board which shall thereupon compare said return sheets with the tally papers for the same election district respecting the same candidates or party ballots and if the tally papers and party return sheets agree the general return shall be forthwith corrected to conform thereto but in every other case the return board shall forthwith cause the ballot box of such division to be brought before it and opened under its direction and the ballots therein recounted respecting any vote in question in the presence of representatives of each party and candidate interested who are attending the canvass of such votes and if such recount shall not be sufficient to correct the error in any of the said returns the return board may summon the election officers and overseers if any to appear forthwith with all election papers in their possession and the court of common pleas shall use its processes to enforce such summons if necessary and if any error or fraud is discovered the return board shall compute and certify the votes justly regardless of any fraudulent or erroneous returns presented to it and report the facts to the district attorney of the proper county for action in cases that appear to warrant same

K As the returns from each election district are read computed and found to be correct or corrected as aforesaid they shall be recorded on the blanks prepared for the purpose of casting up the total vote of each candidate on each party ticket until all the returns from the various election districts which are entitled to be counted shall have been duly recorded when they shall be added together announced and attested by the clerks who made and compared the entries respectively and at the expiration of five days after the completion of said computation the return board shall certify the several returns accordingly to the county commissioners unless upon appeals taken from any decision the court of common pleas shall have directed any returns to be revised in which cases such returns shall be revised and certified accordingly Provided however That the computation by the return board must be completed within fifteen days after any fall primary election

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1772, Printer's No. 632, on page 7 of today's calendar, bill on second postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar, by Mr. BLUMBERG and

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with

The House resumed the consideration on second reading of House Bill No 1772, entitled:

An Act to amend sections ten twelve and fifteen of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred thirty-seven) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" prescribing additional grounds for divorce and providing for the annulment of additional void marriages

The first section was read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections ten twelve and fifteen of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred thirty-seven) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 10 Grounds for Divorce from Bond of Matrimony

1 When a marriage has been heretofore or shall hereafter be contracted and celebrated between two persons it shall be lawful for the innocent and injured spouse to obtain a divorce from the bond of matrimony whenever it shall be judged in the manner hereinafter provided that the other spouse

(a) At the time of the contract was and still is naturally and incurably imporent or incapable of pro-creation or

(b) Has knowingly entered into a second marriage in violation of the previous vows he or she made to the former spouse whose marriage is still subsisting or

(c) Shall have committed adultery or

(d) Shall have committed wilful and malicious desertion and absence from the habitation of the injured and innocent spouse without a reasonable cause for and during the term and space of two years or

(e) Shall have by cruel and barbarous treatment endangered the life of the injured and innocent spouse or

(f) Shall have offered such indignities to the person of the injured and innocent spouse as to render his or her condition intolerable and life burdensome or

(g) Shall have procured the marriage by fraud force or coercion and which has not been subsequently confirmed by the acts of the injured and innocent spouse or

(h) Shall have been convicted as principal or as accessory either before or after the fact within or without this Commonwealth of the crime of arson burglary embezzlement forgery kidnapping larceny murder either in the first or second degree assault with intent to kill voluntary manslaughter perjury rape robbery sodomy buggery treason or misprision of treason and be sentenced to imprisonment for any term of two years or more by a competent court having jurisdiction or

(i) Is hopelessly and incurably insane

2 When a marriage has been heretofore or shall hereafter be contracted and celebrated between two persons within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity according to the tables established by law it shall be lawful for either of said parties to obtain a divorce from the bond of matrimony in the manner hereinafter provided or

3 If any spouse upon any false rumor in appearance well founded of the death of the other when such other has been absent for the space of two whole years hath married or shall marry again the party who has not married may at his or her return have his or her own marriage dissolved by divorce on the ground of bigamy leaving the other party to remain with the second husband or wife Any such action shall be instituted within six months after such return

Section 12 Annulment of [Bigamous] Void Marriages In all cases where a supposed or alleged marriage shall have been contracted which is absolutely void by reason of one of the parties thereto having a spouse living at the time or by reason of one of the parties thereto having been insane at the time such [the] supposed or alleged marriage may upon the application of either party be declared nul land void in accord with the principles and form hereinafter prescribed for cases of divorce from the bond of matrimony

Section 15 Jurisdiction The several courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth shall have original jurisdiction of cases of divorce from the bonds of matrimony from bed and board and in the annulment of marriages under the provisions of this act The said courts shall have power to grant divorces and to annul marriages notwithstanding the fact that the marriage of the parties and the cause for divorce occurred outside of this Commonwealth and that both parties were at the time of the occurrence of said cause domiciled without this Commonwealth and that the respondent has been served with the subpoena only by publication as provided by this act

All petitions or libels for divorce shall be exhibited to the court of the county where the libellant resides except where the husband and wife shall be resident in different counties of this Commonwealth and while so resident a cause of divorce shall arise in which cases the libellant may at his or her option institute and prosecute proceedings either in the county of his or her own residence or in the county wherein the respondent shall be resident and the cause for divorce shall have arisen

Petitions or libels for the annulment of [bigamous] void marriages may be exhibited to the court of common pleas of the county where the marriage was contracted or in the county where either the libellant or respondent resides and in such cases residence of the libellant within the county or State for any period shall not be required

On the question,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HARTMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Adams, Mr. Hartman, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARTMAN. Mr. Speaker, I have a letter on my desk from my County, to pass along to all the members an invitation to our apple blossom season during the next week or two, the season will be at its best. Adams County is noted for its apple blossoms and the people will enjoy them a great deal more than they did seeing the cherry blossoms.

On the question,

Will the House agreed to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, and members of this House, I desire to call to your attention to the fact that House Bill No. 979, Printer's No. 698, is in no sense a partisan measure. It is the result of a great deal of painstaking and constructive effort upon the part of its sponsors. I, therefore, urge all the members of this House to support this Bill because I believe it will be of great benefit to all voters of cities of the first class.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 758, Printer's No. 609, on page 32, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. WEISS.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 758, entitled:

An Act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs towns and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor imposing duties and conferring powers upon such commissioners and their appointees and upon courts county officers election officers municipal officers register of vital statistics and boards of school directors

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 44, Page 48, Line 20, by striking out after the word "effect" the words "from and after the" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "immediately upon"

Amend Section 44, Page 48, Line 21, by striking out the whole line, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "approval by Governor"

Amend Section 44, Page 48, by striking out the whole of line 22.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BOYER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 811, Printer's No. 447, on page 9 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Boyer

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 811 entitled

An Act to amend section one thousand two hundred and one of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred thirty-two) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" prohibiting mayors from holding other public offices

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, and members of this House, my colleague from Johnstown called up this bill as evidence of the fact that as far as the two members from the city of Johnstown are concerned, members who are representing different parties, there is no disagreement as to the inherent worth of this measure. I would not rise to take your time were it not for the fact that this bill has been discussed among the members, that it has been lobbied for and lobbied against, and that much of the discussion has been misleading. This measure can be considered upon the basis of the principle involved, or this measure can be considered upon the basis of the alleged personalities involved, or this measure could be considered as many members have chosen to consider it, as a ripper measure.

I prefer, first of all, to consider and submit this measure upon the basis of the principle. If we can agree upon the principle, I am willing to discuss the personality, and if we can agree upon the personality, and anybody has any curiosity upon that subject, I am willing to discuss its merits as a ripper, but I think that the personality and the ripper phrase with which so many members have been concerned, are extraneous issues. This bill simply comes to you on the proposition that mayors of third-class cities should not be permitted to hold a job as mayor and a state job.

Now, if that principle is sound, there are not any exceptions to it; you cannot say "That is so, but we ought to make an exception in this case" or "It is so, and we ought to make an exception in some other case." The principle is either sound or it is unsound.

I submit to you that at a time when the payrolls of this state are being revised and combed for the purpose of leaving off one member of a family, if a husband and wife are on the payroll, or one member of the family, if father and son are on the payroll, that it is wholly inconsistent to put the mayor of a third-class city on the payroll.

Now, curiously enough, while the first-class city law says the mayor of a first-class city must be mayor and nothing more, and while the second-class city law says that the mayor of the second-class city must be mayor and nothing else, the third-class city law leaves the door open, and the mayor can be mayor, and anything else he can get, up to $10,000 a year. There isn't any mayor, there isn't any third-class city mayor, that is worth thirty-five hundred dollars of the municipality's money and fifty-five hundred dollars of the state's money at one and the same time, and I don't make any exception for individuals. This bill is a proposition concerning dual office-holders. You have your own position to take. This House may conclude in its wisdom that it wants to endorse the principal of dual office holders. This House, in its wisdom may conclude that it wants to tell the world that it is perfectly satisfied for a man to hold two lucrative jobs.

The Republican minority may want to place itself upon the record as in favor of dual office-holders The Democratic majority may want to tell the world that that is where it stands, but that is not a matter for me to consider. That is for the House.

Now, as to the personality, it is said among the members of this House that this bill is subject to objection because it so happens that only one mayor of a third-class city would be immediately affected. Now, I ask you, is that my fault? Is it your fault? Is it anybody's fault, except the mayor who would be immediately affected?

It is also said that the principle in this bill is vitiated by reason of the ripper; the allegation that the mayor who would be immediately affected and myself, are political enemies and that, therefore, the principle of this bill is vitiated.

Now, then, since this argument has been so freely used under cover, among the members of this House, I want to say this and I say this advisedly that I personally am the person who initiated the negotiations with Democratic leaders that ultimately led to the appointment of a third-class city mayor to a responsible position under the state-government, and I say that any it is so, and I have the documents to prove it.

Now, why do I do that? Because it was my understanding that the mayor of the third-class city affected, was perfectly willing and agreeable to being kicked upstairs. He had no thought at the time he was angling for a promise from Democratic leaders, having failed as I would like to inform my Republican friends, to make a deal with Republicans, he was perfectly willing to be kicked upstairs into a responsible state position, but when he got what he considered to be a sufficient promise, he changed his mind, and his position was, after he had the promise, that if he should resign as mayor, he would be a sucker, and if he didn't resign as mayor, the other people would be suckers, and that as far as he was concerned, if somebody had to be a sucker, he would rather it would be the other people.

Now, let me make myself clear, that neither the candidate for Governor, nor any other candidate on the Democratic State ticket, was, at the time the deal was pending to get this third-class city mayor a job for his support of the ticket, and turn from the field as a Senatorial candidate, knew anything about the negotiations, or were, in any way responsible for them. I want to make that clear. All the Governor of this Commonwealth ever knew was, that suddenly the mayor of Johnstown jumped on his band-wagon, became one of his ardent supporters, and had back of him a group of influential Democrats who wanted the mayor of Johnstown to have a job.

But, I know and the mayor knows that a very important group, an influential group, but a very important group knows that the matter was a deal. All of that has no reference to this bill, no proper reference. I only say it, because of the arguments that had been made around the block, and have been printed in the papers, that the administration was opposed to this measure. It has been pending upon the calendar many weeks and I have received no direct intimation that this bill is distasteful to the interest of the Administration, and if it was I ought to be the one that knew it, and if anybody else knows anything to the contrary, I hope, they arise and tell the membership. I have been told that this measure is distasteful to the Democratic organization, and if there is anybody that has any direct information upon that point, I hope they arise and tell the membership.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I am not going to take up the time of the House, unless in the course of debates, if there is any, which I hope there will not be,—I am compelled to do so with reference to the ripper aspect.

I can assure the gentleman from Pittsburgh that headline for headline, action for action, disorder for disorder, folly for folly, riot for riot, disregard for law and disregard for order, that I can duplicate not only once but three times every charge they brought against their mayor of Pittsburgh, and prove from headlines and from facts that the mayor of our city was an even worse offender. But even if I could do so, that is no proper argument in favor of the bill The bill should stand upon its own basis, its own feet, as a fundamental proposition, and as such a fundamental proposition, the issue being whether or not this House will decide for or against dual office-holders, and upon that basis I submit the bill.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria County, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, if this bill provides for the salaries of the mayors of the third-class cities; the amount of the salaries?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it has nothing to do with salaries The purpose of the bill is absolutely stated in the title. It prohibits mayors from holding other offices of public profit under the commonwealth, mayors of third-class cities.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, in third-class cities where the salary of the mayor is around six hundred, seven hundred, eight hundred, nine hundred, or even a thousand dollars a year, would this bill prevent such a mayor from accepting or holding a position, working for the state, we will say, for instance, on the highways, or some other department, in order that he may make a proper living for his family?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, my interpretation of this bill would be that the mayor of the third-class city, no matter what his salary was would not be permitted to hold a state job while he was mayor of a third-class city.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I feel that these family scraps that happen in certain districts of our commonwealth, should be handled by the local people in their own way, and not inconvenience people who are not concerned about local matters in these various districts. I happen to know of a case where the mayor or third-class city, makes about eight hundred dollars a year. He at this time is looking for employment and I am sure that if he is denied the privilege of possibly accepting a position under the state, it will be an extreme hardship, and to my mind this legislation to punish the mayor in Johnstown, and taking along with it the punishment of mayors of third-class cities throughout this State could properly be called viscious legislation, and so I would ask that the sponsor of this measure hold it in abeyance, with the thought in mind that something might be worked out whereby the innocent would not be required to suffer with the guilty where they want to punish someone, and I feel that we should be fair, not only to ourselves, but to our neighbors.

I have no fault to find with the attitude of the people from the territory, where they have agreed on it. I think they have a just grievance, and I feel that a correction should be made, but I do not feel that it is fair to go out and punish every third class city mayor in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman what is the salary of the mayor of a third-class city?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the maximum salary, I think, is thirty-five hundred dollars. I do not know what the minimum is. Forty-eight hundred dollars they tell me is the maximum.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, may I ask what are the salaries of other third-class cities?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, they run from five hundred dollars to forty-eight hundred dollars. I cannot tell you. I am not interested in what the salary is. I do not think the five hundred dollar mayor has the right to hold a state job; I do not think that the thousand dollar mayor has the right to hold a state job; I do not think that the two thousand dollar mayor has the right to a state job; I do not think that a mayor of any salary has a right to a state job.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if the gentleman has any petitions from the city of Johnstown, asking him to remove the mayor of Johnstown?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have no intention of removing the mayor of Johnstown. The mayor of Johnstown can remain there, so far as I am concerned, as long as he wants to. This bill does not remove the mayor of Johnstown. It simply forces any mayor who holds a state job to make up his mind whether he wants to serve his city, or whether he wants to serve the state, and if the mayor of Johnstown decides he wants to serve the state that is his election.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me how much time, a member of the Boxing Commission takes from his work?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, on the basis of the Johnstown experience, since being appointed Boxing Commissioner, the mayor of Johnstown says he can be mayor on two hours a week. If he says he can be mayor on two hours a week, I presume it is because he feels that it is necessary to devote his other hours to his duties as Boxing Commissioner.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, is not this a personal fight between two people in Johnstown?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if this were a personal fight, and if this man in whom my friend is so much interested had been my political enemy, he certainly would not last July when he had failed to make progress in other lines, come to me for my assistance in establishing the contact with the people he desired to reach. If he has, since that time, become my enemy, you will have to ask him about that, because I don't know anything about it. I helped him the last time he asked me for help.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, for the purpose of obtaining some information about this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, referring to page 2, section 2 of the bill, the Section reads as follows: "The provisions of this act shall become effective (immediately upon its final enactment) (on the first Monday of January, 1936) immediately upon its final enactment."

Now, realizing that printers who make up these bills have handled such a great barrage of bills, and realizing that the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, handles a great volume of work from this House, I would like to know, only for the purpose of avoiding a possible error, if this bill is in its final form.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as far as I am concerned, this bill is in its final form. I take it that section 2 reads "The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment. If I am in error in that interpretation, the bill would fall because of faulty draftmanship, which perhaps might not be displeasing to some members of this House, but I am perfectly willing to abide by Section 2, as "wrote".

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted an expression from the gentleman that this bill was in its final form, so that because of the great volume of work handled by the printers and the gentleman from Cambria, there may be no possible error.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, and members of this House. I want to assure you that if we act affirmatively upon this bill, we will rightfully deserve, or rather, rightfully have earned, the title of rippersentatives, and not representatives.

This thing has come down to the fact that a certain mayor in the city of Johnstown happens to be holding at the same time another position with the state. It has become rather customary of late for the General Assembly to pay a little too much attention to local matters. I think that matter was brought before the House in an earlier ripper affair that was presented to us. I feel that the members of this General Assembly who also feel that if the people of Johnstown can stand their mayor, we ought to be able to do so.

I also feel, and I am fairly sure that you should also feel that if the administration can have a mayor of Johnstown acting as one of its appointive officials, that that also should be a matter for the administration to decide. I am very positive that if the people of Johnstown rebelled at the mayor holding two jobs, they could force that mayor to get out without bringing that matter before the General Assembly. And I am also sure that if the state administration does not want that man as their Boxing Commissioner, they can get rid of him in a rather easy manner.

So I say, let the people of Johnstown take care of that end of it, and let the administration take care of their end of it, and let us take care of our work, and I am going to, therefore, assure you, as you no doubt know, it is going to keep us here late tonight.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this proposition is one that is quite serious, and one that places a mayor of a third-class city working on a small salary in a very peculiar position, for the reason that temptation is always before public officials to do the wrong thing, but when you shut off his bread and butter, sufficient at least that he can keep his family, you are placing the occasion for wrong-doing before him and to my mind this is vicious legislation. I do not feel that we should go along with this measure as it now exists. And to some of the boys over here who are unruly, I will meet them anywhere.

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and desire to file my reasons for so doing:

My vote is in the negative on this bill because many mayors of third class cities receive only five hundred to six hundred dollars a year. In my opinion the provisions of the bill are too drastic and would adversely affect too many mayors rendering good service to the citizens of the state.

Mr. RUFFENNACH. Mr. Speaker, I am voting "no" and desire to file my reasons for so doing:

This bill is in effect a ripper bill and while it is questionable as to whether it is a good bill for the specific purpose for which it is intended, it undoubtedly will work a hardship on those small town third class city mayors who are compensated to the extent of only Five Hundred Dollars per year.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1521, as follows:

An Act imposing certain requiremtnts on certain hospitals receiving State aid authorizing the withholding of appropriations and imposing duties on the Department of Welfare

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all hospitals having seventy-five beds or more receiving any appropriation from the State shall at all times have in attendance at such hospital at least one licensed physician or resident interne who shall have graduated from an approved medical college or approved osteopathic college if such hospital be an osteopathic hospital

Section 2 The Department of Welfare shall enforce the provisions of this act and shall withhold the payment of all money or the unpaid balance thereof appropriated or allotted to any hospital failing to comply with the provisions of this act

Section 3 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2122, Printer's No. 617, on page 10 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. COLEMAN.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2122, entitled:

An Act providing for the annual registration with the Department of Labor and Industry of establishments where persons are employed; requiring certain statistical data relating to employment and accidents to be furnished the department; authorizing the department to prescribe an annual registration fee; and imposing a penalty for violation of the act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, although the intent of this bill may be all right, I feel that from the manner in which it is drawn, it is a dangerous piece of legislation. The bill provides that every owner of every establishment where persons are employed for compensation of any sort are subject to this bill, and then it goes on and tells about the registration. I think there is a provision in here that the presons shall be considered to have violated the law, and be subject to prosecution. What is an establishment? I believe that it could be properly said that my home is an establishment, and if I had somebody to come in and help my wife wash the dishes under this law, I would have to register in order to have permission to do that. I feel that a farm is an establishment; I feel that any place, practically any place in which people are employed is some sort of an establishment, and I feel that under this bill, you would be taking a chance if you employed a person in your home, or any other place without registering; you would be taking a chance of having criminal prosecution brought against you. I feel that under the circumstances, and the manner in which this bill is drafted that it is a bad bill and should be defeated.

On the question recurrring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. CLIFF S. PATTERSON (Concurrent)
RESOLUTION No. 138.

In the House of Representatives, April 23, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government, in order to alleviate unemployment, is developing various useful public works; and

Whereas, The newspapers throughout the State have brought to the attention of many thousands of its citizens and to the members of this Legislature a project advanced by the State Planning Board involving the construction of a highway upon the abandoned railway grade of the South Penn Railroad through the Allegheny Mountains between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh; and

Whereas, At the time construction was abandoned by the South Pennsylvania Railroad in 1885, nine tunnels through the mountains were approximately two-thirds completed and many miles of right of way were graded; and

Whereas, The completion of these tunnels and the construction of the intervening portions of highways, would provide the general public with a highway free from excessive grades, avoiding the dangerous storms upon the mountain tops, and upon which it would appear that at no point the highway grade would be in excess of one hundred feet to the mile; and

Whereas, The completion of these tunnels and the construction of this highway would require approximately 32,000,000 man hours of labor and would furnish immediate employment to many unemployed men now upon the relief rolls of the State; and

Whereas, All the materials entering into the construction project will be produced by the industries of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, It is estimated that the cost of completion and operation of the roadway and these highway tunnels may be defrayed within a reasonable period of time by a system of tolls to be charged for the use of the tunnels; and

Whereas, This South Penn Tunnel Highway would possess invaluable military value in time of war; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three members of the Senate and three Members of the House to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore and Speaker respectively, and in connection with the State Highway Department, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and the State Planning Board, and such other consultants as they choose to engage, make an investigation of this project; and

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the Legislature during the present session as promptly as possible, that they shall continue their investigations until a thorough study is completed.

Referred to the Committee on Highways.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. BRADLEY, from the Committee on Mines and Mining reported as committed, House Bill No. 2099, entitled

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1184, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand forty-six) entitled "An act appropriating the moneys in the Motor License Fund" by making a portion of the moneys in the Motor License Fund available for administering the law providing reimbursement for hospitals for services to indigent victims of motor vehicle accidents

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.
The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2047, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphet Laws three hundred and ninety-two), entitled "An act providing that highways, or sections thereof, abandoned as State highway routes, shall revert for maintenance to the party or parties responsible for the maintenance of said highways prior to their coming under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways," by making its provisions applicable to abandoned sections of State highways which were formerly State-aid highways, and further providing that abandoned sections of State highways which were formerly parts of turnpikes or toll roads shall be the responsibility of the townships wherein located.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section five hundred and three of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws three hundred forty-three) entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government providing for the settlement assessment collection and lien of taxes bonus and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties affecting every department board commission and officer of the State government every political subdivision of the State and certain officers of such subdivisions every person association and corporation required to pay assess or collect taxes or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth" which was amended by section one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws three hundred eighteen) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 503 Refunds of State Taxes License Fees Et Cetera The Board of Finance and Revenue shall have the power and its duty shall be

(a) To hear and determine any petition for the refund of taxes license fees penalties fines bonus or other moneys alleged to have been paid to the Commonwealth as the result of an error of law or of fact or of both law and fact and upon the allowance of any such petition to refund such taxes license fees penalties fines bonus or other moneys out of any appropriation or appropriations made for the purpose or to credit the account of the person association corporation body politic or public officer entitled to the refund All such petitions must be filed with the board within two years of the payment alleged to have been erroneously made except

(1) When the estate upon which any transfer inheritance tax has been erroneously paid shall have consisted in whole or in part of a partnership or other interest of uncertain value or shall have been involved in litigation by reason whereof there shall have been an overvaluation of that portion of the estate on which the tax has been assessed and paid which overvaluation could not have been ascertained within said period of two years In such case the application for repayment shall be made to the Board of Finance and Revenue within one year from the termination of such litigation or ascertainment of such overvaluation

(2) When a court of record has adjudged a person to be legally dead and thereafter in the settlement of his or her estate a transfer inheritance tax shall have been paid on such estate and after such payment has been made such person shall reappear and the court shall rescind its order and adjudication In such case the petition to the board shall be filed within six months after the court shall have rescined its order and adjudication

(3) When any tax or other money has been paid to the Commonwealth under a provision of an act of Assembly subsequently held by the court of final jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or under an interpretation of such provision subsequently held by such court to be erroneous In such case the petition to the board shall be filed within five years of the payment of which a refund is requested

(b) To hear and determine any petition for the remission of penalties imposed and paid for failure to file any tax or bonus report within the time specified by law If the board be satisfied that the failure to file the report was not wilful that the report was actually filed within forty-five days after it was due and that the tax or bonus exclusive of penalty was paid to the Commonwealth within the time allowed by law for the payment thereof without interest it may allow the petition and refund the amount of the penalty or any part thereof out of any appropriation or appropriations made for the purpose or credit the accounts of the person association corporation body politic or public officer by whom or which the penalty was paid but no such petition shall be considered unless it be filed within two years after the penalty was paid

(c) To hear and determine petitions for the remission of penalties imposed but not paid for failure to file any tax or bonus report within the time specified by law If the board be satisfied that the failure to file the report was not wilful that the report was actually filed within thirty days after it was due and that the tax or bonus exclusive of penalty was paid to the Commonwealth within thirty days after the date when payment of the tax or bonus became due it may strike off the penalty or any part thereof but no such petition shall be considered unless it be filed within two years after the penalty was imposed

(d) All petitions filed under this section shall be in such form as the board shall prescribe.

(e) [The action of the board on all petitions filed under this section shall be final] An appeal from the action of the Board of Finance and Revenue disallowing or refusing a refund or a remission of a penalty under the provisions of this section may be taken within sixty days after the action of the board to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County in the same manner and with like effect as in the case of appeals from tax settlements From the decision of the court of common pleas of Dauphin County an appeal may be taken by either the Commonwealth or the petitioner to the Superior or Supreme Court as in other cases Any refund or remission of a penalty as finally determined by the court shall be paid or credited by the board in like manner as refunds or remissions of penalties allowed by the board are paid or credited

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2177, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the fourth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Act No. 14) entitled "An act validating amicable writs of scire facias to revive municipal claims entered by boroughs and townships of the first class where more than five years have elapsed since the original claims were filed or a prior revival thereof made" providing that certain mortgages shall have priority over such revived municipal claims

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of this bill to explain to the House its provisions?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this House passed and the Governor signed a bill No. 877, providing for the validating of amicable sci. fas. that had been filed after the five year period, but in the passage of that bill we did not protect certain mortgages. There was a condition which arose which was rather embarassing to the Executive department of the administration, and it was necessary to make this amendment. The bill was signed by the Governor on the promise that I would put in a bill making the amendment. This bill is merely making good my promise to the Attorney General's Department and the Governor to make an amendment to a bill that is already an act of this Legislature at the present time.

On the question recurring

Shall the bill pass finally?

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1935 No. 51

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 24, 1935.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. John G. Homsher) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

At this morning hour, Our Father, we deem it proper to offer unto Thee prayer which the men who are being trained for military service in our army pray each week as they worship Thee:

"O God, Thou Searcher of Men's hearts, help us to draw near to Thee in sincerity and truth. May our religion be filled with gladness and may our worship of Thee be natural.

"Strengthen and increase our admiration for honest dealing and clean thinking, and suffer not our hatred of hypocrisy and pretense ever to diminish. Make us choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong, and never to be content with a half-truth when the whole can be won. Endow us with courage that knows no fear when truth and right are in jeopardy.

"Help us to keep ourselves physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

We who are civilians and those who are legislators by thus praying shall be better equipped to maintain the honor of our State and our great Union of States.

Thus lead us daily to live for Thy name's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HUNSICKER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

RESOLUTION RECALLING SENATE BILL NO. 256 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

In the Senate April 24, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), that Senate Bill No. 256, Printer's No. 141, entitled "An act providing for the service of process in civil suits on nonresident operators or nonresident owners or a resident who becomes a nonresident and conceals his whereabouts of aircraft operated within or above the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making the operation of such an aircraft within or above the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the equivalent of the appointment of the Secretary of Revenue of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the agent of the said nonresident upon whom civil process may be served and providing for further notice to the defendant in any such suit", be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WOODWARD, from the Committee on Finance reported as committed, the following Resolution:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, April 22, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Legislatures of the States of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Ohio be respectfully invited to arrange to have their respective Senate and House committees dealing with revenue legislation or sub-committees thereof, meet with the Finance Committee and Ways and Means Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania on May , 1935, for the purpose of discussing uniform revenue legislation to relieve the burden of taxation on real estate;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of each of said states by the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires that concurrent resolutions lie on the table, be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I object.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President. I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, why he objects to the immediate consideration of this resolution.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I would just like an opportunity to think about it a little while.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, all right. Does the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, want to think all the rest of the week about it?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, at least another day.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection and the resolution will lie on the table.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION ON INTERSTATE COOPERATION.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Resolution Serial No. 120, reported from Committee on State Government on April 16th.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 25, 1935.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That there is hereby established the Joint Legislative Commission on Interstate Cooperation, whose function it shall be to perfect the participation of this State in the Council of State Governments, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining governmental machinery to facilitate communication, negotiation, understanding, and cooperation between the State of Pennsylvania and the other states of the Union, both regionally and nationally;

The Commission shall report to the Governor and to the Legislature on the first day of each regular legislative session, and at such other times as it deems proper. Its members shall serve without compensation, but they shall be paid their necessary expenses in carrying out their obligations under this resolution. It may employ a secretary and such other assistants as are needed in the performance of its duties, or it may share the expense of such employment with similar commissions of other states. An item of appropriation shall be inserted in the general appropriation law to pay such expenses and secretarial and clerical assistance;

The said Commission shal be composed of fifteen members, namely:

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate;

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation of the House of Representatives, and

Five officials of the State named by the Governor, one of whom shall be designated by him as the chairman of the Commission;

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall forthwith communicate the text of this measure to the legislature of each of the other states of the Union, with the respectful request that each legislature shall enact a measure similar to this resolution, thus establishing a similar commission with like duties and powers, and thus joining with this State in the common cause of reducing the burdens which are imposed upon our citizens by governmental confusion, competition, and conflict.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I move the adoption of the resolution just read.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I desire to inform the Senate that this resolution was introduced at the request of the American Legislators' Association, an association to which the Senate, some time ago, appropriated $4,000 as a subscribing member. The resolution provides for the appointment of a joint legislative commission on interstate co-operation. I believe that the purpose and motive of this resolution is a very good one, and that it commends itself to the support of every Senator here.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

CONSIDERATION OF THIRD READING BILLS DEFERRED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the consideration of bills on third reading be deferred until Monday and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of bills on second reading.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the Commonwealth and to avoid the danger of fire by requiring the owners operators and lessees of abandoned bituminous coal mines and workings to seal the entries and air shafts thereof and conferring powers upon the Department of Mines to carry into effect the provisions of this act

Whereas, It is a known fact that the combination of exygen and water is necessary to liberate the sulphuric acid content from the pyrites of iron and sulphur in coal seams thus making mine water discharge impure and also that the caving in of pit mouths thus cutting off the air shortly makes the seepage coming from the abandoned mine again pure therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That it shall be the duty of each and every owner operator or lessee of any abandoned bituminous coal mine or abandoned working which is discharging polluted water which flows into any of the streams or rivers of this Commonwealth or which is in danger of being set afire to shoot down or cause to be shot down or otherwise seal or cause to be sealed the entries and air shafts of such abandoned coal mine or working for the purpose of cutting off the supply of air from the abandoned mine or working

Section 2 In case any such owner operator or lessee of any such abandoned bituminous coal mine or working shall fail neglect or refuse to seal or cause to be sealed the openings of the same within sixty days after notice so to do by the Department of Mines it shall be the duty of said Department to enter upon the land or lands where the entries and air shafts to such abandoned mines or workings are located and to shoot down or otherwise seal such openings as provided by this act

Section 3 Where the owner operator or lessee of any such abandoned bituminous coal mine or working is unknown not in being or his or its whereabouts unknown then in such case the Department of Mines is hereby authorized to enter upon the land or lands where the entries and air shafts to such mines or workings are located and shoot down or otherwise seal such openings

Section 4 Upon complaint of any individual or political subdivision whose interests are affected by such polluted mine water discharge it shall be the duty of the Department of Mines to notify the owner operator or lesee of such abandoned coal mine or working and upon his or its failure to shoot down or cause to be shot down or otherwise seal or cause to be sealed the entries of such mines or workings to enter upon the property and perform the work necessary to bring about such sealing as provided for in sections two and three of this act

Section 5 The cost of performing the work necessary to carry out the provisions of this act shall be paid by the Commonwealth from appropriations made to the Department of Mines and/or from such allotments as may be made for this purpose by the relief and/or public works authorities or agencies of the Commonwealth and/or the United States of America

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 603, as follows:

An Act to carry into effect section eleven of article one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by designating the manner the courts and the cases in which suits may be brought against the Commonwealth defining the procedure in such cases and providing for the payment of judgment interest and cost by the Commonwealth

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That suits in assumpsit upon contracts express or implied and suits in trespass for negligence growing out of the construction operation or maintenance of any public work building or highway may be brought against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the court of common pleas in the county in which the cause of action arose or in the county where the seat of government is located and such suits may be prosecuted to final determination subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same limitations as to time as in the case of suits in assumpsit and trespass between individuals Nothing contained in this section however shall be construed to repeal or impair the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act of 1915

Section 2 No action shall be instituted nor cause maintained under the provisions of this act which shall have arisen prior to the date of the approval of this act

Section 3 Process in actions commenced under the provisions of this act shall be served upon the Attorney General or any of his deputies in the same manner and with like effect as in the case of suits between individuals

The Attorney General or any of his deputies are authorized to accept service of any process in any such suit against the Commonwealth The practice and proceedings shall conform in all respects to the laws of this Commonwealth and the rules of court regulating similar cases between individuals

Section 4 In all suits brought under the provisions of this act it shall be incompetent to maintain as a defense that the Commonwealth is a sovereign power and is immune from liability

Section 5 In all cases where final judgment is obtained against the Commonwealth the records of such judgment shall be certified to the Auditor General who shall thereupon draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer for the payment of such judgment interest and costs All such judgments shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated by the General Assembly from time to time for the payment of such judgments

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 735, as follows:

An Act to amend sections nine and fifteen of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 280) entitled "An act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands and prescribing interest charges on nonpayment thereof requiring the receivers and collectors of county city borough town township school district and poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes and providing for the lien thereof authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid and authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances" reducing the amount required to be paid by the person redeeming lands sold at tax sale

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections nine and fifteen of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 280) entitled "An act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands and prescribing interest charges on nonpayment thereof requiring the receivers and colectors of county city borough town township school district and poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes and providing for the lien thereof authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid and authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 9 No sale shall be valid where the taxes and interest have been paid prior to said advertisement or where the taxes interest and costs have been paid after advertisement and before sale or when such taxes are not legally due and collectible No such sale shall discharge the lien of any mortgage which shall have been recorded before such taxes became liens by return and docketing as herein provided and which is or shall be prior to all other liens except other mortgages ground rents municipal claims and/or other taxes and no such sale shall discharge the lien of any ground rent municipal claim or tax remaining unpaid Any real estate sold under this act may be redeemed by the owner his heirs or legal representatives or by any lien creditor or his heirs assigns or legal representatives or by anyone interested in said real estate for the benefit of the owner thereof at any time within two years after such sale by the payment to the county treasurer of the full amount which the purchaser paid to said treasurer for taxes interest and costs and [twenty-five per centum of the amount of tax in addition thereto] interest at the rate of six per centum from the date of sale to the date of redemption In case the purchaser has paid any taxes of any kind whatsoever assessed and levied against said property the same shall be reimbursed to said purchaser before any redemption shall take effect No sale of seated lands for taxes under the provisions of this act shall be prejudiced or defeated by proof that there was personal property to be found on the premises sufficient to pay the taxes assessed thereon nor shall such sale be prejudiced by reason of the fact that such lands so assessed as seated lands were at the time unseated

When any real estate is so sold no lien whatsoever against such real estate shall be deemed to be discharged during the period for redemption but it such real estate is not redeemed then all liens against the same except such liens as are hereinbefore specifically saved shall be deemed to be discharged from the date that the right of redemption expired

When any real estate is so redeemed by a lien creditor or his heirs assigns or legal representatives or by any person interested for the benefit of the owner the county treasurer shall issue to the person redeeming such real estate a certificate stating the fact of such redemption a brief description of the real estate redeemed and the amount of the redemption money paid which certificate may be entered in the office of the prothonotary of the county as a judgment against the owner of the real estate for the amount stated therein The lien of any such judgment shall have priority over all other liens against such real estate except such liens as would not have been discharged had no redemption been made

Section 15 If any owner his heirs or legal representatives or any lien creditor his heirs assigns or legal representatives or other person interested shall within two years after the day such sale was made redeem such real estate for the benefit of the owner by payment of the taxes and interest for which the lands were sold and the costs [with an additional sum of twenty-five per centum] and interest at the rate of six per centum from the date of sale to the date of redemption and any taxes which may have been levied against any such property since the treasurer's sale and which remain unpaid by the owner or redeemer to the county treasurer he shall receive and receipt for the same and pay said taxes interest costs and [additional percentage] interest thereon over to the purchaser upon demand and the accrued taxes to the district entitled thereto and the county treasurer shall forthwith acknowledge the receipt of the redemption moneys upon the margin of the acknowledment of the treasurer's deed as the same is entered and recorded in the prothonotary's office as aforesaid and if said deed has been recorded in the office for recording of deeds cause an entry to be made on the margin of the record of the deed in the office of the recorder of deeds by marking thereon the word "redeemed" which shall be signed by the county treasurer and attested by the recorder of deeds and thereafter said deed shall be void and of no effect If such deed be not recorded then such owner or person interested as aforesaid shall be entitled to have the treasurer's deed delivered to such owner creditor heir assign legal representative or persons interested for cancellation The county treasurer shall certify all such redemptions to the boards of county commissioners who shall enter the same on the Tax Return Docket and who shall certify such redemptions to the county assessors so that the property may thereafter be assessed in the name of the owner

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 1055) entitled "An act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts instead of imposing sentences the appointment of probation and parole officers and the payment of their salaries and expenses regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases and providing for their release on parole their conviction of crime during parole and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries" as amended making possible the concurrent sentencing of persons convicted of more than one offense in certain cases

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section six of the act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 1055) entitled "An act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts instead of imposing sentences the appointment of probation and parole officers and the payment of their salaries and expenses regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases and providing for their release on parole their conviction of crime during parole and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries" as amended by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 975) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 6 Whenever any person convicted in any court of this Commonwealth of any crime punishable by imprisonment in a State penitentiary shall be sentenced to imprisonment therefor in any penitentiary or other institution of this State or in any county or municipal institution the court instead of pronouncing upon such a convict a definite or fixed term of imprisonment shall pronounce upon such convict a sentence of imprisonment for an indefinite term Stating in such sentence the minimum and maximum limits thereof and the maximum limit shall never exceed the maximum time now or hereafter prescribed as a penalty for such offense and the minimum limit shall never exceed one-half of the maximum sentence prescribed by any court

Provided That if such person shall have been convicted or called for sentence at the same time for another offense or other offenses not punishable by imprisonment in a State penitentiary and the sentencing court desires to impose both or all penalties to run concurrently or consecutively it shall be lawful in such cases for the court to impose such sentences for imprisonment in the same institution regardless of existing statutory provisions governing the lesser offenses

And provided That nothing herein contained shall be construed to derogate from the power of the judges of the courts of quarter sessions and of the courts of oyer and terminer or other court of record having jurisdiction of the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth after due inquiry to release on parole any convict confined in the county jail house of correction or workhouse of their respective districts as provided in section one of an act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 1059) entitled "An act extending the powers of judges of courts of quarter sessions and of oyer and terminer in relation to releasing prisoners in jails and workhouses on parole" its amendments and supplements And provided further That no person sentenced for an indeterminate term shall be entitled to any benefits under the act entitled "An act providing for the commutation of sentences for good behavior of convicts in prisons penitentiaries workhouses and county jails in this State and regulations governing the same" approved the eleventh day of May Anno Domino one thousand nine hundred and one

And provided further That before any parole shall be granted pursuant to the terms hereof notice of an intention so to do shall be given at least ten days prior thereto by the board of prison inspectors to the judge of the county who imposed the sentence if he be still in office but otherwise to the judge or judges of the court of oyer and terminer or the court of quarter sessions then in session or if there be no current term then to the next ensuing term thereof and having jurisdiction of cases of the like character Similar notices shall also be given to the district attorney then in office in said county

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

MEMORIAL IN HONOR OF BRIGADIER-GENERAL CASIMIR PULASKI

He also informed the Senate that the House had concurred in Resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, January 14, 1935.

Whereas, in the course of the Revolutionary War and at a time when the American forces were in great need of assistance, there arrived in this county, among others, a nobleman of Polish birth, to wit, Casimir Pulaski, and

Whereas, the service rendered by him was of great value and assistance to the cause of American independence and of such high importance that on September 15, 1777, he was appointed Brigadier-General of the Continental Army and Chief of Dragoons, and on March 28, 1778, he was designated commander of an independent corps known as "Pulaski's Legion," and

Whereas, it is the sense and feeling of the members of the Polish Union of the United States of North America, a fraternal benefit society, with headquarters in the City of Wilkes-Barre, and with a membership of over 50,000 members, that proper permanent recognition should be given to the memory of Brigadier-General Casimir Pulaski, whose illustrious service in the war for American Independence is well-known to all who are familiar with our history.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania be requested to take the necessary and proper steps for erecting and constructing some permanent memorial in honor of Brigadier-General Casimir Pulaski at some suitable location associated with the struggle of the American forces for independence.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PURCHASE OF POTATOES BY EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on State Government:

House of Representatives, April 24, 1935.

Whereas, potatoes are one of the most important cash crops of Pennsylvania farmers, and

Whereas, Pennsylvania is one of the five leading potato growing states; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that it is the sense of the General Assembly that the State Emergency Relief Board continue its policy of buying potatoes grown in Pennsylvania for Pennsylvania relief needs.

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED TO PASS LEGISLATION, GIVING FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CONTROL OVER MUNITION PLANTS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, January 21, 1935.

During those days when democracy was at stake and a fevered urge of patriotism caused Americans to buy liberty bonds until it hurt, in order that this Nation might throw into the balance that weight of arms that was needed to turn the tide of victory against the Hohenzollerns, there were those here at home who grew fat on the sacrifices made by their countrymen.

While American youth was shot to pieces on the battlefields of France, the fortunes of munition makers in America grew and grew.

Profits here kept far ahead of sacrifices over there, and the dangers there faced and the trials there endured and the misery there suffered but added to the vast sums that made rich and kept safe the unconscionable profiteers at home.

Late investigations of the earnings of munition plants during the war have revealed that of which no one even dreamed.

That men and corporations could so profit on patriotism and take and take while others were giving and giving was never conceived.

If love of country will not prevent seemingly high-minded citizens from enriching themselves at the cost of their fellow men, then the government must step in and substitute its power for their utter lack of conscience; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives of this General Assembly of the Commonwealth hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to pass legislation to make impossible the profits heretofore enjoyed by munition makers by giving to the Federal Government rigid control over munition plants and the power to operate such plants, either in peace or war times, and to at once direct the undertaking and carrying on of a thorough and detailed study of a plan for industrial mobilization during periods of war in order to make excess profits to corporations and individuals impossible in the future; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the presiding officers of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States with the request that the same be read and then be referred to the proper committees for immediate action.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING FUNDS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF MUNICIPAL SEWAGE TREATMENT WORKS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

In the House of Representatives, April 24, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government has created a fund of $4,000,000,000 for Public Works to relieve unemployment; and

Whereas, The Conservationists and sportsmen of Pennsylvania are urging the control and gradual elimination of stream pollution; and

Whereas, It is of importance to the health and welfare of the people of the Commonwealth that the streams be relieved of the waste and poison which is now polluting them; and

Whereas, The construction of municipal sewage disposal plants is one of the desired steps in purifying the streams and of relieving filtration plants of excess loads; and

Whereas, Because of the limitation upon their borrowing capacity and the large amount of delinquent taxes, it is impossible for many municipalities to proceed with the desired construction of sewage treatment works; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Federal authorities be requested to allocate to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such sum or sums as it may find upon investigation, to be necessary for the construction of municipal sewage treatment works and that such sums be requested as outright grants in order to enable such municipalities to proceed with these improvements.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Public Works Administration by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Mr. BUCKMAN from the Committee on Highways reported as committed, the following Resolution, which was laid upon the table:

In the House of Representatives, March 19, 1935.

Whereas, Under existing law the township supervisors in townships of the second class will be required to fix the annual tax levies for road and street purposes for their respective townships for the year 1935, on or before March 25, 1935, and

Whereas, It appears that sufficient time may not remain to enact suitable legislation before the said date to allocate to the townships the unencumbered balance of funds appropriated to the Department of Highways for expenditure in townships of the second class, under the provisions of the Parkinson Act approved June 3, 1933, P. L. 1520, and

Whereas, It is the intention of the General Assembly to enact such legislation in order to secure to the owners of real estate, relief from the burden of taxation; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly hereby authorizes and requests the township supervisors in all townships of the second class to reduce road tax levies for the year 1935, if any are to be made, as compared to the 1932 road tax levies, in the approximate amount of the allocation of funds to be made to them for expenditure in 1935 as herein set forth; the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation to provide for the allocation and payment to the various townships of the second class for expenditure for general road and bridge purposes, of the unencumbered balance as of April 1, 1935, of the funds allocated by the Department of Highways for expenditure under the terms of the above cited Parkinson Act, exclusive of the sum of $2,365,000, heretofore, transferred to the General Fund for relief purposes; the amount of such allocation to be approximately $4,400,000; the allocation of such funds to the various townships of the second class to be made on the basis of the number of miles of Township Roads in each township bears in proportion to the total mileage of Township Roads in all townships of the second class and shall provide for payment of the funds so allocated in three equal installments on June 15th, September 15th and December 15th, 1935; such payment to be made only to townships which reduce their 1933 tax levy in accordance with the intent of this resolution; and to provide further that townships which levied no tax in 1932 shall receive an allocation on the basis of $50 per mile of public highway under the jurisdiction of such township, and that the Courts, in order to effectuate the tax relief intended by this legislation, may make appropriate changes in any agreements which have been made and approved under the provisions of existing laws for the maintenance and construction of township roads by taxpayers.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 24, 1935

The House met at 11:00 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Frank W. Ruth, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Our dear Lord and Redeemer we come to Thee this morning with our hearts filled with gratitude that Thou has given us another day to do Thy will. We pray that Thy Holy Spirit may evolve from our hearts desire that We may live in a house by the side of the road
and be a friend to man

The men who are good and the men who are bad
As good and as bad as I.
We would not sit in the scorner's seat
Nor hurl the cynic's ban.
Let us live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Amen.

L. 736), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder," by making the present schedules of compensation compulsory upon all employers; changing, adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation; requiring appeals heretofore taken to the courts of common pleas to be filed directly with the Superior Court and conferring jurisdiction upon such court to hear such appeals; prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence; increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurors; conferring certain duties upon the prothonotary of the Superior Court, and certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry; imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers, including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system; providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents; imposing new and changing certain existing penalties; and generally amending, clarifying and changing the provisions of said act.

Mr. ALLEN, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1035, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four, seven and nine of the act approved the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (P. L. 223, 1933-34), entitled "An act providing compensation to certain persons who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the World War, the war between the United States and Spain, the China Relief Expedition, or in the Philippines or Guam; providing the method of making payment to representatives of persons who, because of death or incapacity, cannot personally receive compensation; imposing certain duties on the Adjutant General; making an appropriation; and repealing inconsistent legislation; and providing penalties," clarifying certain service requirements of eligibility for compensation, stipulating the time within which applications shall be made, and rendering certain additional classes eligible to receive compensation.

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. MENTZER, returned from the Committee on Banking with the recommendation that it be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General, House Bill No. 2247, entitled:

An act with reference to trust receipts and pledges of personal property unaccompanied by possession in the pledge and to make uniform the law with reference thereto.

The SPEAKER. The bill is now re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. WOODSIDE, returned from the Committee on Education with the recommendation that it be re-referred to the Committee on Elections, House Bill No. 2574, entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 360), entitled "An act providing for the opening of ballot boxes after general, municipal, special, or primary elections, upon petition to the court of common pleas, or a judge thereof, under certain circumstances, and imposing certain duties in connection therewith upon the court, the prothonotary, and the county treasurer;" providing for the opening of ballot boxes by the court on petition where the court is of the opinion that by reason of the closeness of the vote the recount may change the result; and providing the procedure in such cases.

The SPEAKER. The bill is now re-referred to the Committee on Elections.

SENATE MESSAGE

The SPEAKER laid before the House an extract from the Journal of the Senate, Senate Resolution Serial No. 103, which was reported from the Committee on Military Affairs as committed.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, January 14, 1935.

Whereas in the course of the Revolutionary War and at a time when the American forces were in great need of assistance, there arrived in this country, among others, a nobleman of Polish birth, to wit, Casimir Pulaski, and

Whereas, The service rendered by him was of great value and assistance to the cause of American independence and of such high importance that on September 15, 1777, he was appointed Brigadier-General of the Continental Army and Chief of Dragoons, and on March 28, 1778, he was designated commander of an independent corps known as "Pulaski's Legion," and

Whereas, It is the sense and feeling of the members of the Polish Union of the United States of North America, a fraternal benefit society, with headquarters in the City of Wilkes-Barre, and with a membership of over 50,000 members, that proper permanent recognition should be given to the memory of Brigadier-General Casimir Pulaski, whose illustrious service in the war for American Independence is well-known to all who are familiar with our history.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania be requested to take the necessary and proper steps for erecting and constructing some permanent memorial in honor of Brigadier-General Casimir Pulaski at some suitable location associated with the struggle of the American forces for independence.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication which was read by the Clerk.

UNITED STATES SENATE COMMITTEE ON NAVAL AFFAIRS

Washington, D. C., April 20, 1935.

Mr. W. P. Gallagher,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Mr. Gallagher:

This acknowledges in the absence of Senator Davis the resolution adopted by the Pennsylvania General Assembly urging the President to approve legislation which would set October 11 aside as a Memorial Day to General Pulaski.

The measure passed both houses of Congress, but was vetoed by the President April 15. A movement is afoot to reintroduce the bill or pass the disapproved measure over the President's veto.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) FRANK K. BOAL,
Secretary to Senator Davis.

The SPEAKER. The communication will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Legislative Journal.

RESOLUTIONS

PUBLIC WORKS APPROPRIATION REQUESTED

Mr. TURNER offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 24, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government has created a fund of $4,000,000,000 for Public Works to relieve unemployment; and

Whereas, The conservationists and sportsmen of Pennsylvania are urging the control and gradual elimination of stream pollution; and

Whereas, It is of importance to the health and welfare of the people of the Commonwealth that the streams be relieved of the waste and poison which is now polluting them; and

Whereas, The construction of municipal sewage disposal plants is one of the desired steps in purifying the streams and of relieving filtration plants of excess loads; and

Whereas, Because of the limitation upon their borrowing capacity and the large amount of delinquent taxes, it is impossible for many municipalities to proceed with the desired construction of sewage treatment works; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Federal authorities be requested to allocate to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such sum or sums as it may find upon investigation, to be necessary for the construction of municipal sewage treatment works and that such sums be requested as outright grants in order to enable such municipalities to proceed with these improvements.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Public Works Administration by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD TO BUY PENNSYLANIA POTATOES

Mr. WESTRICK offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

Whereas, Potatoes are one of the most important cash crops of Pennsylvania farmers and

Whereas, Pennsylvania is one of the five leading potato growing states, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the State Emergency Relief Board continue its policy of buying potatoes grown in Pennsylvania for Pennsylvania relief needs.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 129

Mr. SHREINER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 129, Printer's No. 770.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1935.

Whereas, It is the firm belief of most Pennsylvanians that moneys expended for unemployment relief within this Commonwealth, from whatever source, should be to the greatest degree possible in the form of work relief; and

Whereas, It is equally generally held that such work relief should be, whenever possible, employed in the construction of permanent and lasting improvements beneficial to all citizens; and

Whereas, One of the most important and costliest of all financial burdens upon this Commonwealth and the political sub-divisions thereof is the furnishing and maintenance of proper highway transportation facilities; and

Whereas, It is believed and hoped that a great portion of such work relief contributions from both Federal and State agencies will be expended in the dual capacity of relieving this burden and furnishing employment; and

Whereas, Modern conditions render increasingly necessary not only additional highways but highways of proper width, construction and design; and

Whereas, The construction of narrow or temporary highways is dangerous and uneconomical in view of the present day tremendous vehicular demands upon such highways; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that the authorities, both State and National, charged with distribution of work relief moneys, be requested to insist that the portions of such moneys expended in the construction of highways in this Commonwealth which are portions of the primary system of highways be constructed so as to safely support and allow at least three lanes of traffic

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?
It was adopted.

RESOLUTION NO. 16

Mr. WASSERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 16, Printer's No. 705.

The Resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 21, 1935.

During those days when democracy was at stake and fevered urge of patriotism caused Americans to buy liberty bonds until it hurt in order that this Nation might throw into the balance that weight of arms that was needed to turn the tide of victory against the Hohenzollerns there were those at home who grew fat on the sacrifices made by their countrymen.

While American youth was shot to pieces on the battlefields of France the fortunes of munition makers in America grew and grew

Profits here kept far ahead of sacrifices over there and the dangers there faced and the trials there endured and the misery there suffered but some had added to the vast sums that made them rich and kept them safe in the position to profit thereby of late investigations of the earnings of munition plants during the war have revealed that of which no one even dreamed

That men and corporations could so profit on patriotism and take and take while others were giving and giving was never conceived.

If love of country will not prevent seemingly highminded citizens from enriching themselves at the cost of their fellow men then the government must step in and substitute its power for their utter lack of conscience therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur) That the Senate and House of Representatives of this General Assembly of the Commonwealth hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to pass legislation to make impossible the profits heretofore enjoyed by munition makers by giving to the Federal Government rigid control over munition plants and the power to operate such plants either in peace or war times and to at once direct the undertaking and carrying on of a thorough and detailed study of a plan for industrial mobilization during periods of war in order to make excess profits to corporations and individuals impossible in the future and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the presiding officers of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States with the request that the same be read and then be referred to the proper committees for immediate action

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?
It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO SIT DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Law and Order be granted permission to sit during the session of the House.

The motion was agreed to.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. BERNHARD

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Republican and Democratic members of the House will settle their differences on the baseball diamond on the Island, the home grounds of the "Senators" in the very near future, probably the middle of May. The proceeds of the game to go to the interest of the Harrisburg Welfare Federation.

We have been in touch with Mr. Carter Taylor, Director, who suggests as follows:

"It has been my thought that there would be no organized sale of tickets, but that an announcement should be made about the game and let those come who are interested."

We are going to ask the local papers to give the game as much publicity as possible so as to stimulate interest in the game.

CONSENT REQUESTED TO READ EDITORIAL

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House to have an editorial read.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the reading of the editorial? Are there objections?

Mr. DENNING. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. HALUSKA

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, in regard to the baseball game I want to ask the members of the House to indicate the positions they play and notify me by next Monday in order to make up my team.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to explain to the House the misleading report that has gone out over the A. P. wire with regard to the intention of certain bills which I introduced in this House.

I have a clipping from my home-town newspaper over the malicious and misleading caption, "Kent Kane Says Work or Starve." Ladies and gentlemen of this House, I have voted in favor of every bill which has been presented in this House that I have felt was genuinely in the interest of the laboring class. I am proud of the fact that in my own community that I have an employer who has increased the number of people on his payroll and the wages of many of those people through this depression.

I am very proud of the fact that I have spent a good deal of my small personal fortune before the government commenced unemployment relief, in the establishment of what I considered useless meritorious projects in order to provide for the working people of my community.

The last day for the dead-line for the introduction of bills before the Assembly, I had a number of bills in Mr. Fertig's office to be drawn up, and in order to save his time and to get the bills in I had drawn up by other stenographers, not subject to his careful scrutiny and and advice, three bills for the purpose of enabling municipalities, townships, third class cities, and so forth to utilize the services of able bodied male citizens 18 years of age or over on various projects which did not require skilled labor, and be paid therefor certain wages which were to be in addition to any amount which they received from public relief. I did this for the reason that there has been widespread comment on the present situation.

I agree very whole heartedly with the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that we cannot continue to keep large parts of our population on the starvation subsistence that they have been subjected to on relief.

I also feel that the Commonwealth cannot afford nor can the Federal Government afford forever to expend large sums of money to keep persons who will pay nothing back to the community which furnishes that money.

It was my idea that if something could be done with these people to let their services be used, and those who were able-bodied to be employed for a short number of hours, to work 30 hours a week, on work which did not displace anybody working now, on work which would tend to give other people employment later by helping to establish new things that the community should do as cheaply as possible, and yet those people should not be deprived from the public subsistence which they now receive.

I did pay sufficient attention to these bills to specifically provide that even though an able-bodied male who was employed and who refuses such employment could be taken off relief, that nevertheless the benefits of public relief would be continued on for his family, so that it could not be said that the laziness of a father should work to the injury of the children, as is the case now when the man is taken off the relief for various reasons.

I am sorry, so often it seems to be necessary for the gentlemen of the press to leap into print with versions of bills introduced by members of this House before those bills have even been assigned to committee.

I inquired of persons whom I thought were well informed from experience in this House as to when I would have an opportunity to consult persons better informed than I, with a view to amending those bills or putting them in such form that they would be of benefit, and in no case would be detrimental, and was told that this could not be done until they got into Committee, and I understand that they have just gotten there now.

Nevertheless, there has been this comment thereon while they were in this sketchy form as they were drawn up by a private stenographer in order that we would have a frame work ahead of the deadline on which the members of this House hang such amendments as they may choose to carry out the fundamental idea, that people could be employed without being taken off the relief, or their families being taken off the relief, and that employment could be turned into channels where it did not replace other people but it did help the municipalities which furnished money.

I have never said, members of the House, at any time, publicly or privately, that people should work or starve. Anybody that knows me in my county, and those who have met me down here I am sure now that I would be willing to sacrifice the last garment on my back before I would see anybody starve, no matter how worthless they were. I would like, members of the House, on account of this thing, to call this specific item to your attention and request that every one of you give your attention to this important item, to try to figure out and utilize by the means I have provided you, some method of providing these people employment for which they will be paid in addition to the amount that they get on relief, but to keep those amounts sufficiently within reason so that you can answer the objections of the authorities who say, "Our town is very poor; we haven't much money; we would like to take advantage of this bill but we can't do it."

My intention, I assure you, members of this House, is only to provide these people with an opportunity to render some service of value to help them keep their self-respect, and to improve the condition of the Commonwealth, if we don't do anything else during this depression.

I thank you for listening to me. No man is able to do himself full justice when he is mad, but I would like nothing better than to be introduced to anybody who states that I might say that men should work or starve. If you do that you will be conferring a great favor upon me.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the journal.

SENATE MESSAGE

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. FITCH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I only have this to say, that to my mind this is a fine procedure to take. This puts me in mind of a mariner who has been tossed for many days in thick weather in an unknown sea. He naturally avails himself of the first pause in the storm, to get his first glance at the sun and take his reckoning to see how far he has been driven from his true course. With that thought in mind I would ask the Chair to have Rule 72 read to the members for their information.

The SPEAKER. At the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Fitch, the Chair will read Rule 72 for the information of the House:

"A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the House shall disclose the fact to the House and shall not vote thereon, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 33."

Does that give the gentleman the information he desires?

Mr. FITCH. Yes, Mr. Speaker. Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a serious proposition, the holding up of decent legislation. Remember that there are forty-two states in the Union that allow this practice. The District of Columbia also allows it by an act of Congress.

I want to call your attention to a statement made by John Clark Ridpath, probably the greatest historian of all times and an American. He said "The privileged classes have no conscience on the subject of their privilege. History does not add us one instance in which a nobility or even a monopoly entrenched in precedent and custom has ever voluntarily made restitution to society of the rights of which she has been despoiled. The iron jaw which closes on the marrow bone of privilege has never been known to relax until it is broken."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on the motion. He is now discussing the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman from Philadelphia will confine himself to the motion to recommit.

Mr. FITCH. Mr. Speaker, in the second place I want to call attention to another rule of this House. For the information of the members I would like the Chair to read Rule 43 of this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair at the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Fitch, will read for the information of the House, Rule 43, which is as follows:

"When bills on first reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar and announce each bill in the order in which it appears on the calendar. They shall be severally read at length, and agreed to without amendment or debate, and journalized accordingly. No bill after it has once been reported from committee shall be recommitted until it has been read the first time."

Mr. FITCH. Mr. Speaker, if I understand the English language, I believe that that covers the point. I believe the intent of the framers of this rule was that on the first reading of a bill it should go over and on second reading the opportunity for debate—

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia that the bill has been read for the first time. It has passed first reading.

Mr. FITCH. There might be a difference of opinion, Mr. Speaker. I also have in mind that this bill, the interpretation, as I see it, was that the bill should go over to second reading. Be that as it may, however, I appeal to the fairness of the members. In all my life I have always found that the American people can be depended upon to do the right thing at the right time. I have called your attention to certain interests, and I ask you in all fairness—all two hundred and eight of you—not to be hidebound. I ask you as members representing the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to give this health measure a decent chance.

If under the present ruling I cannot speak on the merits of the bill, still I think I have the right to ask for a roll call.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this motion to recommit and especially to recommit this bill in such a ridiculous manner to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation. This would mean that we would have a body of people practicing a profession and illegally so in the state of Pennsylvania. As Mr. Fitch has stated, there are 42 states at the present time including the District of Columbia——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I again rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Mifflin, Mr. Alexander, is not speaking on the motion to recommit but is discussing the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was of the opinion that the gentleman was discussing the motion to recommit. The Chair feels that the remarks of the gentleman from Mifflin are relative to the motion. The gentleman from Mifflin, therefore, will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that inasmuch as there was at the same time reported out of the Committee on Education a bill which has to do with the undertaking business, which has met with the approval of the committee and has met with the approval of a great many members of the House that in order to legalize those men who are operating, they should be given a chance to be heard on the floor of this House and that the bill should come before the members of this House. I feel that it is an injustice to those who are following that profession to have this bill recommitted in such a manner. I, therefore, would ask the members of this House to vote that this bill shall stay on the floor, and then if they see fit to vote against this bill that will be their opportunity, but I say in all fairness to the people who are practising this profession that we should allow the bill to remain on the floor of this House.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the maker of this motion.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Eroe, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EROE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NAGEL. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, the maker of this motion, tell this House the object of moving to recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation?

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not only a licensing measure but is a health measure and, as I understand it, the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation was organized in this House to protect the health and sanitation of the people of this State. I, therefore, think that it is proper, inasmuch as this bill does affect the health and sanitation of the people of this state, that the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation should have a right to consider this bill and study it.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 494 has been before the Committee on Education for a number of weeks. It was objected to by certain members of the committee and it was objected to because of certain things, certain parts of the bill that did not measure up to their ideals of qualifications by way of education. This bill in a meeting of the Committee on Education was amended so as to bring it up to the requirements suggested. I cannot see why a move is made at this time to put this bill back in another committee, where its progress may be retarded. We must suspect that it must be some professional move to tie this bill up further in committee. It is an insult to the intelligence of the Committee on Education who by a majority vote have reported this bill out on the floor of the House, to question their ability to judge the merits of the bill, and I am, therefore, opposed to placing this bill back in committee. I say leave it on the floor and if it is licked on the floor I am willing to go down with it.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, House Rule 43, which you read for the sponsor of this bill a short time ago states that a bill is not debatable on first reading. You also stated, Mr. Speaker, that the bill had passed first reading and that, therefore, the motion was in order.

I would like to ask the Speaker of the House, as a question of information, is it not a fact that after a bill has passed first reading before it is debatable, before any question on that bill is debatable, one full legislative day must pass?

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not get the last sentence of the gentleman's question.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that one legislative day must pass on a bill on first reading before it is debatable or before it comes up for second reading?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read an extract from Rule 42 for the information of the House:

"Every bill and every joint resolution shall be read at length on three different days." Therefore, a full legislative day must pass before the bill can be considered on second reading. Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. MORAN. Then, Mr. Speaker, this motion is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to read for the information of the House, Rule 15:

"No business regularly before the House shall be interrupted, except by motion—

For adjournment.

For the previous question, namely "Shall the main question be now put?"

For postponement.

For commitment;"

Therefore a motion for commitment is a privileged motion and is in order and that is supported by Rule 54 of the House which the Chair will now read:

"A motion for postponement shall preclude commitment. A motion for commitment shall preclude amendment or decision on the original subject."

Therefore the motion to recommit is in order.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I think this motion is a very unfair motion, and I also think that the motion is made to put class legislation before this House. I would ask the members of this House to vote "no" on the motion.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Van SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Northampton will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Van SICKLE. Mr. Speaker, isn't this bill on second reading.

The SPEAKER. Not until a full legislative day has passed.

Mr. Van SICKLE. Then, Mr. Speaker, if it is not now on second reading it must, of necessity, be on first reading, isn't that so?

The SPEAKER. This bill has already been agreed to on first reading.

Mr. Van SICKLE. But it has not yet reached its second reading, isn't that correct, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. It has not yet passed second reading.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, under the rules, therefore, wouldn't this motion to recommit be out of order?

The SPEAKER. The motion is in order under the Rules.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. FITCH and Mr. WELLIVER and were as follows:

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman wil state his question of pariamentary inquiry.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to ask how the members are recorded who failed to answer to their names when called?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Washington, that those who answered to their names will be recorded and those did not answer will not be recorded.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, according to or rules and the Constitution, is not a member required to answer to his name?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask that those members who did not answer to their names be required to do so.

The SPEAKER. That is a matter for a member themselves to decide. So far as the Chair knows all the members present have voted.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2380, entitled:

An Act authorizing certain persons having charge of certain banking institutions which are in the process of liquidation and which have been surrendered by the Secretary of Banking to borrow money from certain agencies of the United States Government

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks will state his point of order.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is trying to place amendments in this bill which were contained in a former bill that was reported out negatively, which is prohibited under Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution and Rule 46 of this House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, raised the point of order that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, is trying to amend House Bill 1473 in violation of Rule No. 46. The Chair will read Rule 46 for the benefit of the House:

"No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto, or incorporating therewith, any other bill or resolution pending before the House, nor shall a motion or proposition be entertained under color of such an amendment; nor shall any bill or resolution be amended by substituting therefore, under a motion to strike out, or otherwise any other bill or resolution on a subject different from that under consideration, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 1."

The Chair will also read for the information of the House Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution—the exact language of the Constitution being:

"Section 1. No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended, on its passage through either House, as to change its original purpose."

The Chair also reads for the information of the members of the House, 459 of Jefferson's Manual:

"House rather than Speaker shall decide on the legislative effect of a proposition—consistency of amendments is not a question of order."

Therefore, the Chair submits the question to the House on the point of order raised by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

On the question,

Will the House sustain the point of order raised by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the amendments that I have offered are different from Bill 1361. Bill 1361 did not impose as large a rate of taxes on the different classes as these amendments propose, and therefore, the amendments are entirely different. The amendments are germane to the bill.

The bill is evidently intended to raise revenue by taxation of incomes and the amendments put a rate of fourteen and a half per cent on all incomes above one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, while the bill has a rate of but eight per cent on all incomes above one hundred thousand dollars.

There are approximately only ninety-one persons in Pennsylvania with incomes of one hundred fifty thousand dollars and over and the aggregate income is approximately five per cent of the total income of the people of Pennsylvania.

It seems to me that it is right and proper—and the amendments are germane—that ninety-one persons in Pennsylvania having five per cent of the total income ought not to complain about paying a fourteen and one-half per cent income tax on that size of income. Besides there is nothing wrong about it, because the very Bible that my friend from Berks preaches from provides for a tithe of ten per cent of a man's income to be set aside for sacred purposes and that is right and proper.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you want to have an income tax bill, you want to pass one that will stand the test of constitutionality. I submit to you that the bill as drawn will not stand up in the Supreme Court. The bill can be amended as is proposed by this amendment and it will then stand up in the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court has ruled that you cannot graduate taxes. That was ruled in Cope's Estate, but in the Commonwealth vs. Girard Life Insurance Company case, decided approximately ten years after Cope's Estate, a rule is laid down by the Supreme Court which will permit us to enact an income tax law and that rule is set forth in the words that the objects of taxation may be classified and then being classified, a different tax may be imposed on different classes.

If the House adopts this amendment, it does not ruin this bill, it improves the bill, it will better its chances in the Supreme Court. As the bill is written, it will have less chance of being sustained. If this House means to go on record for an income tax, it wants a decision as quickly as it can be obtained.

A subsequent amendment provides for the tax to be placed on 1934. The bill provides for the tax on 1935 and probably cannot reach the Court until the year 1937. If the amendments that I am submitting prevail then the case can be brought into court immediately. If you are for the immediate disposition of the question of the constitutionality of income tax legislation, you will vote for the amendments. If you are for delaying the program and the issue then you will vote against these amendments and vote for the bill as it stands, and then the case cannot be decided until the year 1937.

I ask the membership of this House to vote for these amendments, to vote for this proposition, so that the Supreme Court can dispose of this question before 1937 and dispose of it this year.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I still insist that the gentleman is trying to amend House Bill No. 1361 into this bill because in that bill he classified incomes, and I again rise to the point of order that the amendments are out of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I understand the question, which will now be placed by the Speaker before the House, it is whether or not the amendments will be considered or whether they shall not be considered upon the point of order raised by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth. I shall confine my remarks to that question and not to the merits or demerits of the amendment.

It is my thought that we should meet the issue that is confronting us in these amendments and not endeavor to duck a vote upon those amendments by raising a constitutional question at this time.

It appears to me that the changing of this fund from school purposes to the general fund is not a type of amendment that is endeavoring to foist upon you some other bill. You have a right to insist upon these amendments being defeated or you have the right to pass them. I think it is an important question. The important question is whether or not the moneys derived from an income tax shall go into the general fund. I cannot understand why the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is fearful of a vote upon that question. I believe that bringing into play Rule 46 is an attempt to stop the members of this House from expressing their opinion upon a particular question. I believe that it is not in line with the statement made by the Democratic members of this House at the beginning of the session and then, hereafter forgotten, that there was going to be not attempt to stifle, no attempt to gag, no attempt to prevent freedom of thought or freedom of speech. I believe that the point of order now raised is a deliberate attempt by the Democratic majority of this House to prevent the membership of this House from having an opportunity of stating whether or not they are for or against a particular amendment. These particular amendments in my opinion, without going into them at length, merely change the purpose of the bill insofar as to where the moneys derived thereunder shall go, but that is not changing the purpose of the bill itself. The purpose of the bill is to raise revenue by taxation, and the only thing that the amendments do is to say where the moneys raised thereby shall be deposited and for what purpose they shall be used and that certainly is not changing the bill. So I ask the Democratic members of this House—and I know they won't—to permit us to put this question. They have already told us that they will not stifle and they will not gag this House from voting upon particular amendments, but I submit it is purely a gag they raise this point of order. I therefore ask the members of this House to permit a vote upon these amendments. Let us not duck the issue.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you not to allow any partisan politics to influence your decision on this bill. I ask you to join with me in an honest effort to have a constitutional income tax bill.

If you are not for all of the amendments that I offer, then I ask you to be for that one which will best present a test case in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania on an income tax.

Let me read to you that clause of the Constitution that is used as a basis of an argument against a graduated income tax. The Constitution reads this way, "All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects."

Now in the bill as it is written the subject is income. In the bill if it is amended as I propose, then the subject is divided into classes of income, so that you can see by that classification you come within this clause of the Constitution and the bill would then be constitutional. Let me read that to you again:

"All taxes shall be uniform, upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws."

The authority that is cited for income tax purposes is Cope's Estate in 191 Pennsylvania Supreme Court reports, that was decided some ten or thirteen years ago. Within the last four years there came before the Supreme Court the case of the Commonwealth vs. The Girard Life Insurance Company, 305 Pa. 562, and the Supreme Court said in disposing of that case:

Courts, federal and state, whether construing one or other constitutional provision, have determined that the objects of taxation may be classified. Our Constitution expressly so provides "shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects."

Under both "due process" and "equal protection" proper classification is usually a determining factor in passing upon the validity of tax legislation * * * There is a guiding principle which runs through all of them: Is there such a difference between the entity taxed and the one not levied upon, with relation to the act in respect to which the classification is proposed, as justified the legislature is fixing the classes which it did? If there is, the statutory provision is valid if not, it is void. * * * The fact that a statute discriminates in favor of a certain class does not make it arbitrary, if the discrimination is founded upon a reasonable distinction. * * * A very wide discretion must be conceded to the legislative power of the state in the classification of trades, callings, businesses or occupations which may be subjected to special form of regulation or taxation through an exercise or license tax. If the selection or classification is neither capricious nor arbitrary, and rests upon some reasonable consideration of difference or policy, there is no denial of the equal protection of the law.

Is it not better to follow the form of the Constitution than to follow a form that has been passed upon and found wanting? Is it not better to go to the Supreme Court with a brand new proposition of classification and give that Supreme Court an opportunity to hold an income tax constitutional?

I submit to you, members of the House, that the amendment that is now in question—I am not talking about the other amendments that will follow later on; you may have a different view on those—will give this bill the form of constitutionality, will give our Attorney General the best case we can give him. I believe that the Supreme Court will say of the classification provided in the amendment, "in order to equitably and justly distribute the burden of taxes upon the people and having regard to the individual needs of the various taxpayers and their ability to maintain themselves and pay a state income tax, the Legislature hereby classifies incomes into different classes and imposes said income tax annually upon the net income as defined in this act upon each class." I believe that with the bill as amended, as provided in this amendment, the Attorney General will have a winning case.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the members well know that the purpose of this bill is to reduce real estate and school millage in the local districts. It has been, as I understand it, a principle of both the Republican and Democratic parties to reduce real estate taxation. If we accept the amendments as offered, the entire purpose of the bill will be changed. I, therefore, feel that the objection raised by Mr. Ruth is a valid objection and that it has not been made merely for the purpose of stifling amendments to the bill.

Further, I may say that the Supreme Court of the United States, if they so wish, have the same rights on this bill as they would have if this section were removed and the section proposed by Mr. Sowers were substituted. The arguments given here are arguments to be given before the Supreme Court and are arguments to be advanced by the Supreme Court in their decision, as to whether this bill is constitutional or not constitutional.

I, therefore, ask the members of this House to sustain the point of order raised by Mr. Ruth.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in order to clear up any ambiguity as regards this vote, may I say to my Republican colleagues in the House that to vote "no" does not mean for or against these amendments. In asking my Republican colleages to vote "no" I am asking them to vote not to sustain the point of order raised. You will be merely voting "no" so as to give us an opportunity to pass upon these amendments.

We are not now voting upon these amendments, of whether or not the money is to be used for school purposes or not for school purposes.

I, therefore, ask my Republican colleagues to vote "no" upon sustaining the point of order.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on the same principle I would ask the Democratic members to vote to sustain the point of order, because we can not change the Constitution by any action we take on it today. The Constitution expressly forbids our taking something out of a bill and putting something into a bill, and that is what these amendments propose to do.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Berks, I think is confusing this question with his statement about the Constitution. I don't think the Constitution of Pennsylvania has anything to do with the important question on this point of order. I believe that if we should vote in favor of the point of order or to sustain the point of order raised by the gentleman from Berks, we would be setting a very dangerous precedent and that we would set up a ruling here in the House that would plague the members of the House not only in this session but in future sessions. In my experience in this House, this is the first time that I have ever heard this question raised in an attempt to amend a bill in this form. If you will read Rule 46, only the first part of the rule applies to the point of order raised here, "No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto, or incorporating therewith any other bill or resolution pending before the House." Now that is not the question here. We are not attempting to annex any other bill or resolution that is before the House "or incorporating therewith, any other bill or resolution pending before the House, nor shall a motion or proposition be entertained under color of such an amendment." I think it is clear what the intent of this rule is, and that the intent of the rule is to prevent the thing that is continually done in Congress of the United States where a bill starts out as, we will say, a bill to build a bridge and before they get through with it it may become a liquor control bill or provide for classifications in agricultural pursuits, while the Constitution of Pennsylvania, as we well know, provides that a bill shall contain only one subject that you can't have more than one subject in a bill and and this rule is only to sustain that, but I do say that a point of order raised on an amendment that may be offered to a bill that is presented before the House, because that amendment happens to be in line with some other piece of legislation that is before the House is stretching this rule very far and is taking a technical stand that if it is logically carried out in the future would mean that any bill that was presented except perhaps for very slight changes could not be amended if there was any other legislation in the House that in any way bore upon it. That would mean if you wanted to decide the question you would have to get both bills before the House and they would have to be voted upon, and it might be before you got through you woud have five or six different pieces of legislation before the House for passage before you could determine in just what form you decide the legislation ought to be. That is going to take the time of the legislature, that costs money in printing and it certainly would add to the confusion of the House. I do believe that the objection raised is extremely technical and that it is not founded in real logic. If you now sustain this point of order you are going to bring about something that will come back to plague and haunt you in the very near future.

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time in order to sustain the position taken awhile ago will also read Decision No. 20 of the House of Representatives on points of order:

"The point of order was raised that an amendment proposed was not in order, as it would change the original purpose of the bill: also that the amendment contained more than one subject. The Speaker submitted the point of order to the House for decision. The House decided the point of order well taken. (Journal H. R. 1876, p. 196; see also Journal H. R., February 13, 1901, p. 430, 431; Legislative Record, March 21, 1901, p. 954; Journal H. R., p. 841; Legislative Record, April 10, 1907, p. 2445.)"

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was somewhat surprised at the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, in saying that his desire was to present a better case to the Attorney General of the State of Pennsylvania. I cannot quite follow his process of reasoning. You gentleman have heard a discussion as to whether or not these—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the question before the House is not the provisions of this measure. The question is on the point of order raised by the gentleman from Berks.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken, although the Chair has permitted a very wide latitude up to this time to all the members in debate. The gentleman from Northampton will proceed.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, these amendments as presented involve the question, as has been brought to your attention, of whether or not they change the purpose of the bill. Incidentally they give the opportunity to the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania to decide this question upon that technicality without passing upon the graduation feature at all, and it is the desire of this House to have this question determined by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. I, therefore, feel that no technicality should be offered to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I don't want to be talking about this matter, but I might raise a point of order that this House has already rejected an income tax measure and, therefore, another one is not in order. I do not want to raise that point. I want an income tax bill and I want the Attorney General o have the best bill that he can have and to fight for its success.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sorry to interrupt but I feel that the question is so important as far as the procedure is concerned on the point of order raised that I want to call attention of the House to the fact that the question here is not on the merits of this bill. I do not believe we ought to confuse the vote on the point of order by the question raised by the gentleman from Northampton or by the gentleman from Philadelphia as to the merits of the bill. The question is purely on the point of order. It is an extremely important question and I think we ought to think long and carefully before we vote "aye" on this question.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the point of order raised by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. RUTH?

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the point of order was sustained.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the ruling of the House and the Chair to be on this section that this House cannot amend the bill so as to take it back to the year 1934.

The SPEAKER. That understanding is not correct.

Mr. SOWERS. Then Mr. Speaker, I press my amendment to Section 204.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman that the decision of the House was on all amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia to section 204.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, so that we may be of record on the amendments, I ask unanimous consent for the amendments be placed in the Legislative Journal at this point of the proceedings, so that we may have a record of them.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments in the Legislative Journal? Are there objections?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia that the amendments which have been read by the Clerk are in the Journal now.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, only the first amendment to section 204 was read by the Reading Clerk. The subsequent amendments to section 204 have not been read.

The SPEAKER. The record shows that the Clerk read the amendments down to and including Section 507, and those amendments will appear in the Legislative Journal.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire whether the point of order included Section 507 of the bill?

The SPEAKER. The point of order included the part which had been read by the Reading Clerk.

Mr. SOWERS. Which is Section 507 too?

The SPEAKER. That is the impression of the Chair.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker I will withdraw my objection to the insertion of the remainder of the amendments in the Legislative Journal. However, I would like to make this brief statement in regard to it.

The Federal Government is collecting fifty-three percent on incomes over $150,000, and if we add fourteen and a half percent that would be sixty-seven and a half percent. There would be no incentive for anyone to have an income.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks has withdrawn his objection, therefore, the amendments will be printed in the Journal.

Amend Section 701, page 39, line 10, by striking out the words "School District Income Tax Account Created" and inserting in lieu thereor: "Revenues Payable into General Fund"

Amend Section 701, page 39, lines 13 and 14, by striking out the words "State School," and inserting in lieu thereof: "General"

Amend Section 701, page 39, lines 14, 15 and 16, by striking out the words "and shall be credited" in line 14, and all of the words in lines 15 and 16, and inserting in lieu thereof: "for the use of the Commonwealth"

Amend Section 702, page 39, lines 17 to 28, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend bill, page 40, lines 1 to 28, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend bill, page 41, lines 1 to 28, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Section 705, page 42, lines 1 to 8, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Section 706, page 42, line 9, by striking out the figures "706" and inserting in lieu thereof: "702"

Amend Section 706, page 42, lines 10 to 15, both inclusive, by striking out the words "to be distributed to school districts each year" in line 10, and all of the words in lines 11 to 15, both inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof: "of the tax collected under this act"

"Amend Section 706, page 42, line 16, by striking out the words "added and"

Amend Section 706, page 42, line 20, by inserting after the word "available" the following: "in order to provide additional appropriations to enable the department to administer this act"

Amend Section 707, page 42, lines 21 to 26, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An Act imposing a graduated income tax for school purposes on residents of Pennsylvania including fiduciaries and on income of non-residents derived from property or business in Pennsylvania defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof providing for the assessment collection and lien of said tax and for the disposition of proceeds thereof providing for administration and enforcement of the act by the Department of Revenue conferring powers and imposing duties on certain persons partnerships associations corporations school districts State officers employes and departments imposing penalties and appropriating the revenues derived from said tax

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, to be transcribed for a third reading.

PERMISSION GRANTED LIQUOR CONTROL INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION OF HOUSE.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee to investigate the Liquor Control Board be granted permission to sit during the session of the House.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 813 as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 25, 19395.

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives concur), That there is hereby established the Joint Legislative Commission on Interstate Cooperation, whose function it shall be to perfect the participation of this State in the Council of State Government, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining governmental machinery to facilitate communication, negotation, understanding, and cooperation between the State of Pennsylvania and the other states of the Union, both regionally and nationally;

The Commission shall report to the governor and to the Legislature on the first day of each regular legislative session, and at such other times as it deems proper. Its members shall serve without compensation, but they shall be paid their necessary expenses in carrying out their obligations under this resolution. It may employ a secretary and such other assistants as are needed in the performance of its duties, or it may share the expense of such employment with similar commissions of other states. An item of appropriation shall be inserted in the general appropriation law to pay such expenses and secretarial and clerical assistance;

The said Commission shall be composed of fifteen members, namely:

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation of the Senate;

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation of the House of Representatives; and

Five officials of the State named by the Governor, one of whom shall be designated by him as the chairman of the Commission;

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall forthwith communicate the text of this measure to the legislature of each of the other state of the Union, with the respectful request that each legislature shall enact a measure similar to this resolution, thus establishing a similar commission with like duties and powers, and thus joining with this State in the common cause of reducing the burdens which are imposed upon our citizens by governmental confusion, competition and conflict.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.
